The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol ➡ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole ➡ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREFACE.

THIS work has been undertaken in response to a clamant and insistent demand for a set of Precedents drafted with special reference to the requirements of Western lawyers.

Completeness and lucidity of arrangement have been consistently aimed at throughout the volume.

Whilst no material deviation has been made from the phraseology of established forms (where such exist), an endeavor has been made to include forms and clauses applicable to all combinations of circumstances.

Special thanks are due to Messrs. J. E. A. Macleod and A. de B. Winter for Alberta forms; to Messrs. H. A. Bourne, P. R. Duncan, G. D. Scale, A. H. Douglas and George Rorie for British Columbia forms; and to Mr. D. J. Thom for Saskatchewan forms.

Mr. Walter S. Scott, whose wide experience as a conveyancer has peculiarly fitted him for the work, is responsible for the Index.

PART I.

AGREEMENTS

AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF LAND.

PRELIMINARY NOTE

The 4th. Section of the Statute of Frauds governs agreements relating to the sale of lands and provides that no action shall be brought to enforce specific performance of a sale or purchase of land, unless the agreement upon which the action is brought is in writing and signed by the party to be charged. The section of the Statute reads as follows:

"No action shall be brought whereby to charge any person upon any contract or sale of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any interest in or concerning them, unless the agreement upon which the action shall be brought, or some memorandum or note thereof shall be in writing and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or some other person thereunto by him lawfully authorized."

This provision applies to a leasehold as well as a freehold interest, including a contract for the sale of a lease for less than three years, although the lease itself may be a parol one, under Section 2 of the Statute of Frauds.

A conveyancer's business in connection with sales of land includes drawing up the conditions of sale by auction,—a task in which he is engaged exclusively in the vendor's interest. Conditions of sale are drawn up most frequently in connection with mortgage sales and sales by order of the Court. A form of same is given under the section of this book dealing with mortgages of real property.

A conveyancer's business further includes arranging the terms of a private contract, when he may be acting for either party, making requisitions on title for the purchaser, or answering them on the vendor's behalf, and settling the conveyance on either side. It is obvious that these duties cannot be efficiently performed or discharged without an accurate knowledge of the position of the parties to any open contract and a clear understanding of the conditions generally made in more formal agreements. (See Williams' "Vendor and Purchaser," page 31.)

The most prominent term of the contract is that which requires the vendor to show a good title. (See Williams' "Vendor and Purchaser," page 35.) The conveyancer acting for the purchaser should insist upon or waive his point or objection to title or to the form of agreement, according to the countenance he may expect to receive with reference thereto from the Court.

The essential parts of an agreement for the sale of land are:

(a) The names and a sufficient description of the vendor and purchaser; (b) the amount and nature of the consideration to be paid on one side and received on the other; (c) a sufficient description of the property sold; (d) a covenant to pay in accordance with terms as arranged between the parties.

The usual place of signing a contract is at the end, though the position is not essential, provided that the signature is so placed as to govern the whole instrument. (Caton v. Caton, L.R. 2, H.L. 127, 36 L.J., Ch. 886; Saunderson v. Jackson [1800] 2 Bos. and P. 238, 3 Esp. 180, 5, R.R. 382.) It is not necessary that the vendor should be actually named in the written contract, if he is sufficiently described to admit of his being identified by extrinsic evidence—and the same rule applies to the description of the purchaser or property sold. (See Dart, 7th Edition, 234-235.)

The foregoing remarks apply more particularly to preliminary agreements with reference to the sale of land, and it should be the aim of the conveyancer to have the final contract include every detail of the agreement and every clause essential to and for the protection of his client. It would seem better to err on the side of unwieldiness in the form of agreement, than to prejudice a client's position by endeavoring to attain too great a degree of conciseness.

OFFER TO SELL OR PURCHASE LAND

[Offers to sell or purchase, and acceptance thereof, are usually of an informal nature. In some cases, however, a formal memorandum of an offer to sell and acceptance by the purchaser, is drawn up as follows.]

To John Smith, Regina, Sask.

I hereby submit to you or your assigns the underwritten offer, which shall be open for acceptance until six o'clock p.m., Tuesday, the sixth instant, but no longer.

I offer [to sell or purchase] the following parcel of land, that is to say, situate, etc. [give a concise description of land such as will leave no room for doubt as to land meant], for the price or sum of four thousand dollars, payable as follows:—The sum of one hundred dollars upon the acceptance hereof, by way of deposit and part payment, fifteen hundred dollars by the assumption of the existing mortgage in favor of Investments, Limited, and the balance, two thousand four hundred dollars, in cash upon the acceptance of title and delivery of transfer under the Real Property Act [or recite terms specially arranged].

All adjustments of taxes, rents, interest and insurance premiums as between vendor and purchaser are to be made as of the date of acceptance. [If purchaser is to give mortgage back, it is wise to stipulate for payment of interest on the balance of cash payment, in view of possible delay in having purchaser execute mortgage. This applies particularly to transactions involving large sums.]

The purchaser shall take the said property subject to the existing tenancies, and the vendor shall not be bound to produce evidences of title except such as are in his possession.

The purchaser shall have one week from date of acceptance, to examine title, at his own expense, and shall be seemed to have accepted same, except as to any objections made within that time. The vendor to have a reasonable time to remove objections, but if he is unable or unwilling to do so he may, notwithstanding any intermediate negotiations or correspondence, cancel this contract, return the deposit and shall not be liable to the purchaser for any expenses incurred by him.

The acceptance of this offer shall convert it into a binding agreement for sale, and time shall be the essence of the same.

WITNESS my hand and seal this second day of January, A.D. 1913.

WITNESS:

[Acceptance of offer may be under the hand and seal of the acceptor by formal document or simply a written acceptance signed by the vendor or purchaser as the case may be.]

AGREEMENT

(Skeleton form.)

[Where offer and acceptance is by letter or wire, a preliminary agreement should be subsequently drawn up and signed, viz.:]

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT made this — day of —, A.D. 191 —.

BETWEEN A.B. of [give description] and C.D. of [give description].

WITNESSETH that the said A.B. agrees to sell, and the said C.D. to buy, at a price of four thousand dollars ($4,000.00), the freehold in fee simple, free from incumbrance, of all that, etc. [give land description].

[Here insert special arrangements, as to terms, adjustments, etc.]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said parties have hereunto set their hands and affixed their seals, the day and year first above written

In the presence of {

Informal offers to sell and offers to purchase are often made by letter. Unless the letter including the offer states otherwise, it is understood that the interest sold is the freehold in fee simple, free from incumbrance. Therefore, it is most essential in making an offer of sale that the offer set out fully and concisely the terms and conditions of sale.]

OPTION TO PURCHASE LAND

AGREEMENT made this — day of — A.D. 19 —, between A.B., of —, in the Province of —, hereinafter called "the vendor," of the one part, and C.D., of —, in the Province of —, hereinafter called "the purchaser," of the other part.

WHEREAS the vendor alleges that he is the owner of the piece or parcel of land situate in the Province of — and being composed of —.

THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH that the vendor in consideration of the sum of — dollars now paid* (the with interest at the rate of — per cent. per annum to be computed from the — day of — A.D. 19 —, on so much of the purchase price as from time to time remains unpaid until the whole purchase price and interest has been fully paid.

This offer is to remain open until the hour of twelve o'clock noon of the — day of — A.D. 19 —, and is to be irrevocable until the said mentioned date, and if accepted on or before the said date shall thereupon constitute a binding agreement of purchase and sale; the purchaser to examine the title at his own expense within ten days from the date of acceptance. The vendor not to be bound to produce or show any evidences of title except such as are in his possession.

This offer may be accepted by a letter delivered to the vendor, or mailed, postage prepaid and registered, addressed to the vendor at —, in the — of —, and deposited in the post office on or before the — day of — A.D. 19 —.

acceptance. Where there is actual consideration the amount thereof is generally immaterial. There are, however, American cases holding that a recited consideration of one dollar, either stipulated or paid, is insufficient. Where the option is under seal, but without consideration and is attempted to be withdrawn before acceptance there is some conflict of authority as to the effect to be given to the seal in an action for specific performance. The seal at common law renders the offer irrevocable and this rule would probably be followed by a court of equity. It is, however, advisable in unilateral agreements of this nature that some real consideration pass. (See 38 Cyc. pp. 626, 627.)]

Time shall be of the very essence of this option.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the vendor has hereunto set his hand and seal on the day and year first above written.

NOW THEREFORE THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that the party of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of — dollars to him in hand paid upon the execution

ALSO ALL rights and privileges (if any) to which the party of the first part is now entitled in and by virtue of a certain agreement relating to rights of way for logging purposes dated — day of —, and made between the — and — which agreement in case this option is exercised, the party of the first part will cause to be duly assigned to the party of the second part.

SUBJECT NEVERTHELESS to the reservations and conditions contained in the original grant of the said lands from the Crown.

UPON the terms and conditions, and at and for the agreed purchase price of — dollars to be paid therefor at the times and in the manner set forth in that certain form of contract for the sale of said lands by the party of the first part and the purchase thereof by the party of the second part hereunto annexed, marked Schedule "A" and made a part hereof.

If and when the party of the second part shall elect to purchase the said lands hereunder, then and in such case he shall on or before the said — day of — pay into the — Bank — to the credit of the party of the first part the sum of — dollars together with interest on the sum of — dollars at the rate of — per centum per annum from the date hereof and execute and deliver to the party of the first part at — concurrently with the payment of the said sum of — dollars and interest as aforesaid, a contract in quadruplicate for the purchase by him of the said lands in the form hereto attached and marked schedule "A" as aforesaid, it being understood and agreed that the payment of the said sum and interest and the execution and delivery of the said contract shall together constitute the election by the party of the second part to purchase and pay for the said lands under and by virtue of the option hereby granted. The party of the first part covenants to and with the party of the second part, that when the party of the second part shall have declared his election to purchase and pay for said lands by the payment to said Bank of said sum of — dollars and interest as aforesaid and the execution on his part of said contract and the delivery thereof as aforesaid, then that he, the party of the first part, will promptly execute said contract on his part and deliver two copies thereof to the party of the second part.

This option shall on the expiration of the terms hereof be and become null and void, and all rights of the party of the second part hereunder shall absolutely cease and determine if the said party of the second part shall fail to pay to the credit of the said party of the first part at the said Bank the sum of — dollars and interest as aforesaid on or before the said — day of — or shall fail to deliver the said duly executed contract for the purchase of the said lands in the manner and within the time hereinbefore provided, and the sum of — dollars paid by the party of the second part to the party of the first part as the consideration for this option upon execution hereof shall be absolutely forfeited to the party of the first part. PROVIDED HOWEVER that if upon the option hereby granted becoming null and void, the party of the second part shall deliver to the party of the first part before the — day of — at the office — British Columbia, the reports in writing signed by the cruiser or cruisers, who made the cruise, examination and estimate of said timber for the party of the second part, and verified by notarial declaration showing in detail the description of the lands and the several kinds and quantities of timber found by him or them thereon and if the quantity of timber of any and all kinds standing, lying and being upon all said lands shall be by said reports shown to be less than — feet board measure in the aggregate, then and in that case, a re-cruise of said lands and timber shall be made as soon as practicable, jointly by the parties hereto under the direction of three (3) competent cruisers who shall be chosen as follows:—One by the party of the first part and one by the party of the second part, and the third by the two cruisers so chosen, who shall enter upon the said lands and examine, cruise and estimate the timber thereon and make and sign written reports thereof, and in case all said cruisers shall be unable to agree as to the quantity of the said timber, then the decision of any two of the said cruisers thereon shall be final and conclusive upon the parties hereto; and if it shall be found and determined by said re-cruise that the quantity of said timber on all said lands shall be less than — feet board measure in the aggregate, then, and in that case and not otherwise, the party of the first part shall refund to the party of the second part, the said sum of — dollars paid by the party of the second part to the party of the first part as the consideration herefor, such repayment to be made without interest.

If it shall be found and determined by said re-cruise that the quantity of said timber on all said lands shall be less than — feet board measure, in the aggregate, then and in such case the party of the first part shall pay the whole of the expenses of the said re-cruise.

IT IS EXPRESSLY AGREED between the parties hereto that the party of the first part does not in any way guarantee or warrant and has not made any representation to the party of the second part as to the state of his title, the accuracy and correctness of the survey of the said lands, the area of said lands and the quantity and quality of the timber thereon, all of which matters shall be investigated and determined by the party of the second part on his own behalf prior to his exercising this option, and the exercise of this option by the party of the second part shall be and be deemed to be an absolute release by the party of the second part of any and all claims which he, the party of the second part, might or would have at any time on account of any defect in title, error in survey, shortage of area or with reference to the quantity or quality of the timber on said lands.

AND IT IS HEREBY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that in the event of the party of the second part electing to purchase and pay for said lands within the time and in the manner hereinbefore specified, then that the said above mentioned sum of — dollars shall be credited and applied as a part payment of the sum of — dollars specified in and by said contract to be paid.

This agreement and every condition, covenant and stipulation herein contained shall enure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of each of the respective parties hereto as fully and completely as if it were so stated and provided in connection with each condition, covenant and stipulation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

[This agreement may be adapted, when considering the interests of the purchaser, by making the acceleration clause operative only after default has continued for sixty days, and adding the following clause.]

(PROVIDED, and it is hereby understood and agreed, that the purchaser may reinstate this agreement at any time before final order of foreclosure, by paying arrears of purchase money, interest and all costs, without being called upon to pay instalments of purchase money and interest which have not become due by lapse of time.)*

AGREEMENT FOR SALE OF LAND

(Prepared with special reference to the interests of the vendor.)

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT made in duplicate this — day of —, 191—, between A.B. of the — of —, in the Province of —, hereinafter called "the vendor," of the first part, and C.D., of the — of —, in the Province of —, hereinafter called "the purchaser," of the second part.

1. WITNESSETH that the vendor has agreed to sell to the purchaser and the purchaser has agreed to buy from the vendor the following land, situate in the Province of —, namely: —, together with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging at and for the price or sum of — dollars of lawful money of Canada, payable at — in the manner and on the days and times hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: — together with interest at the rate of — per cent. per annum, to be computed from the date hereof and to be paid — yearly on each — day of — and — after the date hereof on so much principal money as from time to time remains unpaid until the whole principal money and interest is paid, whether before or after the same becomes due; but after default interest at the rate aforesaid shall accrue and be payable from day to day.

2. AND the purchaser covenants with the vendor that he will well and truly pay or cause to be paid to the said vendor the said sums of money together with interest thereon at the rate aforesaid on the days and times and in the manner above mentioned and will also pay and discharge all taxes, rates and assessments including local improvement rates wherewith the said land may be charged from and after the —, and that on default of payment of any instalment of interest, such interest shall at once become principal and bear interest at the rate aforesaid, which interest shall be payable from day to day and shall itself bear interest at the rate aforesaid if not paid prior to the next legal day, it being agreed that all interest as well upon principal as upon interest is to be compounded at each day mentioned for payment of interest.

3. AND the purchaser further agrees that he will forthwith insure and during the continuance of this agreement keep insured against loss and damage by fire and tempest each and every building now or hereafter erected on the said land, in their full insurable value in some insurance company to be approved of by the vendor, and will not do or suffer anything to be done whereby the said policy or policies may be vitiated, and will pay all premiums and sums of money necessary for such purposes as the same shall become due, and will assign and deliver over unto the said vendor the policy or policies of insurance and the receipt or receipts thereto appertaining, and if the purchaser shall neglect to keep the said buildings or any of them insured as aforesaid, or pay the said premiums or deliver such receipts, then it shall be lawful for the said vendor to insure said buildings in the manner aforesaid and all moneys so expended together with all costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith as between solicitor and client shall be deemed to be secured hereby and charged upon the said land and shall without demand therefor with interest at the rate aforesaid compounded from the time or times of advancing the same, be repaid by the present purchaser to the vendor on demand. Evidence of the renewal of such insurance shall be produced to the vendor at least three days before the insurance then existing shall expire, otherwise the vendor may insure as above provided.

4. AND that all moneys received by virtue of any policy or policies may at the option of the vendor either be forthwith applied in or towards substantially rebuilding, reinstating and repairing the said premises, or in or toward payment of the last instalment of principal falling due and by virtue of these presents, and in case of a surplus in or toward payment of the instalment next preceding in point of time of payment and so on until the whole of the principal hereunder shall be paid, and in case of a surplus then in or toward payment of the interest.

5. AND THE PURCHASER FURTHER AGREES to insure in each year during the existence of this agreement the crops grown on the said land against damage by hail in their full insurable value in some insurance company approved of by the vendor, and to pay all premiums and sums of money necessary for such purpose and to assign and deliver over to the said vendor the policy or policies of insurance and the receipt or receipts thereto appertaining; and that all moneys received by virtue of any such policy or policies as aforesaid shall be applied in payment to the vendor of principal and interest due under this agreement as specified in the next preceding paragraph in the case of fire insurance.

6. AND that forthwith on the happening of any loss or damage by fire or by hail or tempest the purchaser will at his own expense furnish all the necessary proofs and do all necessary acts to enable the vendor to obtain payment of the insurance money.

7. IN CONSIDERATION WHEREOF and on payment of the said sums of money with interest as aforesaid in the manner aforesaid, the vendor doth covenant, promise and agree to and with the purchaser to transfer to the purchaser the said parcel of land with the appurtenances as aforesaid, subject to the conditions and reservations contained in the original grant from the Crown, which transfer shall be prepared by the vendor's solicitors at the expense of the purchaser.

8. THE purchaser shall immediately after the execution of this agreement have the right to possession of the said premises, but must get possession at his own expense.

9. AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the parties hereto that until the completion of the purchase the purchaser shall hold the said premises as tenant to the vendor from the day of the execution hereof at a yearly rental equivalent to, applicable in satisfaction of and payable at the same time as the instalments of [principal and] interest upon the principal hereinbefore provided to be paid, the legal relation of landlord and tenant being hereby constituted between the vendor and the purchaser.

[The words "principal and" should be omitted whenever the yearly instalment of principal and interest, the rent reserved, would together amount to a sum grossly in excess of the fair rental value of the land. This would be strong evidence of a want of bona fides in the creation of the tenancy between the parties. See Independent Lumber Co. v. David, 1 W. W. R. 134.]

PROVIDED, and it is hereby agreed that should the vendor become entitled to exercise his right of distress hereby conferred the purchaser hereby expressly waives on the levying of such distress, all irregularities whether as to the time, place or manner or otherwise.

10. AND that the purchaser shall not be entitled to call for the production of any abstract of title or proof or evidence of title or any deeds, papers or documents relating to the said property other than those which are in the possession of the vendor.

11. AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED that in default of payment of the said moneys and interest, or any part or parts thereof on the days and times aforesaid, or of performance or fulfilment of any of the stipulations, covenants, provisos and agreements on the part of the purchaser herein contained, the vendor shall be at liberty to determine and put an end to this agreement and to retain any sum or sums paid thereunder as and by way of liquidated damages in the following method, that is to say: by mailing in a registered package a notice

signed by or on behalf of the vendor intimating an intention to determine this agreement, addressed to the purchaser at — post office, or in case of approved assignment to the post office address of the assignee named in such assignment, or by delivering the said notice to the purchaser or approved assignee personally, and if at the end of twenty days from the time of mailing or delivery thereof the amount due be not paid, then this agreement shall without further notice become void and be at an end, and all rights and interests hereby created or then existing in favor of the purchaser or derived under this agreement shall thereupon cease and determine, and the lands hereby agreed to be sold shall revert to and re-vest in the vendor without any further declaration of forfeiture or notice or act of re-entry, and without any other act by the vendor to be performed, and without any suit or legal proceedings to be brought or taken, and without any right on the part of the purchaser for any compensation for moneys paid under this agreement, and the said purchaser shall forthwith deliver up quiet and peaceable possession of the said lands to the vendor.

12. AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the parties hereto that upon reduction of the vendor's claim hereunder to — dollars the purchaser may ask for and in such case the vendor shall furnish to the purchaser a transfer in accordance with the terms and provisions above mentioned upon the purchaser executing in favor of the vendor a first mortgage on the said lands and premises free from all incumbrances, the same to provide for the payment of the balance of the purchase money in accordance with the provisions herein contained, and to contain a covenant by the purchaser for the insurance against fire to the amount of not less than the full insurable value of all buildings and against hail as above, such mortgage to be satisfactory to the vendor's solicitors and to be prepared by the vendor's solicitors at the expense of the purchaser and the expense of registering the same and of the necessary searches; solicitor's fees and disbursements incurred with regard to the same shall be borne by the purchaser.

[The courts of Alberta and Manitoba have held that the provisions of a similar clause in an agreement for sale are in the nature of a penalty. In the absence of evidence of laches or abandonment of the contract, even after notice given pursuant thereto, if the purchaser is ready and willing to make good his default, specific performance will be decreed; in any event the vendor will be ordered to return the instalments already paid. The tendency of the courts of these provinces is to relieve from the effects of this clause and foreclosure proceedings are advisable rather than cancellation. Stewart v. March, 11 W. L. R. 522; Whittle v. Riverview Realty Co., 14 W. L. R. 359. In Saskatchewan, unless fraud or mistake intervenes, a purchaser must abide by his agreement. The service of a notice of cancellation on default rescinds the contract. Whether payments already made will be returned to the purchaser depends upon his ability to make out a case for the exercise of the equitable jurisdiction of the court. Where the purchaser has been guilty of laches or other circumstances are present which in the opinion of the court render it inequitable to order the return of instalments paid, the clause will be strictly enforced. Steele v. McCarthy, 7 W. L. R. 902; Hale v. Wilson, 16 W. L. R. 352; Banton v. March Bros. and Wells, 1 W. W. R. 544. See also, the following as to this clause generally: Great West Lumber Co. v. Wilkins, 7 W. L. R. 166; Moodie v. Young, 8 W. L. R. 310; Hall v. Turnbull, 10 W. L. R. 536; Dalziel v. Homeseekers' Land Co., 16 W. L. R. 406; Enkema v. Cherry, 18 W. L. R. 641; Hicks v. Laidlaw, 1 W. W. R. 293; March Bros. and Wells v. Banton, 1 W. W. R. 544 (S. C. Can.)]

13. AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED that upon the purchaser or those claiming under him committing any act of waste upon the said lands or doing any other thing whereby the value of the said lands may be diminished, or failing to remain in actual personal possession of the said land, or making default in any of the covenants or provisions herein contained, the whole purchase money and interest hereby secured shall at the option of the vendor forthwith without notice become due and payable.

14. AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED that time is to be considered of the essence of this contract and that all the covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the purchaser shall be binding upon his executors, administrators [successors] and assigns and shall enure to the benefit of the vendor, his executors, administrators and assigns; and in case there are two or more purchasers the covenants herein contained on their part shall be deemed to be joint and several; and wherever the singular or the masculine is used throughout this agreement, the same shall be construed as meaning the plural or the feminine, or a body corporate where the context or the parties hereto so require.

15. No assignment of this agreement shall be valid unless the same shall be for the entire interest of the purchaser and shall be approved and countersigned by the vendor; and no agreement or conditions or relations between the purchaser and his assignee, or any other person acquiring title or interest from or through the purchaser shall preclude the vendor from the right to convey the premises to the said purchaser on the payment of the unpaid portion of the purchase money which may be due hereunder, unless such assignment be approved and countersigned by the vendor as aforesaid, and these conditions shall not in any way be affected or changed by the vendor receiving payment of any portion of such purchase money from any assignee not approved as aforesaid.

[This clause has been interpreted to mean that in order that an assignment may be valid as against the vendor it must have received his approval; in the event of an assignment without his approval, he may ignore the same and convey directly to the original purchaser, notwithstanding the assignment. In such a case the purchaser would nevertheless hold the property as trustee for the assignee. Sauyer Manney Co. v. Bennett, 12 W. L. R. 249; affirmed by the Supreme Court of Canada, 14 W. L. 8. IF THE SAID timber shall at any time or from time to time during the continuance of this agreement be damaged by fire or tempest as aforesaid, then the purchaser shall either within twelve months after the date of such damage or within such further time as may be reasonably necessary in that behalf, cut and remove such damaged timber and pay to the vendor the stumpage charge thereon according to the terms and within the time mentioned in paragraph 11 hereof, or the purchaser shall within ninety days from the date of such damage without actually cutting or removing the said timber pay to the vendor the said stumpage charge on the estimated quantity of the timber so damaged by fire or tempest as aforesaid.

10. The purchaser shall not except as further provided in this paragraph cut and remove any timber from the said premises, until the full purchase price of the said lands has been paid to the vendor. If the purchaser desires to cut and remove timber from the said lands he shall, except as to timber damaged by fire or tempest as provided in paragraph 8 hereof, first by thirty (30) days' notice in writing to the vendor by registered letter addressed to him at —, designate the description thereof by — acre parcels contiguous to one another, of any of the said blocks and the parcels so designated shall be cut and logged clean; all timber shall be cut and removed which measures — and over in diameter at the top end before the purchaser shall be entitled to log any other portions of the said lands. 11. The purchaser shall pay to the vendor a stumpage charge upon all logs cut by the purchaser upon the said lands in pursuance of the terms of this agreement at the rate of — per — feet — board measure, which said stumpage charge shall be based upon a scale of the said logs when placed in the water by an official scaler of the Province of British Columbia, provided, however, that the vendor may concurrently with such scale have the said scale checked or tested by some other official scaler and any errors in said scale when ascertained shall be recognized and be corrected in their accounts and the stumpage rate shall be based on said corrected scale.

12. In case any of said logs shall be lost or destroyed before such scaling, then each of the parties hereto shall appoint a competent person and the person so appointed by the parties shall estimate the number of feet board measure which the said logs would have scaled if they had not been lost or destroyed as aforesaid. The said estimate shall be binding on both parties and the stumpage rate per foot board measure shall be paid according to such estimate.

13. All payments to be made for or under clause 8 hereof or for timber cut and scaled as aforesaid shall be made by the purchaser by his paying on or before the day of each and every month unto the bank at the credit of the vendor the amount due for timber cut and scaled as aforesaid during the preceding calendar month; and the amounts due under clause 8 hereof together with all charges for the remittance thereof by the said bank shall be applied by the vendor in reduction of the purchase price of the said lands, and interest upon the amount so paid shall forthwith cease, each payment to be accompanied by a bill of scale bills for the month in respect of which such payment is made.

14. The purchaser shall at the time of conducting any logging operations on the said lands pile all tops, limbs, branches and refuse on the said lands so logged as aforesaid and shall burn the same at the times and in the manner provided by the Bush Fire Act and any act amending the same or substituted therefor, and shall take all proper precautions to prevent the destruction of any portion of the standing timber or logs by fire being communicated thereto.

15. The purchaser shall take all reasonable precautions and employ such reasonable assistance as may be necessary to prevent and extinguish any fires that may be calculated to endanger the said premises.

16. The purchaser shall pay and satisfy all claims for wages and all other claims against the purchaser that may constitute a lien upon the said land, timber or logs as and when the same shall become due by the purchaser.

17. The vendor expressly reserves for himself and the parties hereto agree that the vendor shall have the right by his agents, servants and employees to enter upon the said lands and any and every part thereof at any time or times to inspect and survey the same and measure the quantity of timber that shall have been cut or removed therefrom not unnecessarily or unreasonably hindering or interfering with the business or operations of the purchaser, and any such persons shall be furnished on demand with a copy of all scale sheets of timber cut on the said premises.

18. It is expressly agreed between the parties hereto that the vendor does not in any way guarantee or warrant and has not made any representations to the purchaser as to the state of his title, the correctness and accuracy of the surveys of said lands and the area of the said lands or the quantity and quality of the timber thereon, all of which matters have been duly investigated by the purchaser to the execution hereof and the execution of this by the purchaser shall be and be deemed to be release of the vendor by the purchaser of any and all claims which the purchaser now has or may hereafter account of any matter arising in connection with the title to the said lands, the area thereof, and the quantity and quality of the timber thereon.

19. The vendor shall not be required to furnish any abstract of title or procure or show any deed or evidence of title not in his possession or any copies of deeds or papers.

20. A deed and assignment of the said lands and premises in a form now approved by the parties and marked with the initials of — on behalf of the purchaser signified as follows —, and the initials of — for the vendor signified as follows —, for the purpose of identification, shall forthwith be executed by the vendor, and such deed and assignment and other documents of title in the possession of the vendor relating to the said land and premises shall be deposited with the — bank at —, to be delivered to the purchaser upon due performance by him of all the terms and conditions of this agreement and upon payment in full as hereinbefore provided of the principal and interest above specified, and in the event of default by the said purchaser in any of the conditions of this agreement and upon the expiration of the time limited by the notice to the purchaser pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 22 hereof the said deed, assignment and documents of title so deposited in escrow shall be by the said bank returned to the vendor on demand, upon the production of the due proof of such default and of the giving of any notice of such default required by the terms of this contract and the expiration of the period limited or specified in and by such notice.

21. The purchaser shall not after default by the purchaser in any of the conditions or provisions of this agreement, including the provisions hereof relating to the payment of principal of said purchase price and interest thereon, and after receipt of notice of such default, cut or remove from the said lands any of the timber thereon, and in case the purchaser shall, notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, cut any of the timber on said lands after any such default and notice, the title to the timber so cut and the logs or other product thereof shall not vest in the purchaser, but shall remain and be vested in the vendor, and the purchaser shall not at any time while in default under the conditions of this agreement sell, remove or otherwise dispose of any logs or other product of timber cut from the said land or any part thereof. But in the event of the purchaser curing such default within the time limited in the next succeeding paragraph, then upon payment of the stumpage charge as herein provided, the said logs, or timber, or product thereof shall become the property of the said purchaser.

22. If default shall be made on the part of the purchaser in any of the covenants, provisions, terms, conditions or stipulations of this agreement, including the provisions hereof relating to the payment of instalments of the purchase price and interest and if such default shall continue for — days after notice shall be given to the purchaser by or on behalf of the vendor of his intention to cancel this agreement, then at the expiration of such — days this agreement shall be void and of no effect, and the vendor shall be at liberty to re-sell the said lands and premises and shall retain all sums of money paid to the vendor by the purchaser under the terms of this agreement, as and by way of liquidated damages for the breach of this agreement, and not as a penalty; and thereupon the purchaser shall deliver up the possession of the said lands and premises and all thereof to the vendor, and the purchaser shall have no claim against the vendor whatsoever for or by reason of such cancellation, sale and retainer of said moneys. In case of such default and the cancellation of the rights of the purchaser under this agreement by notice as herein provided, the vendor shall be deemed to be the owner and entitled to the possession of all timber logs and other products of timber cut from the said lands, or any part thereof which at the time of such default have not been sold and paid for as aforesaid. The procedure provided in this section for the cancellation of the rights of the purchaser under this agreement shall be concurrent with and in addition and without prejudice to and not in lieu of or substitution for, any other right or remedy, at law or in equity, which the vendor may have for the enforcement of his rights under this agreement or his remedies for any default of the purchaser in the conditions hereof.

23. Time is hereby declared and stipulated to be of the essence of this agreement with respect to all payments to be made and conditions and stipulations to be performed by the purchaser.

24. Any notice required to be given to the purchaser under the terms of this agreement shall (in addition to any mode of giving such notice which is permitted by the laws of the Province of British Columbia for the time being in force or any agreement or understanding made between the parties) be deemed properly and sufficiently given, and shall in all respects be valid and effective, if sent to the purchaser by prepaid registered post addressed as follows: —, and such notice shall be deemed to have been delivered to the purchaser — days after the date the same is posted as aforesaid at any Government post office in the Dominion of Canada.

25. It is understood and agreed that the waiver by the vendor of the strict performance of any condition hereof shall not of itself constitute a waiver of, nor abrogate, such condition nor be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other condition.

26. Any moneys payable by the — for land taken for its rights of way or for timber cut upon the lands hereby agreed to be sold shall when received by the vendor be accounted for by the vendor and applied on account of the instalment of the purchase price next falling due after the receipt by the vendor of the said moneys.

27. This agreement and every condition, covenant and stipulation herein contained, shall enure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of each of the respective parties hereto as fully and completely as if it were so stated and provided in connection with each such condition, covenant and stipulation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

EXTRA JUDICIAL CANCELLATION

The courts of the Western Provinces have decided that a cancellation clause in an agreement for sale is in the nature of a penalty, therefore the procedure of cancellation by service of notice is not recommended. If the extra judicial procedure is followed a notice of default should be mailed in a registered letter to the purchaser, giving him thirty days within which to remedy the default, and in the event of failure, notifying him that the vendor will forthwith cancel the contract. At the expiration of the thirty days, a declaration cancelling the agreement should be mailed to the purchaser in a prepaid registered envelope, or preferably should be mailed as aforesaid and also served upon the purchaser in person.

The notices and declarations of cancellation hereafter given are applicable to special forms of agreement. In every case the solicitor drafting the cancellation notice should draft same in strict pursuance of the cancellation and forfeiture clause contained in the agreement in question. See March Bros. and Wells v. Banton, 1 W. W. R. 544.

In view of the fact that foreclosure through the courts has become almost a conveyancing procedure, a form of statement of claim is given.

BETWEEN: —, of the City of Winnipeg, in the Province of Manitoba, "real estate broker" (hereinafter called the vendor), of the first part, and —, of the City of Winnipeg aforesaid, "barrister-at-law" (hereinafter called the purchaser), of the second part.

WHEREAS the vendor has agreed to sell to the purchaser for the sum of — dollars, all and singular that certain parcel or portion of land situate, lying and being in the City of Winnipeg, in the Province of Manitoba, and being composed of lot —, block —, as shown upon a plan of survey of part of lot forty-five (45) of the Parish of Saint Boniface, registered in the Winnipeg Land Titles Office as Plan No. —, subject to the terms of this agreement.

(2) That the said private dwelling house shall bona fide cost and be worth, when completed, not less than the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) [or as the case may be].

(3) That neither the said purchaser, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall, at any time, build upon any portion of the said lot any building whatsoever within a distance of one hundred feet in a straight line from Crescent Boulevard, as shown on said plan, or within a distance of twelve feet from the eastern boundary of the said lot, or within thirty-five feet of the western boundary of said lot.

(4) A private garage attached to, and forming part of, the dwelling house, may be erected.

(5) No private garage or outbuilding shall be built on this lot that does not conform in architecture to the private dwelling erected thereon.

(6) No advertising, signs, bill-boards, spite fences or anything of an unsightly nature shall be erected on this lot.

(7) No trade, manufacture or business shall be carried on, on the said lot, nor shall any building be used for any other purpose than that of a private dwelling house, to be occupied by one family only, and outbuildings incidental thereto; and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no buildings shall be used for mercantile or manufacturing purposes, or as an hospital, or as an apartment block, or as a duplex house, or for any purpose of gain whatsoever. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent the carrying on of the practice or profession of a duly qualified physician or surgeon.

(8) No ashes or garbage shall be left exposed or uncovered, nor shall any nuisance be committed or caused to be committed, or suffered to be committed, on said lot.

(9) Should default occur, at any time during the lifetime of any of the lawful descendants now living of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, and twenty-one years thereafter, in the observance and performance of any of the foregoing covenants, then, after one month's notice in writing personally served upon the registered owner, at the time of such default, of the said land, directing such registered owner to remedy such default, if such default be not remedied within the said period of one month, the said vendor, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall have the right to enter upon the said lands and remedy such default, and may remove and dispose of any building, erection, ashes, garbage, rubbish, building material and other things of the same kind as the foregoing, and shall not be responsible for the safe keeping of anything so removed or disposed of, or for the loss thereof or any damage thereto, or other damages for or resulting from such removal or disposal.

(11) Time shall be strictly the essence of this agreement.

(12) Any caveat filed under or by virtue of this agreement, may be withdrawn at any time by the vendor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, etc.

Note—It will be noted that this building restriction agreement is applicable for registration against an individual lot sold in a subdivision, and the terms of the agreement may be altered according to location and desirability of lot. Further, its advantage over a blanket building restriction agreement lies in the fact that the vendor retains the right to withdraw the caveat and restrictions entirely if at any time subsequent conditions prove the desirability of withdrawal of the restrictions. It will be further noted that the restriction agreement is so drawn as not to transgress the Rule against Perpetuities.

particularly described as follows: —, any building nearer than — feet from the street line on which said lot fronts.

[Specific provision should be made for corner lots, so that the building distance from the side street line will be not so great as to destroy the utility of the lot for building purposes].

(2) THAT neither the said vendor nor his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or any one of them will, at any time hereafter, build or erect, or cause to be built or erected upon any of the lots aforesaid, any greater number than one dwelling house upon each one of the said lots as shown upon said plan, built and designed for occupation by one family only.

(3) THAT neither the said vendor nor his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or any one of them will, at any time hereafter, build or erect, or cause to be built or erected, or use or cause to be used any building already built or erected, or permit to be used any building already built or erected upon any of the said land covered by the said plan, any building or erection for mercantile or manufacturing purposes, or for any purpose other than for the purposes of a dwelling or residence, or incidental thereto.

(4) THAT neither the said vendor nor his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or any of them, will at any time hereafter build or erect, or cause to be built or erected upon lots, viz: —, as shown on said plan, any dwelling house or other building to be used for the purpose of a dwelling, which shall bona fide cost, or have a value when completed, of less than five thousand dollars ($5000.00), or any building of any kind or nature which shall be within a distance of sixty (60) feet in a straight line from the line of — Avenue, as shown on said plan on which said lots front.

Should default occur at any time hereafter during the lifetime of any of the lawful descendants of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and twenty-one years thereafter, in the performance or carrying out of any of the foregoing covenants, then upon one month's notice in writing, personally served upon the registered owner at the time of such default, of the lot or lots upon which said default may occur, directing such registered owner to remedy such default and such default not being remedied within the said period of one month, then the said vendor, or his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall have the right to enter upon the lot or lots upon which such default may have occurred and remedy such default, and the vendor shall also have the right, with or without such notice, to apply to the Court of King's Bench for an injunction restraining the building of buildings in contravention of any of the above covenants.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the erection of stables or other outbuildings necessary for use in connection with the building or residence situated on any lot, on the portion of said lots to the rear of same and sixty (60) feet at least away from any street line shown on said plan.

Upon the vendor transferring all his interest in all or any portion of the land described herein, all personal liability of the vendor hereunder shall thereupon cease and determine as far as concerns such portion or portions so transferred by him.

Time shall be considered as strictly the essence of this agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, etc.

Note—The right of re-entry must not transgress the Rule against Perpetuities, hence the limitation as above set out. The restrictions, however, are considered as covenants running with the land, and bind the land in perpetuity.

Building restriction agreements are registered by way of caveat, a copy of the agreement being annexed to the caveat. The appropriate forms of caveat in the Western Provinces are given hereafter.

And the part— of the second part do— further covenant, promise and agree to and with the party of the first part that in the event of the part— of the second part executing a mortgage or mortgages in the manner set forth in said agreement, the same shall be prepared by the solicitors of the party of the first part at the expense of the part— of the second part, as also the transfer or deed required to convey the said land to the part— of the second part, and that these expenses, as also the expense of registering the title and said conveyance and mortgages shall be payable forthwith to the party of the first part with interest at the rate aforesaid, and that the same shall be a charge upon the said land. AND IT IS AGREED that the said land is sold subject to existing tenancies, as follows:

SUBDIVISION

AND the vendor agrees that the purchaser may subdivide the said property into blocks and lots, each block to contain —lots of — feet each; and further agrees to do all acts and execute all instruments necessary for the registration of a plan of the said property as aforesaid and providing for the necessary streets and lanes according to the regulations governing the registration of such plans, it being understood and agreed that all expenses of and incidentals to such subdivision are to be borne by the purchaser.

AGAINST PRIOR AGREEMENT FOR SALE OR MORTGAGE

THE vendor covenants that he will well and truly pay off as it matures a certain mortgage registered against said land as No. —, and will obtain and register at his own expense a full discharge of same, and will indemnify and save harmless the purchaser therefrom and from all costs, charges and expenses, to which the purchaser may be put by reason of said mortgage, and in the event of default by the vendor, under this covenant the purchaser is to be at liberty to pay any sum or sums so in default, direct to the mortgagee, and any sum or sums so paid are to be considered pro tanto payments in reduction of the balance of purchase price unpaid and secured under this agreement.

Note—The same clause to be used in case of a prior agreement, with appropriate references to same instead of to mortgage.

Form 58

OBJECTIONS TO TITLE AND CANCELLATION BY VENDOR

Should the purchaser insist on any objection to the title or conveyance which the vendor may be unable or unwilling to remove or comply with, the vendor may, at any time, rescind this agreement for sale, and in that event he shall return the deposit to the purchaser, who shall not be entitled to any interest, damages or costs.

Or this clause may be used:

In case the purchaser shall object to the title, the vendor shall be at liberty to annul the sale on returning the deposit to the purchaser without interest, and paying all reasonable expenses incurred by the purchaser in respect of such agreement.

OBJECTIONS AND REQUISITIONS

Any objections to, or requisitions on title are to be in writing and delivered or mailed by registered letter, postage prepaid, to the vendor's solicitor within — days from this date. The purchaser shall be deemed to have accepted the title except as to any objection or requisition made within that time. If any objection or requisition be made within that time, which the vendor is unable or unwilling to remove or comply with, the vendor may (notwithstanding any intermediate negotiations with respect thereto, or attempts to remove the objection or comply with the requisition), by notice in writing to the purchaser or his solicitor, rescind the sale, in which case the vendor shall not be liable for any costs, damages, compensation or expenses [or upon the vendor paying all reasonable expenses incurred by the purchaser in respect of such sale and returning the deposit money paid].

PROVIDED always that the purchaser may waive such objections or requisitions by giving notice in writing to that effect to the vendor or his solicitor at any time within — days from the receipt of such notice of rescission and on such notice of waiver being given this agreement shall remain in full force and effect as though such objection or requisition had never been made. Any objections to the sufficiency of the answers of the vendor are to be in writing and delivered to the vendor's solicitor within — days from the delivery to the purchaser or his solicitor of such answers. If no objection to the answers is made within that time, the purchaser shall be deemed to have accepted the title. If the purchaser makes any objection to the answers of the vendor within the time limited, the vendor (notwithstanding any attempt to answer original requisitions, remove original objections, and notwithstanding any further attempt to answer or remove objections, and notwithstanding any further negotiations) shall have the right to rescind the sale, subject to the provision for waiver of objections hereinbefore contained, and in such case the vendor shall not be liable for any costs, damages, compensation or expenses [or as agreed upon between the parties to the agreement].

FORFEITURE OF DEPOSIT AND RE-SALE ON DEFAULT

IF the purchaser shall refuse or neglect to complete his purchase at the time hereby appointed his deposit money shall be absolutely forfeited to the vendor, who shall be at full liberty at any time afterwards to re-sell the property either at public auction or by private contract; and the deficiency, if any, occasioned thereby, together with all losses, damages and expenses of and attending the same, shall be borne and paid by the purchaser, but any increase in the price obtained at such re-sale shall belong to the vendor [or it may be provided that forfeiture and right of re-sale shall accrue after a ten days' notice in writing to perform his agreement has been served on purchaser by vendor].

Form 60

COVENANT BY VENDOR WHERE PLAN OF SUBDIVISION IS UNREGISTERED

THE VENDOR COVENANTS with the purchaser that said lots are staked out on the ground and surveyed in accordance with blue print hereunto annexed, the said survey having been completed in accordance with provisions of the Real Property Act [or Land Titles Act or Land Registry Act, as the case may be] and amendments thereto by Smith & Smith, qualified Manitoba [Saskatchewan, Alberta or British Columbia] land surveyors, and the original plan of survey is now in the hands of the examiner of surveys in the Winnipeg Land Titles Office for inspection and approval prior to registration. The vendor further covenants that he will with all possible diligence and at his own expense satisfy the requisitions of the examiner of surveys and will complete the registration of said plan and will indemnify and save harmless the purchaser from all costs, charges, damages and expenses to which he may be put by reason of non-performance of this covenant.

Note—It is not advisable to purchase lots according to an unregistered plan, but the practice is often carried out, making such a clause desirable.

Form 61

COVENANTS AS TO POSSESSION OF LAND AND ADJUSTMENTS

POSSESSION of the said land shall be delivered to the purchaser on the — day of —, 191—.

THE vendor will pay all rents, taxes, assessments, interest and other outgoings relating to the said premises and shall receive credit for unexpired fire insurance premiums up to the date of this agreement [or date of possession].

Form 62

THE purchaser shall, immediately after the execution of this agreement, have the right of possession to the said land, but must get possession at his own expense.

Or:

THE purchaser may occupy and enjoy the said land from and after the — day of —, 191—, until default shall be made in the payment of any sum of money above mentioned, or the interest thereon, or any part thereof, at the times or in the manner above set forth, and in the event of default the vendor's right of re-entry shall immediately accrue.

Form 63

TIMBER TO BE PRESERVED

THE purchaser shall remove no wood from the said land, and shall cut down no woods or timber thereon (except sufficient quantity for fuel and fencing for actual and necessary use thereon, and for buildings to be erected thereon), until the purchase money is fully paid, and in no case shall cut ornamental trees on the said land.

Form 64

IMPROVEMENTS MADE BY PURCHASER

All improvements placed upon the said land shall become fixtures and remain thereon, and shall not be removed or destroyed until the final payment for the said land has been made.

Form 65

ERROR AND OMISSION IN DESCRIPTION

Should any error or omission affecting the quantity of land herein agreed to be sold be discovered in the description of the land hereby agreed to be conveyed, before the actual conveyance thereof, but not afterwards, such error or omission shall not invalidate this agreement, but compensation shall be allowed or given, as the case may require by the vendor in case of shortage and by the purchaser in case of excess.

Form 66

EXISTING TENANCIES

AND it is agreed that the said land is sold subject to existing tenancies as follows, namely: [here set out clearly term, name of tenant and particulars of terms, etc., of each tenancy].

Form 67

PURCHASE OF FIXTURES

AND the purchaser shall take, and on the completion of the purchase, pay for the fixtures and fittings in the said dwelling house and buildings at the valuation mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed, in which schedule the said fixtures and fittings are more particularly described.

Form 68

SECOND. The said part— of the second part do— hereby for — heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenant, promise and agree, to and with the said part— of the first part, — heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that — the said part— of the second part, — heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, shall and will, in consideration of the covenants and agreements being strictly executed, kept and performed by the said part— of the first part, as specified, well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the part— of the first part, or unto — heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, the sum of — dollars of lawful money of Canada, in manner following: — per cent. to be paid by — on account of the contract and all additional works, as the work shall proceed, on the value of same, which value shall be in proportion to the amount to be paid for the whole of the works and additional works, the balance of the contract and all extras to be paid within — days from the completion of the said works, and after the contractor— shall have rendered to the architect a statement of balance due to —;

AND IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD that in the case of several contractors being employed on the work, no trade is to be considered complete till the other several contracts are also completed.

PROVIDED that in respect of the said — payments, a progress certificate shall be obtained from and signed by —, "architect," and that — considers the payment properly due, said certificate, however, in no way lessening

AND PROVIDED FURTHER, that if required, in each case a certificate shall be obtained by the contractor— from the registrar of the registration district where mechanics' liens must be recorded, and signed by said registrar, or district registrar, showing "that he has examined the records, and finds no mechanics' liens or claims recorded against the land of the proprietor—," on account of the said contractor—; and thereupon, and on or before the said — day after the completion of the said works, a final certificate shall be obtained from and signed by —, "architect," certifying to the balance due to the contractor— on the said contract, and for all extras in respect thereof; but if, from any reasonable cause whatever, such final certificate should not be obtained, or the giving of the same should be refused by said architect—, the said contractor— shall, nevertheless, after the expiration of the said — days, be entitled to proceed at law to enforce payment of the balance due to — under the said contract, and for all extra work in respect thereof, and the production of a final certificate shall not in any case be a condition precedent to — right to recover the amount justly due and owing to — and such balance and the amount due in respect to extras shall be recovered, if justly due, without the necessity for the production in evidence of any final certificate, and the right of action hereby provided shall not be controlled by the arbitration clause hereinafter set forth.

AND IT IS HEREBY FURTHER AGREED, by and between the said parties as follows, that is to say:

FIRST. The specifications and drawings are intended to co-operate, so that any works shown in the drawings and not mentioned in the specifications or vice versa are to be executed the same as if mentioned in the specifications and set forth in the drawings, to the true intent and meaning of the said drawings and specifications.

FOURTH. In case the works are not carried on with such expedition and with such materials and workmanship as the architect, superintendent, or clerk of the works may deem proper, then, with the special and written consent of the proprietor—, the architect— shall be at liberty to give the contractor— — days' notice in writing to supply such additional force or material as in the opinion of the said architect is necessary, and the contractor— failing to supply the same, it shall then be lawful for the said proprietor— to dismiss the said contractor— and to employ other persons to finish the work in such manner as the architect— may direct, and in accordance with the plans and specifications; and all payments made on account thereof shall be deemed a payment on account of the contract, but without prejudice to the right to recover any money in excess of the contract price, which may be paid for so finishing the works, or any other damage caused by breach of this contract; but if any balance on the amount of this contract remains after completion, in respect of work done during the time of the

In case of a balance remaining to the credit of the contractor—, according to the certificates of the architect—, the same may be received on account of the said security of two hundred dollars to cover the costs of arbitration. In case either party refuses or neglects to appoint an arbitrator within two weeks of his being notified to do so, a Judge for the time being of the County Court of — shall appoint one for him.

SEVENTH. All figured or written dimensions on drawings or specifications to supersede the measurement by scale.

EIGHTH. The proprietor— will not in any manner be answerable or accountable for any loss or damage by fire or otherwise that shall happen or may happen to the said works, or any part or parts thereof, respectively, or for any of the materials or other things used and employed in finishing and completing the said works, or for injury to any person or persons, either workmen or the public, or for damage to adjoining property from any cause which might have been prevented by the contractor— or — workmen, or anyone employed by — against all which injuries and damages to persons and property, the contractor— having control over such work must properly guard and make good all damage, from whatever cause, by fire or otherwise, being strictly responsible for the same.

TENTH. All work and material as delivered on the premises, to form part of the works, are to be considered the property of the proprietor—, and are not to be removed without his consent; but the contractor— shall have the right to remove all surplus material after he has completed the works herein contracted for.

ELEVENTH. Should the contractor— fail to finish the work at or before the time agreed upon, —he— shall pay to or allow the proprietor—, by way of liquidated damages, the sum of — dollars per week for each and every week thereafter the said works shall remain incomplete, due allowance to be made for extension of time for additional work or alterations, as laid down in clause number three of this agreement.

TWELFTH Should any work be delayed beyond the time mentioned in this agreement by the inclemency of the weather, or by reason of general strikes of a particular trade, the architect— shall have full power to extend the time for the completion of the works, making a just and reasonable extension for that purpose.

THIRTEENTH. The proprietor— is not to be responsible to any contractor— for the non-completion of a prior contractor's work, or any particular portion thereof, at the time named, but in case a contractor is unable to get possession on account of the failure of a prior contractor to complete his work within the time limited in his contract, such subsequent contractor shall be entitled to have for the completion of his contract such additional time as the architect— may deem necessary or just, and such extended time shall be substituted for the time for completion in this contract.

FOURTEENTH. All drawings and specifications in possession of the contractor— shall be returned to the architect by the contractor— before the final certificate is issued.

FIFTEENTH. The contract to be in duplicate if so desired by either of the contracting parties.

— Architect.

THIS AGREEMENT, made in duplicate the — day of —, in the year one thousand nine hundred and —, by and between —, party of the first part (hereinafter designated the contractor—), and —, party of the second part (hereinafter designated the owner—).

WITNESSETH that the contractor— and the owner—, in consideration of the fulfilment of the agreements herein respectively made by the other, agree with each other as follows:

ARTICLE I. The contractor— under the direction and to the satisfaction of —, architect, acting for the purposes of this contract as agent— of the owner—, shall and will provide all the materials and perform all the work mentioned in the specifications and shown on the drawings and details prepared by the said architect— in accordance therewith, and with the general conditions indorsed hereon, for the —, which drawings and specifications are identified by the signatures of the parties hereto and which materials and work are herein called "the works."

ARTICLE II. The architect— shall furnish the contractor— with such further detailed drawings or explanations as may be required from time to time and necessary to detail and illustrate the works to be done and the contractor— shall conform to the same as part of this contract so far as they may be consistent with the original drawings and specifications referred to and identified as provided in Article I, and any corrections made therein by the architect— shall be permitted without increasing the contract price only where the contractor— has not, by the error or omission, been misled in making his tender on the said works.

ARTICLE III. No alteration shall be made in the works shown or described by the drawings and specifications, except upon written or verbal order of the architect— and when so made the value of the work added or omitted shall be computed by the architect— at least within two days after he is requested in writing by either party so to do, and the amount so ascertained shall be added to or deducted from the contract price. In case of dissent from such computation by either party hereto or of failure of the architect— to make such computation, the valuation of the work added or omitted shall be referred to arbitration as hereinafter mentioned.

ARTICLE IV. The contractor— shall provide sufficient, safe and proper facilities at all times for the inspection of the works by the architect or his authorized representative. He shall within twenty-four hours after receiving verbal and written notice from the architect— to that effect, proceed to remove from the grounds or buildings all material condemned by the architect—, whether worked or unworked, and to take down all portions of the work which the architect— shall by like verbal and written notice condemn as in any way failing to conform to the drawings and specifications. No materials brought on the grounds shall be removed without the consent in writing of the architect—. The whole of the works are to be executed in the most substantial, workmanlike and perfect manner, unless otherwise provided for in the specifications. The contractor— shall be responsible for all loss or damage to the works that may occur during the progress of the works until such time as the works are complete, unless due to fire or tempest or to the negligence or lack of judgment of the architect—, or caused by other trades, provided that the contractor— shall be responsible for reasonable wear and tear to the work even if caused by other trades, and the contractor— shall make good any damage he is liable for, as aforesaid with as little delay as possible, delivering the whole work clean, complete and perfect in every respect in accordance with the plans and specifications.

ARTICLE V. Should the contractor— at any time refuse or neglect to supply a sufficiency of properly skilled workmen, or of materials of the proper quality, or fail in any respect to prosecute the work with promptness and diligence, or fail in the performance of any of the agreements herein contained, such refusal, neglect or failure being certified by the architect—, the owner— shall be at liberty (after six days' written notice to the contractor—) to provide any such labor or materials, and to deduct the cost thereof from any money then due or thereafter to become due to the contractor— under this contract; and if the architect—, with sufficient justification, shall certify that such refusal, neglect or failure is sufficient ground for such action, the owner— shall also be at liberty to terminate the employment of the contractor— for the said works and to enter upon the premises and take possession, for the purpose of completing the works comprehended under this contract, of all materials, tools and appliances thereon, and to employ any other person or persons to finish the works and to provide the materials therefor; and in case of such discontinuance of employment of the contractor— he shall not be entitled to receive any further payment under this contract until the works shall be wholly finished unless the owner is unreasonably dilatory in completing said works, at which time, if the unpaid balance of the amount to be paid under this contract shall not exceed the expense incurred by the owner in finishing the work such excess shall be paid by the owner— to the contractor—, but if such expense shall exceed such unpaid balance, the contractor— shall pay the difference to the owner—. The expense incurred by the owner—, as herein provided, either for furnishing materials or finishing the works, and any damage incurred through such default, shall be audited and certified by the architect—, but appeal from his decision may be made to arbitration, as herein provided.

ARTICLE VI. The contractor— shall complete the whole of the works comprehended in this agreement by the — day of —, A.D. 191—, provided that the contractor— shall, for every day after the date herein fixed for completion thereof that the owner— shall be delayed solely through the contractor's default, in obtaining any use and benefit of the works, pay to the owner— as liquidated damages for such delay at the rate of six per centum per annum on the total amount of the contract price. In no case shall the owner— be entitled to claim over six per centum per annum on the said contract price by reason of any special damage from delay.

ARTICLE VII. Should the contractor— be obstructed or delayed in the prosecution or completion of the works by reason of the act, neglect, delay or default of the owner— or of the architect— or of any other contractor— or person employed by the owner— upon the works, or the workmen of such other contractor— or by reason of extra work being required to be done or by reason of inclemency of the weather, or by reason of delay in obtaining materials caused by strikes or delays in transit or shortage of labor through no default or negligence of the contractor— or by reason of any damage which may happen by flood, fire, lightning, earthquake or cyclone or by reason of the abandonment of the works by the employees by strike or lockout or any cause through no fault of the contractor (provided that the unwillingness on the part of the contractor— to pay in excess of union wages shall not be deemed default on his part), then the time herein fixed for the completion of the works shall be extended for a period equivalent to the time lost by reason of any or all the causes aforesaid, but no such allowance shall be made if in consequence of the contractor's omission to present a claim therefor to the architect— within a reasonable time after the occurrence of said delay, the architect— or arbitrators are unable to make a fair estimate of the extension of time the contractor— should receive in reunder. The duration of such extension shall be certified to by the architect subject to appeal to arbitration as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE VIII. The owner— agrees to provide all labor and materials not included in this contract and the further detailed drawings and explanations mentioned in Article II., in such manner as not to delay the material progress of the works, and in the event of unreasonable failure so to do, thereby causing loss to the contractor—, agrees that he will reimburse the contractor— for such loss; and the contractor— agrees that if he shall unreasonably delay the material progress of the works so as to cause any damage for which the owner shall become liable, then he shall make good to the owner— any such damage. The amount of loss or damage to either party hereto shall in every case be fixed and determined by the architect—, subject to arbitration as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE IX. It is hereby mutually agreed between the parties hereto that the sum to be paid by the owner— to the contractor— for said work and materials mentioned in Article I. shall be — $ —, subject to additions and deductions as hereinbefore provided and that such sum shall be paid in current funds by the owner— to the contractor— in fortnightly instalments as the works progress, such instalments to represent eighty per cent. of the amount of the work done and materials supplied on the ground if the contract price and extras do not exceed $15,000, or eighty-five per cent. if they do, and the architect— shall, as accurately as possible, issue progress estimates thereof promptly every two weeks.

The final payment shall be made within twenty days after the contractor— has substantially fulfilled this contract, if the contractor— shall have given satisfactory evidence that no mechanics' lien, other than his own or liens of which he holds discharges, exists in respect of the said works; otherwise the final payment shall be made within two days after the time for filing mechanics' lien has elapsed. The contractor may, if he considers he has completed the works, notify the architect— in writing to that effect, and the architect— shall, within seventy-two hours thereafter, issue a final certificate that the works are completed and the last payment due under this contract and indicating the amount thereof or state in writing in what respect the works are incomplete, and his decision shall be final, subject to arbitration as hereinafter provided. If the portion of the said work then remaining incomplete may be readily completed by the contractor—, the same shall be done before he is entitled to ask for his final certificate, but if for reasons not within the contractor's control, he cannot then complete the same, the architect— shall forthwith deduct the actual value of the incomplete portions together with fifty per cent. thereon (of the propriety of which deduction and the amount thereof the architect— shall be the judge subject to arbitration as herein provided) from the contract price and issue a final certificate that the works are completed and the last payment due and indicating the amount thereof. Any such final certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the fulfilment of this contract by the contractor— within the meaning hereof. In the event of the destruction, either whole or partial, of the works by fire or tempest, the owner— shall, upon the request in writing of the contractor—, and within one week after such request, elect whether the works shall be rebuilt or restored and shall notify the contractor— in writing of his election. If the owner shall elect to abandon the completion of the works, the architect— shall within two weeks after such notification to the contractor— of such election, issue his final certificate, showing the proportionate value, calculated on the basis of the contract price, of the work done and material supplied to the date of the fire or tempest and such proportionate value, after there has been credited thereon any payments theretofore made by the owner— to the contractor—, and any set-off owing by the contractor— to the owner, shall thereupon be payable to the contractor— in the same manner as if he had substantially fulfilled his contract. If the owner shall elect to proceed with the completion or restoration of the works, there shall be added to the contract price the actual additional cost of completion and restoration such destruction shall have entailed and the architect— shall forthwith issue a progress certificate showing the value of the work done and material supplied to the date of the fire or tempest. All payments shall be made only upon the written certificates of the architect— to the effect that such payments are due unless the architect— is in default in issuing the same.

If at any time there shall be evidence of any lien or claim in respect of the works, for which, if established, the owner— of the said premises might become liable, and which is chargeable to the contractor—, the owner— shall have the right to retain out of any payment then due or thereafter to become due an amount reasonably sufficient to completely indemnify him against such lien or claim. Should there prove to be any such claim in respect of the works after all payments are made, the contractor— shall refund to the owner— all moneys that the latter may be compelled to pay in discharging such claim in consequence of the contractor's default.

ARTICLE X. No certificate given or payment made under this contract, except the final certificate or final payment, shall be conclusive evidence of the fulfilment of this contract by the contractor—, either wholly or in part, and no payment shall be construed to be such an acceptance of defective work or improper materials as would entitle the contractor— to payment thereof.

ARTICLE XI. The owner— shall, during the progress of the works, maintain full insurance on the works in his own name and in the name of the contractor—, against loss or damage by fire, and shall at all times give the contractor— full information respecting the same. The policies shall cover all work incorporated in the building, and all materials for the same in or about the premises, and shall be made payable to the parties hereto as their interests may appear. Any insurance carried by the owner— in his own name shall be deemed to be in satisfaction of this covenant even if not expressed to be payable to the contractor—, and the owner— shall in such case be deemed to be a trustee thereof for the contractor— to the extent of anything owing to the contractor— in respect of this contract. Provided, that if the owner— makes default in maintaining sufficient insurance, the contractor— may insure the works in respect of his interest therein and the premiums paid by the contractor— therefor shall be forthwith payable by the owner— to the contractor—.

ARTICLE XII. Any arbitration herein provided for shall be as follows: The contractor— and owner— shall each appoint one arbitrator and such arbitrators shall appoint a third. The decision of any two of the three arbitrators shall be final and binding. Each of the parties hereto shall pay one-half of the expenses of such reference. A party who has not appointed an arbitrator after the other party has appointed one shall do so within two days after being notified in writing by such other party to do so. If the arbitrator of either party shall fail to proceed with the consideration of the matters within three days after being requested in writing by the other party's arbitrator so to do, such other party's arbitrator shall, if a third has not been appointed, be at liberty to act as sole arbitrator, and his decision shall be final and binding, or the other two arbitrators, if a third has been appointed, may forthwith appoint an arbitrator in lieu of the one who has failed to proceed as aforesaid, and the decision of two of such three arbitrators shall be final and binding. If either party has done all in his power to comply with the provisions herein contained as to securing an arbitration, but by reason of the default of the other party or of the architect— or of the arbitrator appointed by such other party or by reason of the arbitrators being unable to agree, or if no award is made within a reasonable time, such party may take such action as would be permissible in the courts in the same way as if no reference of the matter in question either to the architect— or to arbitration had been herein provided for and the other party shall not be at liberty to object that the remedy is only by arbitration or that arbitration is pre-requisite to such action being taken or that the appeal to arbitration having proved abortive the decision of the architect— is final and binding. An award under the provisions of this article may be made a rule or judgment of the Court of King's Bench.

ARTICLE XIII. The covenants herein contained shall apply to and be binding on the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, and each of them.

ARTICLE XIV. In case the terms of this contract and the general conditions printed hereon conflict with the specifications, the provisions of this contract and the said conditions indorsed hereon shall govern.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties to these presents have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

STANDARD SPECIFICATIONS FOR CON-STRUCTION OF SIDEWALK AREAS

(To be attached as rider to preceding agreement.)

CITY OF [Winnipeg]

When applying for permit to construct areas in city streets, owners of buildings must submit plan in detail of the proposed construction.

The plan is to be drawn to a scale of $\frac{1}{4}$ inch to the foot, and is to show clearly the proposed materials and method of construction. The details are to be shown in scale of one inch to the foot.

When such plan has been accepted by the City

Engineer, no deviations may be made without consent of said Engineer.

The areas are to be designed as regards foundations, retaining walls and supports, sufficiently strong to carry a uniformly distributed live load of 300 pounds per square foot of surface. The carrying capacity of the slab will be 300 pounds live load per square foot uniformly distributed, or a concentrated load of 2,000 pounds on any point of the slab.

The sidewalks and the front wall will be designed as retaining walls. The front wall—if area extends to curb—will be proportioned for a load of six tons, occupying an area three feet wide by nine feet long immediately outside the curb-line.

The support of the slab will be steel or wrought iron sections. The slab will be reinforced concrete, or brick arches.

The maximum permissible fibre stress of steel is 16,000 pounds per square inch. That of wrought iron 10,000 pounds.

Any prism lights, gratings, coal chutes, ash-doors, etc., to be put in must be shown in full detail on the plan, and must all develop the strength required for a slab covering the same area.

Areas must extend to curb line.

When doors or coal chutes are to be put in, such openings must be put in at curb so as not to interfere with traffic on sidewalk.

All concrete, brick and other materials used shall be of approved quality, and the workmanship shall be in every particular satisfactory to the City Engineer.

THIS is the exhibit marked "B," referred to in the foregoing agreement between the City of [Winnipeg] and ———.

GENERAL FORMS OF AGREEMENT

(A) Agreements Relating to Personal Property

It has been rightly stated that the title to goods and chattels does not rest upon title deeds, nor in general upon documentary evidence, but it is founded prima facie upon visible possession and apparent ownership. Section 17 of the Statute of Frauds provides that agreements covering personal property must in certain cases be in writing.

Section 17 of the Statute is now replaced and substantially re-enacted by Sale of Goods Act, '303.

Section 4, The Sale of Goods Act, Revised Statutes of Manitoba, 1902, provides as follows:

"A contract for the sale of any goods of the value of fifty dollars or upwards shall not be enforceable by action unless the buyer shall accept part of the goods so sold, and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the contract, or in part payment, or unless some note or memorandum in writing of the contract be made and signed by the party to be charged or his agent in that behalf."

See also Sale of Goods Acts for Provinces of Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia.

Further, the Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgage Act, Revised Statutes of Manitoba, 1902, provides that where there is not actual and continued change of possession the sale must be in writing by conveyance known as a "Bill of Sale." The significance of the seal is that it imports consideration, and it is usual, therefore, in cases where actual change of possession does not take place, to reduce agreements for the sale of goods of over fifty dollars in value, into writing under seal, with an expressed consideration.

If the above machines will not bear out the above warranty after a trial of one day, written notice shall be given to the company, and the agent from whom purchased, stating wherein it fails to satisfy the warranty, and reasonable time shall be given the company to send a competent person to remedy the difficulty or defect, the purchaser rendering necessary and friendly assistance. When at the request of the purchaser, a man is sent to operate the above machinery, which is found to have been carelessly or ignorantly handled, to its injury in doing good work, the expense incurred by the company in putting same in working order again shall be paid by said purchaser.

No other remedy than the return of said machinery in the manner herein provided for, shall be had for any breach of warranty or warranties on this purchase.

IT IS ALSO AGREED that no act or conduct on the part of any local or traveling agent or of any mechanical expert whether in rendering assistance to operate said machinery, or attempting to remedy defects therein, shall be or constitute a waiver of any of the provisions hereof, or operate to extend the period of trial, and that no modification of this contract or waiver of its requirements on behalf of the company can be made by any person, other than a principal officer of the said company, and then only in writing.

IT IS AGREED that if the company is unable to furnish the goods hereby ordered, by reason of its inability to secure materials for the manufacture of same, or the damaging of its factory or manufactured goods by fire or the elements; or the closing of its factory by strikes or lock-outs; or, if at

Or in case the company should, for any other reason which it deems good, not supply said machinery or goods or any part thereof at the time aforesaid or within a reasonable time thereafter, each of the undersigned hereby releases the company from all liability or damages therefor.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that no change or modification in the price, terms of payment, or securities, and no change or substitution of one style or size of machine for another, will in any manner change, modify or vary the terms of the warranties herein contained, and that such warranties and no other shall apply to such substituted machines, attachment or article.

the party of the second part, hereinafter called the buyer, and the buyer hereby agrees to buy outright from the seller, —, f.o.b. —, to be sold in the territory tributary to —, at such prices and discounts and under such terms and conditions as are hereunder mentioned: [here give full description of article and price both for cash and on terms of credit, viz.: Cash in 60 days (or as case may be)].

The following additional discounts will be allowed for quantity shipments: On 5 to 10 machines at one shipment, 2 per cent. from list; on 11 to 25 machines at one shipment, 3 per cent. from list; on 26 to 50 machines at one shipment, 4 per cent. from list; on 51 machines or more at one shipment, 5 per cent. from list.

Settlements other than by cash or sight draft on bill of lading shall be governed by the following conditions:

(1) All time invoices rendered by the seller to the buyer shall be accompanied by promissory notes covering the amounts of such invoices, payable at three or six months from date of invoices (according to quantity of [separators] bought) without interest to maturity, but bearing interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum after maturity until paid; and it is hereby agreed that the buyer will sign such notes and forward same to the seller immediately upon receipt of invoices and notes as above described. In case of failure to sign and forward notes within ten days after date of invoice, the full amount shall become due and payable in thirty days after date of invoice and draw interest at the rate of ten per cent. thereafter.

(2) Before maturity of note or notes at three or six months signed by the buyer as aforesaid, but in any case within ten days after the sale of each and every separator, the buyer may turn in farmers' paper to apply on such note or notes, such farmers' paper to grade satisfactorily and bear interest at eight per cent. from date until due, and at ten per cent. per annum after maturity until paid. It will be optional with the seller to accept or to reject and decline acceptance of any and all paper which does not grade satisfactorily, and the buyer must be willing and hereby agrees to guarantee payment of such paper by suitable indorsement. It is further agreed that when the seller accepts for credit such farmers' paper the same shall be discounted at three per cent. from face; in other words, the buyer will receive credit in the sum of $97.00 for every $100.00 of interest-bearing farmers' paper accepted by the seller, as aforesaid.

(3) In selling separators on time, the buyer shall always demand and receive a partial payment in cash as an evidence of good faith on the part of his customers. The purpose of such cash payment is to protect the buyer, and also to give the purchaser a proprietary interest in his separator, thus insuring his proper care and appreciation of the machine.

(4) The buyer hereby binds himself to observe strictly the following general rules in addition to those already mentioned: Paper shall not be taken from farmers to run over twenty-four months; all settlements must be divided into several notes, for example: If, after cash payment there remains, say $75.00 to be settled for by notes, divide as follows: One note for $20.00 at six months, one note for $20.00 at twelve months, one note for $20.00 at eighteen months, one note for $15.00 at twenty-four months, all with interest as hereinbefore mentioned. The above is given as an example only, and may be varied to suit the special conditions of each case. Note forms to be supplied by the seller shall always be used, and care must be exercised in drawing the notes; the size, style and serial number of separator must appear in the body of every note and all notes shall be filled out in ink.

THIS INDENTURE, made in triplicate the — day of —, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and —, between — (hereinafter called the party of the first part), of the one part, and — (hereinafter called the party of the second part), of the other part;

WHEREAS the party of the second part is the owner of the lands hereinafter described to which as also to certain other lands there are appurtenant certain water records or water rights or licences to use water for irrigation purposes, and the party of the first part has agreed with the party of the second part to convey to such of his lands as may be thus irrigated by gravity so much water as he may be entitled to by virtue of such water records, rights or licences for irrigating the irrigable portion thereof, but subject to the conditions and restrictions hereinafter contained;

AND WHEREAS the party of the first part has acquired and constructed dams, ditches, canals and other works and will from time to time construct other ditches, canals and other works as required for the purpose of conveying water to irrigate so much of the said lands as is capable of being irrigated by gravity under and by virtue of the said records or licences.

AND WHEREAS the said lands owned by the party of the second part are described as follows: ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being —, containing — acres, of which — acres more or less are alleged by the party of the second part to be capable of being irrigated by gravity from the party of the first part's system as hereinbefore provided.

1. NOW THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH that the party of the first part for and in consideration of, and subject to and upon the covenants and agreements hereinafter mentioned, agreed to both by the party of the first part, and the party of the second part, doth covenant and agree to convey to the lands of the party of the second part as hereinbefore provided for — hours on — days per week (the days to be fixed from time to time by the party of the first part during the irrigation season of each year) during the currency of these presents, that certain quantity of water limited to the quantity of water available to the party of the first part under said records for irrigation purposes during the said — hours of said — day per week (less such reasonable percentage for loss by evaporation as may be fixed by the party of the first part) multiplied by the number of acres comprised in the lands owned or held by the party of the second part and divided by the total number of acres of the whole of said lands to which the said water records, rights or licences are appurtenant, but in no case shall the party of the first part be bound to convey to the party of the second part for the lands so owned or held by him a greater quantity of water for irrigation purposes than one acre foot per annum per acre of irrigable lands, but the party of the first part shall not be bound to deliver more than one-eighth of an acre foot per acre during one — hour irrigating period.

2. The party of the first part shall deliver said quantity of water at the times mentioned to the party of the second part out of the water then being in the canal, ditch, or any lateral, or branches thereof belonging to the party of the first part available for such purpose, at such point or points along the line of the said canal, ditch or lateral or branches thereof as may be nearest to the outside line of the lands of the party of the second part (and one of said points of delivery being at a sufficient elevation to cover by gravity all irrigable portions of the lands of the party of the second part) and said water shall be delivered through sluices or measuring boxes or devices constructed and maintained by the company, and the manner of withdrawing or regulating the supply of water from the canal, ditch, lateral or branches shall be prescribed by the party of the first part, and shall at all times be under its exclusive control; but the party of the first part shall not be liable or accountable for any failure or deficiency in the supply of water unless the same is caused by its wilful neglect or default.

3. The party of the first part may shut off that water agreed to be supplied, whenever necessary for repairing its canal, or any branch, lateral, fluming, dams or other works connected with the system, without there being any claim on the part of the party of the second part, but shall give reasonable notice to the party of the second part of its intention to do so, whenever practicable, and the party of the first part shall use all diligence in making such repairs.

4. It is hereby agreed and declared, that if any lateral or other ditch, or ditches, or flumes, shall be required to convey the water from the main ditches of supply to the nearest outside line of the lands of the party of the second part, the said party of the first part shall construct at its own expense, such laterals or other ditch or ditches, or flumes, and it shall from time to time repair and keep the same in repair. And in the event of its being found convenient or necessary in the interests of the party of the first part or other users to construct a lateral or ditch, or flume, or works, across the lands of the party of the second part, to convey water to the owner or owners or occupiers of other lands for the purposes set forth in the said water records, rights or licences, then the party of the second part will permit the party of the first part, its agents and workmen, to enter upon his lands for the purpose of surveying, constructing and keeping in repair such lateral or other ditches, flumes or works. And the party of the second part covenants and agrees not to damage or in any wise injure such ditches or flumes; and the party of the second part shall not be entitled to any compensation for any land taken for such purposes or other works done by reason of such ditching or fluming being placed on such lands, or for the entry of the party of the first part thereon, for any of the aforesaid purposes.

5. The party of the first part, by its agents or employees, shall have the right at all times to enter upon the land of the party of the second part to see that this agreement is being carried out, and for the purpose of making repairs or new constructions or other works that may be necessary to its property without the party of the second part being entitled to any compensation, but the party of the first is to make such entry, repairs, or construction of works in as reasonable and workmanlike manner as possible.

6. And the party of the second part hereby further covenants and agrees with the party of the first part that he will during the currency of these presents on the — day of — in each year pay to the party of the first part at — for the conveyance and delivery of the supply of water under the terms thereof, the sum of — dollars per acre per annum; the said sum of — dollars per acre per annum is a minimum payment, the party of the second part hereby covenanting with the party of the first part to pay to the party of the first part such further or other amount as shall be fixed from year to year by the party of the first part as a tariff of annual charges for the conveyance of the water to the lands to which said records or licences are appurtenant; PROVIDED, however, that such amount shall not in any one year exceed a sum equal to — per cent per annum on the cost, sinking fund and maintenance of the party of the first part's irrigating system and works as at present, and hereafter constructed, and any and all additions, extensions or renewals thereof and all other expenses and outgoings in connection therewith. And the party of the second part further covenants with the party of the first part to make said payments on the days and times and in the manner aforesaid without any deduction whatsoever, and in default of making any such payments or part or parts thereof it is agreed that the party of the first part shall have the right to enter upon the said lands of the party of the second part and there to distrain for any money so due as if the same were rent due in respect of the said lands on common demise. The party of the first part agrees to hold itself ready to deliver or convey said water under the terms of this agreement and the party of the second part agrees to pay for the service the said annual rental.

7. The party of the first part may, if at any time during the currency hereof the party of the second part shall fail to make the payments hereby agreed to be paid, or any part thereof, or to perform any of the covenants herein contained, cut off and refuse to convey the supply of water from the said land occupied by the party of the second part, and the party of the second part shall not have any claim against the party of the first part by reason of the water being shut off as aforesaid. If the annual charges are not paid for three years in succession, the party of the first part may terminate this agreement by notifying the party of the second part in writing under registered cover, addressed to his last known post office address, whereupon all the rights of the party of the second part hereunder shall cease and determine.

8. And the party of the second part doth hereby covenant with the party of the first part that he will use the water to be supplied hereunder for the purposes set forth in the said water records, and not for any other purposes, nor for any other lands than those purchased by him and hereinbefore referred to, and that the water shall be carefully and economically used and not demanded or taken in excess of actual requirements, and under no circumstances shall the party of the second part permit the water or any portion thereof to run to waste.

9. The party of the second part agrees to waive and doth hereby waive any and all claims for loss or damage by reason of or resulting from any leakage or seepage from the said ditches, laterals, or branches, or any of them, or from any dams or other works of the said party of the first part, wheresoever constructed, but the party of the second part shall promptly give notice to the party of the first part of all damages resulting from such causes, and the party of the first part hereby agrees to take every reasonable means to correct and prevent all such leakage and seepage, whenever notified of the same.

10. (d) And to thereafter maintain and repair the said wharf and keep and cause to be kept the same in good order, condition and repair (reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire, lightning and tempest only excepted) and clean and free from obstructions, rubbish and nuisances.

(e) And to permit the grantor, its officials, servants and workmen from time to time and at all reasonable times, to enter and inspect the same and of any defects or wants of reparation and nuisances or wants of cleanliness which on such inspection may be found, to give notice in writing to the grantees.

(f) And that the grantees, on being served with such notice, shall and will forthwith make good, remove and abate at their own cost and expense all defects, wants of reparation, nuisances and wants of cleanliness, to the satisfaction of the engineer for the time being of the grantor, and in case the grantees shall neglect, delay or fail for more than one week from the service on them of the said notice, to make good, remove and abate all defects or wants of reparation, nuisances and wants of cleanliness, to the satisfaction of said engineer, it shall be lawful for the grantor to cause the same to be done by its officials, servants or workmen or by any contractor or contractors it may think fit to employ for the purpose at the sole cost and expense of the grantees.

(g) And the grantees shall and will permit such officials, servants, workmen, contractor and contractors to enter upon as well the said wharf and demised premises as their adjoining premises, for the purpose of making good, removing and abating such defects or wants of reparation, nuisances and wants of cleanliness and shall and will pay to the city forthwith, on the completion thereof, the reasonable cost thereof, as ascertained by the certificate of the engineer of the grantor for the time being, which certificate shall be final, conclusive and binding on all parties.

(h) That they shall not, neither will at any time during the said term, throw, dump or place, or cause, permit or suffer to be thrown, dumped or placed in the said river, any material, soil or rubbish whatever (save such soil and material as may be requisite for the construction of said wharf) or commit or do, or cause, permit or suffer to be committed or done on said wharf or the premises thereby demised, any nuisance or any act or thing which may grow to be a nuisance.

(i) That they shall and will at all times during the season of navigation throughout the said term, at their own cost and expense, keep and cause to be kept the said wharf well and sufficiently lighted and in safe condition for use and passage over and upon the same.

(j) The grantees, while requiring for their own shipping business and for the storage of goods and materials a large part of said wharf, hereby agree to keep open a berth sufficient for one ship or vessel up to a length of two hundred feet, opposite or nearly opposite said — street and for loading and unloading goods and materials and to which the ships owned by other parties shall have prior right of access as against the grantees' vessels and barges, except where the latter have actually been attached, moored or tied to said wharf prior to the approach of such other ships. The grantees will also keep open — Street end or a sufficient space therein south of — bridge, between the wharf and — Street, for teams, drays or other vehicles, for conveying goods and materials to or from said wharf and so as to make said portion of the wharf in all respects a public wharf. The city is to enact regulations providing that goods and materials shall not remain on said wharf more than — hours before loading or after being unloaded, and the company is not to store its own goods on the public part of the wharf if other parties require its use. Nothing herein contained shall permit the storing of goods or any other thing which would interfere with the grantees' use of their railway line, locomotive, crane and other appliances; and the grantees shall be entitled for said purpose to hold free and unobstructed, a width of twenty-five feet along said wharf measured back from the water front.

(k) And shall and will at all times during the said term, collect and cause to be collected from all craft using the said wharf, other than craft belonging to or hired or used by themselves, such tolls and charges (if any) as from time to time may be fixed by the company and approved by the city, the intention of this clause being that said wharf opposite — to the extent aforesaid shall be a public wharf and be so used (the grantees also having the right to use it for the purpose of their shipping business).

(l) And shall not nor will allow any craft, either its own or that of any other party, to remain at or be moored to said wharf opposite to said — Street, save during such time as the same may be engaged in taking on or discharging passengers or cargo, nor allow any cargo to remain on said wharf longer than — hours opposite — Street.

(m) And shall not nor will moor or place or permit or suffer to be moored or placed any fixed, movable or floating platform, pier, dock, boom or other construction, whether ejusdem generis or not, or any craft belonging to or hired or used by them in the said river, in front of said portion of said wharf opposite — in such a manner or position as to obstruct, hinder or prevent the free access to said wharf or the passage of persons entitled thereto, to and from said wharf. Provided, always, that this provision shall not apply to any craft which shall be actually engaged in or bona fide awaiting its turn at said wharf. Nothing herein shall affect the use of the present or any future — bridge or the approaches thereto, nor the right to change the location of or to widen the approach of the bridge now at —.

(n) And shall and will permit all craft which may be desirous of using said wharf to do so in the strict order of their arrival thereat.

(o) And shall and will manage, conduct, regulate, control and use and cause to be managed, conducted, regulated, controlled and used, the said wharf opposite — when erected as aforesaid, and the approaches thereto, whether by land or water, in due accordance with the terms and conditions herein contained, and with all by-laws, regulations and rules not inconsistent with the terms and intent of these presents now or at any time hereafter passed, laid down or made by the grantor in relation to wharfs within the City of — in general or the said wharf in particular.

(p) That they shall not nor will allow any person or persons to congregate or loiter on or about the said wharf, street ends or the approaches thereto, or to fish therefrom.

(q) That they shall and will at all times hereafter indemnify and keep indemnified, the grantor from and against all and all manner of actions, suits, proceedings, costs, charges, expenses, claims, demands, damages, matters and things whatsoever which at any time hereafter may be brought or arise or be made against the grantees in respect of the granting of this lease, or any injury or damage done or suffered or sustained by any person, firm, body or corporation by reason thereof, or the construction, maintenance, user or non-repair of said wharf, or any defect, or decay therein or thereof, or any obstruction or nuisance thereon or caused thereby or by the use of the same or by reason of any act, matter or thing done or suffered or omitted to be done or suffered by the grantees or any other person, firm, body or corporation on or in said wharf, streets, street ends or demised premises, or in connection with the same or the user thereof, which may constitute a breach of any of the grantees' covenants and conditions herein contained.

(r) That they will not assign or sublet without leave, such leave not to be unreasonably withheld.

(s) That they will leave the said demised premises with all improvements made thereon (including the portion of said wharf thereon constructed) in good order, condition and repair (reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire, lightning and tempest only excepted).

(t) And it shall be lawful for the grantor, in case the grantees make any assignment for the benefit of their creditors or if any order be made for their winding up or in case the premises hereby demised shall be used for any purpose other than the ordinary business purposes of the grantees or upon breach of any of grantees' covenants, then and in every such case the current year's rent and taxes shall immediately become due and payable and be paid, and the grantor may re-enter and take possession of the premises hereby demised and such portion of the wharf as may have been constructed thereon, and the same to have again, repossess and enjoy as of its former estate.

(u) Provided, further, that the City of — shall be entitled to free wharfage for the unloading (and removal within — hours) of all materials and goods belonging to the city which shall be brought thereto by ship, vessels or other means of water transit.

(r) Provided, further, that this lease and the said demised premises shall be subject to all laws, regulations and powers to be enacted or which shall be given to any harbor commission or other similar body in respect of the — River by the Federal Parliament of Canada, including all rights of expropriation, eminent domain or otherwise in that behalf.

(w) And it is hereby agreed that the term "the grantor," hereinbefore contained, shall include and mean as well the City of — as its successors and assigns and the expression "the grantees," hereinbefore contained, shall include as well the grantees as their successors and assigns, and these presents and everything herein contained shall respectively enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns accordingly.

3. If at any time during the continuance of these presents there shall be erected a new public traffic bridge over the — River in general alignment with — Street, it is agreed that the grantees shall then have exclusive use of the — Street ends between the — River and — Street in so far as the same is not necessary for the — Bridge or the approaches thereto and they shall give and allow to the public the same rights and privileges at the — Street ends as are hereinbefore set out in respect of the wharf at —, provided that inasmuch as — Street is only — feet wide, the grantees shall permit the use for said purposes (public wharf) of part of their own lands, in addition to the — Street end, the whole being included in the following description: Commencing, etc.

4. It is understood and agreed that the city reserves the right to construct or to permit others to construct, at any time, a public traffic bridge over the — River in general alignment with — Street, and having one of its approaches thereon, and the company shall not be entitled to any compensation or damages as against the city or its permittees in respect of any portion of — Street, which may be so taken or used for the purposes of the said bridge, or which may arise out of the construction thereof, or which may result to any of the company's buildings, sheds, wharves or other property by reason of the construction of the said bridge, it being understood and agreed that the city shall at all times have the right, without previous notice to the grantees, to rescind and cancel this lease as to any portion of the said street ends which the city or its permittees may require for the purpose of constructing a bridge or bridges or for the alteration, or widening of the present — Bridge.

5. Should the wharf or works of the grantees or the use thereof in any way damage, affect or interfere with the — Street sewer or the efficient use thereof, of which fact the city engineer shall be the sole judge, the grantees agree to divert the said outlet or do such other things at their own expense as may be necessary and the said city engineer may direct, and to his satisfaction in order to render the same efficient. And the company further agrees at all times, at its own expense, to repair any damage which may be done to said sewer by any boats or vessels using the said wharf or by reason of the obstruction of the mouth of said sewer by the silting of mud or sand in the river caused by the presence of said wharf. The city engineer may, at any time, give the company notice in writing to forthwith perform any such work or do any such repairs and in the event of the company failing to perform or do the same within — hours after receiving said notice, the city may proceed with the said work or repairs and the company shall forthwith pay to the city the cost of such work or repairs. The certificate of the city engineer as to the amount of such costs shall be final and conclusive between the parties hereto.

6. Provided, further, that the grantors will apply for legislation enabling them to grant a lease of said street ends, notwithstanding anything now contained in the city charter. This agreement to be executed upon obtaining said legislation.

7. At the expiration of the said term of — years, the grantees shall be entitled to a renewal for — years of the said lease and of this contract upon reasonable terms to be arranged between the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. If they cannot agree upon the terms for such a renewal within — the same shall be decided by an arbitration in which each party shall appoint one arbitrator and such arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator. If they cannot agree in the selection of such third arbitrator, then such third arbitrator may be appointed upon the application of either party by —. In any such arbitration the arbitrators shall be entitled to take into consideration any varied conditions that may have arisen during the period of the present lease.

8. The company agrees whether the portion of the wharf reserved for the public be situate at the — or — Street end, to open, grade, construct and pave at their own expense, a good and sufficient road at least — feet in width, connecting — Street with the said public portion of the wharf. The said road shall be for the general use of the public and the company shall not in any way obstruct same by leaving teams, drays, wagons or any goods, merchandise or material standing thereon, so as to interfere with the free use of such road by the public. The said road shall be paved with stone and gravel or such other material as the council of the city may approve, and the said road shall be laid in as good and efficient a manner as other roads of similar type in the city and to the satisfaction of the engineer of construction of the city. The company hereby consents and agrees to keep the said road in good repair at all times at its own expense and in the event of the company failing or neglecting so to do, the city may repair the said road and charge the cost of same to the company and in such case the certificate of the engineer of construction of the city as to the amount of such cost shall be final and binding on the parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have caused their respective corporate seals to be affixed herunto, attested by the signatures of their respective proper officers in that behalf.

CONVEYANCES OF LAND

Titles within the Province of Manitoba are governed by the Registry Act, R.S.M., 1902, Chapter 135, and by the Real Property Act, R.S.M., 1902, Chapter 148. The former Act came into force shortly after the formation of the Province and remained the only Act relating to titles until the passing of the first Real Property Act in 1884-85. The Registry Act provides for the old system of registration. The Real Property Act provides for the Torrens system of titles. Under the old system of registration titles are not guaranteed, save by the solicitor, who passes upon and certifies to them, necessitating a careful search of every instrument from the Crown Patent (the root of title) down to the instrument under which the purchaser is to hold. Under the Real Property Act the onus of certifying as to the validity of every instrument of title is shifted from the solicitor to the District Registrar, whose certificate of title is final and guaranteed by the Provincial Government. To indemnify the title holder against possible errors in the Land Titles Office a fund, taken from the consolidated revenue of the Province, is kept upon deposit, and is known as the Real Property Assurance Fund. Applications to bring old system titles under the operation of the Real Property Act may be made, and upon payment of requisite fees and satisfying the requisitions of the special examiner, a certificate of title is issued to the applicant.

SASKATCHEWAN

The Land Titles Act, Saskatchewan, provides for a system of Torrens titles similar to the Real Property Act in Manitoba. Saskatchewan, being one of the newer Provinces, has been able to deal with all its titles under the Land Titles Act and has this advantage over Manitoba, where a large number of titles are still under the old system of registration: Crown Patents are sent direct to the local Registrar from the Department of the Interior, making it necessary for the patentee to apply to the Registrar for title. On receipt of the patentee's application and payment of the appropriate fee, a duplicate certificate of title is issued to the applicant, the original being retained in the Land Titles Office.

LET ALL PARTIES CONCERNED attend before the Master in Chambers at the Court House, in the City of —, the — day of —, A.D. 191—, at the hour of — o'clock in the — noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard on behalf of the said applicant, to show cause why an order should not be made confirming the sale of the above described property by the Town of —, for arrears of taxes, and the transfer thereof from the Secretary-Treasurer of the said town to —, the applicant herein, or such further or other order as to the learned Master may seem just and expedient, and

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this summons be served upon all parties appearing to be interested in the above described land one month before the return date hereof.

— [Master in Chambers]

TAKE NOTICE that upon the return hereof will be read this summons, together with the material therein referred to.

THIS SUMMONS was taken out by —, of —, Saskatchewan, solicitors for the applicant.

DATED at —, this — day of —, A.D. 191—.

— [Solicitors for the applicant]

TO —, AND TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Note—The practice in Saskatchewan appears to accept the order of the Master in Chambers as authoritative in confirmation of tax sale. It is noted, however, that the Act Respecting Confirmation of Sale for Taxes, Ch. 49, R.S.S. 1900, provides for production of transfer, signed by the proper officer, together with a Judge's confirming order, a Judge being defined by the Act as a Judge of the Supreme Court. Title in Saskatchewan, under tax sales, is not acquired, as in Manitoba, by way of application for transmission, but by transfer and confirmatory order of the Court.

Note—Strike out paragraph 2 if applicant has already received homestead entry.

Note—The Act provides that all affidavits or declarations in support of applications for homestead and pre-emption entry and grant must be made before the agent or local agent by applicants in person, to eliminate as nearly as possible the possibilities of fraud. The only exceptions to this rule appear to be the declaration required from a homesteader (not insisted upon) six months prior to application for grant, and the declaration of abandonment and declaration in support of pre-emption application.

ASSIGNMENTS OF AGREEMENT

Agreements usually contain a proviso that no assignment thereof shall be valid without the consent and approval of the vendor. Without such an approval the vendor is liable upon his covenants as to title to the original purchaser only and escapes responsibility to third parties by conveying to the original parties, even though the purchaser's interest has been assigned and the purchase money paid to the vendor by the assignee.

To approve of an assignment of a purchaser's interest the solicitor will requisition from the applicant or his agent or solicitor

- (a) A general register certificate as to the name of the assignor (which must be subsequent in date to date of assignment or preferably date of affidavit of execution thereof, showing that there are no judgments or other affecting registrations against the said assignor).
- (b) An abstract of title or search letter as to the land covered by the agreement (which must be subsequent in date to date of assignment or preferably date of affidavit of execution thereof, and should show that there have been no dealings with the title since the date of agreement which would be prejudicial to the interest of the vendor or the proposed assignee of the purchaser).

A tri-party assignment with the original vendor as third party, is recommended, inclusive of a covenant on the part of the assignee to pay direct to the vendor.

Note—To approve of the assignment of a vendor's interest in an agreement for sale, the conveyancer, for protection of his client, will require:

1. A transfer of title, or deed, as the case may be, to the assignee, such that upon registration the assignee will become the registered owner and be in a position to give title to the purchaser in accordance with the terms and covenants set out in the agreement.

2. Assignment of agreement signed by the vendor (and if practicable, by the purchaser) in the form hereafter given.

3. A declaration of ownership and non-hypothecation made by vendor (to supplement covenant in assignment).

4. A declaration of bona fides of agreement, acknowledgment of balance unpaid and secured under agreement, and of age made by the purchaser.

In view of the frequency of sale and purchase of the interest of unpaid vendors under agreements, an opening is made for fraud on the part of unscrupulous parties who wish to raise money, thus making the declaration of bona fides highly desirable, more especially in cases where a personal valuation of the property cannot conveniently be made.

The conveyancer should also hold a tax certificate showing no tax sale and all arrears paid to date, and a statement of any incumbrances assumed by the purchaser showing the same to be in good standing. An assignment of an unpaid vendor's interest in any existing fire insurance policies is also taken and, after approval by the agent of the insurance company, is forwarded to the company or individual holding the policy to be attached thereto.

Note.—The Bills of Sale Act, Revised Statutes of British Columbia (together with the Amending Act of 1912) applies to every bill of sale (executed after the 8th of April, 1905), under which the grantee has power to seize any personal chattels comprised therein (sec. 2).

"Bill of sale" is defined by section 3 of the Act, and includes besides assignments, transfers, etc. (inter alia) every instrument (other than a mining lease) giving a power of distress, and also instruments dealing with goods to be subsequently acquired.

It does not include, however, a demise by a mortgagee in possession to his mortgagor (sec. 5). Neither did it, previous to 1912, include mortgages or charges created by a company and required to be registered with the registrar of joint stock companies, but the amending act has made an important alteration in the law by bringing these within the definition.

Personal chattels include trade machinery (sec. 4).

By section 11 the bill must be attested by one or more witnesses and an affidavit by one of the witnesses in form A (see Form 363 ante) of the schedule to the Act must be annexed.

If the grantor is an incorporated company this affidavit will be in Form E (see Form 364 ante) of the schedule to the Amending Act.

The bill must also (except when it is an instrument giving a power of distress as above mentioned) be accompanied by an affidavit of the grantees or one of them; or their agent, as to the bona fides of the transaction (sec. 13). In the case of an absolute bill of sale this affidavit will be in Form B (see Form 362, ante), and in the case of a bill of sale by way of security in Form C (see Form 520, post).

The bill of sale or a true copy, together with the affidavits, shall, where the chattels therein referred to are within the limits of a town having a County Court Office, be filed at the County Court Registry within five days of execution; and where the chattels are outside the said limits within twenty-one days of execution (sec. 8).

A transfer of a registered bill of sale need not be registered (sec. 17).

If the bill of sale fails to comply with the provisions of the act it shall be void:

- (a) As against all assignees, receivers or trustees of the grantor's effects and as against all assignments for the benefit of the grantor's creditors;
- (b) As against any execution;
- (c) As against every person on whose behalf such process shall have been issued;
- (d) As against subsequent bona fide purchasers or mortgagees for valuable consideration (sec. 7).

Section 21 gives a Judge of the Supreme Court power within one month of the execution of the bill to order an extension of time for registration, without prejudice, however, to the rights acquired by parties prior to the actual registration.

Every creditor of the grantee may, at his, the creditor's expense demand in writing from the grantee a statement of the accounts between the grantor and the grantee within fifteen days from such demand (sec. 20).

The Registrar of the County Court will, on the consent of the grantee being obtained, notify on the register that the bill of sale has been satisfied. If, however, the grantee's consent cannot be obtained, an order by a Judge of the Supreme Court is required before an entry of satisfaction will be made (sec. 22).

PART III.

MORTGAGES OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

In addition to forms of mortgage in general use and statutory forms applicable in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, an endeavor has been made to furnish a complete set of forms for use in passing upon mortgages given to secure farm and city property loans, building and company loans, thus enabling the solicitor and conveyancer to lay his hand quickly upon all practical forms essential to the protection of a lending client. Form 368 is a carefully drafted and revised form, inclusive of special covenants for the protection of clients lending on first mortgage security. Individual cases will arise where special covenants are requisite, and accordingly a number of such covenants are hereinafter provided.

AND the mortgagee may from time to time make such repairs as he may deem requisite or proper and the amount thereof shall be added to the principal and bear interest at the said rate and shall be forthwith payable.

PROVIDED that the said mortgagee on default of payment for one month may on one calendar month's notice enter on and lease or sell the said lands. And provided also that in case default be made in payment of either principal or interest for three months after any payment of either falls due, the said powers of entering and leasing or selling or any of them may be acted upon without any notice. And also that any contract of sale made under the said power may be varied or rescinded. And also that the said mortgagee may buy in and re-sell the said lands or any part thereof without being responsible for any loss or deficiency on re-sale or expense thereby incurred. Provided that any such sale may be either by public auction or private sale and either for cash or on credit, or part cash and part credit, and at such sale the whole or any part or parts of the said lands may be sold.

PROVIDED that the mortgagee may distrain for arrears of interest. Provided that the mortgagee may distrain for arrears of principal in the same manner as if the same were arrears of interest. Provided that in default of the payment of the interest hereby secured or taxes as hereinbefore provided, the principal hereby secured shall become payable.

PROVIDED that the hereinbefore mentioned notice of exercise of power of sale or lease, or either, may be effectually given either by leaving the same with a grown-up person on the mortgaged premises, if occupied, or placing the same on some portion thereof, if unoccupied, or at the option of the said mortgagee by publishing the same twice in some newspaper published in the county or district in which the said lands are situate, and that such notice shall be sufficient though not addressed to any person or persons by name or designation, and notwithstanding any person or persons to be affected thereby may be unknown, unascertained, or under disability and on any sale time for payment may be given and special conditions may be made, and the costs of any abortive sale shall become a charge upon the lands, and the mortgagee may tack them to the mortgage debt.

PROVIDED that the purchaser shall in no case be bound to see and inquire whether the default has happened under which the mortgagee claims to lease or sell or whether any money remains due on the security of these premises, whether notice has been given as aforesaid or the propriety or regularity of such sale and notwithstanding any impropriety or irregularity whatsoever in any such sale the same shall, as regards the safety and protection of the purchaser or purchasers, be deemed within the aforesaid power and valid and effectual accordingly and the remedy to the mortgagor, if any, shall be in damages only.

PROVIDED, that until default of payment the mortgagor shall have quiet possession of the said lands.

AND the mortgagor hereby attorns to the mortgagee and becomes his tenant of the said lands during the term of this mortgage at a rent equivalent to and payable at the same days and times as the payments of interest are hereinbefore agreed to be paid, such rent when so paid to be in satisfaction of such payments of interest. Provided the mortgagee may in default of payment or breach of any of the covenants hereinbefore contained, enter on the said lands and determine the tenancy hereby created without notice.

IT IS AGREED that the mortgagee may satisfy any charge now or hereafter existing or to arise or be claimed upon the said lands and the amount so paid shall be added to the debt hereby secured and bear interest at the same rate and shall be forthwith payable by the mortgagor to the mortgagee, and in default of payment the principal sum hereby secured shall become payable, and the powers of sale hereby given may be exercised forthwith without any notice. And in the event of the mortgagee satisfying any such charge or claim either out of the money advanced on this security or otherwise he and they shall be entitled to all the equities and securities of the person or persons so paid off, and are hereby authorized to retain any discharge thereof without registration for a longer period than six months if they think fit to do so.

AND IT IS AGREED and declared that every part or lot into which the mortgaged lands are or may hereafter be divided does and shall stand charged with the whole of the moneys hereby secured, and no person shall have any right to require the mortgage money to be appointed upon or in respect of any such parts or lots, and the mortgagee may discharge any part or parts from time to time of the mortgaged lands for such consideration as he or they shall think proper or without consideration if he or they see fit, and no such discharge shall diminish or prejudice this security as against the lands remaining undischarged, or against any person whomsoever.

AND also it is agreed that if the said principal or any part thereof be not paid at maturity the mortgagor shall not be at liberty to pay the same except after three months' notice in writing to the mortgagee, or upon the payment of three months' interest in lieu of such notice.

IT IS HEREBY AGREED between the parties hereto that any and all erections, buildings, fences and improvements hereafter put upon the said premises shall thereupon become fixtures and be a part of the realty and form a part of this security and shall not be removed during the currency of these presents.

PROVIDED that this mortgage shall not be discharged until all lawful debts of the mortgagor to the mortgagee are fully paid and satisfied.

AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED that neither the execution nor the registration of this mortgage, nor the advance in part of the moneys hereby secured, shall bind the mortgagee to advance the said moneys, or any unadvanced portion thereof, but these presents shall nevertheless stand as security for all costs and expenses incurred by the mortgagee, which shall forthwith become due and payable.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, and it is hereby declared and agreed that the terms "mortgagor" and "mortgagee" where used throughout these presents shall be deemed to include and bind the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the mortgagor and the heirs, executors, administrators [or successors] and assigns of the mortgagee respectively.

MORTGAGE

"The Land Titles Act" (Alberta or Saskatchewan)
or "The Real Property Act" (Manitoba)

[This form is recommended, in conjunction with any desirable special clauses, for use in securing loans on city and farm properties.]

I, —, of —, in the Province of — (hereinafter called the mortgagor), being registered as owner of an estate in fee simple in possession, subject, however, to such incumbrances, liens and interests as are notified by memorandum underwritten or indorsed hereon, in all that piece of land described as follows: —, in consideration of the sum of — dollars lent to me by —, who and whose heirs, executors, administrators and assigns are hereinafter called the mortgagee, the receipt of which sum — I do hereby acknowledge, covenant — with the said mortgagee:

First. That — I will pay to the said mortgagee the above sum of — dollars in gold or lawful money of Canada at the office of —, in the City of —, as follows, viz:—.

PROVIDED that on default of payment of any portion of the moneys hereby secured, the whole of the moneys hereby secured shall at the option of the mortgagee become payable, and that all subsequent interest shall fall due and be payable from day to day. Any overdue instalments of principal not to be payable until the time of the next or any succeeding instalment at the option of the mortgagee.

PROVIDED, however, that in the event of non-payment of the said principal or interest, or any part thereof, at the final date provided for repayment of principal under the terms of this mortgage, it is agreed that the mortgagee, or his assigns, shall not be required to accept payment of said principal moneys without receiving six months' previous notice in writing or without being paid a bonus equal to three months' interest in advance on the principal moneys so in default.

Secondly. That I will pay interest to the mortgagee at the office of —, in the City of —; on the said sum at the rate of — per centum per annum on the — day of —, and on the — day of — in gold of lawful money of Canada in every year during the currency hereof, all interest on becoming overdue to be forthwith (as to payment of interest thereon as aforesaid) treated as principal money. And that in case the sums hereby secured be not paid on the days above set forth I will, so long as said sums, or any part thereof, remain unpaid or owing on the security hereof, pay interest from day to day (as above provided) on the said sums or on so much thereof as shall for the time being remain due or unpaid under the covenants herein contained, or on a judgment at the rate aforesaid, the first of such payments of interest to be made on the — day of — next.

AND it is further agreed that the taking of a judgment or judgments on any of the covenants herein contained shall not operate as a merger of said covenants or affect the mortgagee's right to interest at the rate and times aforesaid.

AND I further — covenant with the mortgagee that I will forthwith insure and during the continuance of this security keep insured against loss or damage by fire, each and every building on the said lands or which may hereafter be erected thereon in such proportions as may be required by the mortgagee for their full insurable value in some insurance office to be approved of by the mortgagee, and will pay all premiums and sums of money necessary for such purposes as the same shall become due. And will upon demand assign, transfer and deliver over unto the mortgagee the policy or policies of insurance, receipt or receipts thereto appertaining, and if I shall neglect to keep the said buildings or any of them insured as aforesaid, or deliver such receipts, then it shall be lawful for the mortgagee to insure the said buildings in manner aforesaid, and all moneys expended by him with interest at the rate aforesaid, computed from the time or times of advancing the same, shall be repaid by me to him on demand, and in the meantime the amount of such payment shall be added to the said principal sum hereby secured, and shall bear interest at the rate aforesaid from the time of such payment, and shall be payable at the time appointed for the next ensuing payment of interest on the said principal sum, and all such payments shall become a charge and mortgage upon the said lands hereinbefore mentioned, and all my estate and interest herein. Evidence of the continuance of such insurance shall be produced to the mortgagee at — at least three days before the termination thereof, otherwise the mortgagee may provide therefor.

AND I further agree forthwith on the happening of such loss or damage by fire to furnish at my expense all the necessary proofs and do all necessary acts to enable the mortgagee to obtain payment of the insurance moneys. Provided always that such insurance must be in a company selected by the mortgagee, and that the mortgagee may effect the same without reference to me, and charge any moneys paid by him in respect thereof upon the said lands.

IT IS ALSO HEREBY AGREED that all moneys hereby received by virtue of any policy or policies may, at the option of the mortgagee, either be forthwith applied on suspense account or in or towards substantially rebuilding, reinstating and repairing the said premises or in or towards the payment of the last instalment of principal falling due under and by virtue of these presents, and in case of a surplus in or towards payment of the instalment next preceeding in point of time of payment and so on until the whole of the principal hereunder shall be paid, and in case of a surplus then in or towards payment of the interest; or may be paid over in whole or in part to (the mortgagee) or my assigns, and in such case shall not be credited on the mortgage account.

AND for the purpose of better securing the punctual payment of the interest on the said principal sum I the mortgagor do hereby attorn tenant to the mortgagee for the said lands at a ——— yearly rental equivalent to the annual interest secured hereby to be paid ——— yearly on each day appointed for payment of interest, the legal relation of landlord and tenant being hereby constituted between the mortgagee and the mortgagor. Provided also that the mortgagee may at any time after default in payment hereunder enter into and upon the said lands or any part thereof, and determine the tenancy hereby created without giving me any notice to quit; but it is agreed that neither the existence of this clause, nor anything done by virtue thereof, shall render the mortgagee mortgagee in possession so as to be accountable for any moneys except those actually received.

AND, further, that if I shall make default in payment of any part of the said principal or interest at any date or time hereinbefore limited for the payment thereof, it shall and may be lawful for, and I do hereby grant full power, right and license to the mortgagee to enter, seize, and distrain upon the said lands or any part thereof, and by distress warrant to recover by way of rent reserved as in the case of demise of the said lands as much of such principal and interest as shall from time to time be or remain in arrear and unpaid, together with all costs, charges and expenses attending such levy or distress, as in like cases of distress for rent.

AND that the mortgagee may ——— discretion at all times release any part or parts of the said lands or any other security for the moneys hereby secured, either with or without any consideration therefor, and without being accountable for the value thereof, or for any moneys except those actually received by him and without thereby releasing any other of the said lands or any of the covenants herein contained.

IT IS ALSO AGREED between me and the mortgagee that if I shall make default in payment of the said principal sum and interest thereon or of any part thereof, at any of the before appointed times, then the mortgagee shall have the right and power and I do hereby covenant with the mortgagee for such purpose, and do grant to the mortgagee full license and authority for such purpose when and as soon as in his discretion he shall think fit to enter into possession, either by himself or his agent, of the said lands, and to collect the rents and profits thereof, and to make any demise or lease of the said lands or any part thereof for such terms, periods, and at such rent as he shall think proper, and that the power of sale herein embodied and contained, or which the mortgagee may exercise under these presents, may be exercised either before or after, and subject to such demise or lease.

IT IS ALSO AGREED between me and the mortgagee that I will pay all taxes and rates which are now or may hereafter be levied or charged against said lands or on this mortgage or on the mortgagee in respect of this mortgage, and that the mortgagee may pay all liens, taxes, rates, charges or incumbrances upon the said lands, or which may fall due or be unpaid on the said lands, or as aforesaid, and may also pay any moneys for insurance, against damage by fire, tempest, lightning or for hail insurance of crops on said lands, and all sums so paid, together with all costs, charges and expenses which may be incurred in the taking, recovering and keeping possession of said lands, or inspecting the same, and all solicitor's and inspector's fees, costs, charges and expenses in connection with the drawing and registering of this mortgage and examining the title to said lands, and generally any expenses incurred in other proceedings taken to realize the moneys hereby secured, or to perfect the title to the said lands, shall be a charge upon the mortgaged property in favor of the mortgagee and shall be payable forthwith by me the mortgagor to the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, with interest at the mortgage rate until paid, and in default of payment thereof the whole sum hereby secured shall immediately become due and payable, and the power of sale hereby given shall be exercisable in addition to all other remedies. In the event of the money hereby advanced, or any part thereof being applied to the payment of any charge or incumbrance, the mortgagee shall stand in the position and be entitled to all the equities of the person or persons so paid off whether any such charges or incumbrances have or have not been discharged.

AND I the mortgagor do hereby agree to pay the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, any sum or sums of money which, in addition to the said principal sum hereby secured, the mortgagee may pay for the purpose of satisfying and paying off any balance of purchase price, seed grain lien, or other claim against the said land or any part thereof and make or keep this mortgage a first charge and incumbrance thereon (the propriety of paying out any such further sum to be a matter upon which the decision of the mortgagee shall be absolute and final) any such sum or sums so paid to be repaid to the mortgagee by the mortgagor at the next payment maturing under this mortgage after the time of such payment, with interest, at the rate aforesaid, and in default, the power of sale hereby given shall be exercisable in addition to all other remedies.

AND it is hereby declared and agreed that all erections, machinery (fixed or otherwise), buildings and improvements hereafter put upon the said premises shall (in addition to other fixtures thereon) thereupon become fixtures and a part of the realty, and form a part of this security.

AND I the mortgagor for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns covenant and agree with the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns that I will in each year during the currency of this mortgage either put in crop or summer-fallow in a good, husbandlike and proper manner every portion of the said land which has been brought under cultivation and that I will keep the said land clean and free from all noxious weeds.

AND I, the said mortgagor, for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenant with the mortgagee that he may at such time or times as he deems necessary, and without the concurrence of any other person, make such arrangements for the repairing, finishing, adding to or putting in order any building or improvements on the mortgaged premises, and for inspecting, taking care of, keeping down and destroying noxious weeds, leasing, collecting the rents of, and managing generally the mortgaged property and of working, breaking, summer-fallowing, and otherwise farming or improving the said mortgaged premises (as — may deem expedient), and all reasonable costs, charges and expenses—including allowance for the time and service of any officer of the mortgagee, or other person appointed for the above purpose—shall be forthwith payable to the mortgagee, and shall be a charge upon the mortgaged property, and shall bear interest at the mortgage rate until paid.

IT IS ALSO AGREED between me the said mortgagor and the mortgagee that the mortgagee on breach of any of the covenants herein contained or on default of payment of any of the sums hereby secured for the period of one month, may on one month's notice, lease, sell and convey the said lands, without entering into possession of the same; and that when any notice is required to be given under any power herein expressed or implied or permitted or required under any statute, the same may be effectually given by leaving the same with a grown-up person on the said lands, if occupied, or by placing the same thereon, or on any part thereof if unoccupied, or at the option of the mortgagee by publishing the same in some newspaper published in the province in which the said land is situate, and shall be sufficient though not addressed to any person or persons by name or designation and notwithstanding any person or persons to be affected thereby may be unknown, unascertained or under disability, and such notice shall be sufficient though not otherwise addressed than "To whom it may concern." And that on such default for two months such sale, lease and conveyance may be made hereunder without entering into possession and without notice to me the mortgagor, or my heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, no want of notice or publication when required hereby, or by any statute or any other impropriety or irregularity shall invalidate any sale made or purporting to be made hereunder; but the vendor alone shall be responsible and the said powers may be exercised by assigns of the mortgagee and against the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the said mortgagor and that the mortgagee or his assigns may sell and convey any of the said lands on such terms of credit or part cash and part credit or otherwise as shall appear to them most advantageous and for such prices as can reasonably be obtained therefor, and in the event of a sale on credit or for part cash and part credit, the mortgagee is not to be accountable for or charged with any moneys until actually received and that sales may be made from time to time of portions of said land to satisfy interest or parts of the principal overdue, leaving the principal or parts thereof to run with interest payable as aforesaid, and may make any stipulations as to title or evidence or commencement of title or otherwise as they shall deem proper and may buy in or rescind or vary any contract for sale of any of the said lands and shall sell without being answerable for loss occasioned thereby and for any of such purposes may make and execute all agreements and assurances they shall think fit.

IT IS ALSO AGREED that if the sum hereby secured or any part thereof shall not be advanced to the said mortgagor at the date hereof the mortgagee may advance the same in one or more sums to or on behalf of the mortgagor at any future date or dates and the amount of such advances when so made shall be secured hereby and repayable with interest as above provided, and shall be considered and treated as having been so secured and advanced as at the date hereof.

AND that upon my, or those claiming under me, committing any act of waste upon the said lands, or doing any other thing by which the value of the land shall or in the opinion of the mortgagee may be diminished or failing to remain in the actual personal possession of the lands, or making default as to any of the covenants or provisions herein contained, the principal and interest hereby secured shall at the option of the mortgagee, forthwith become due and payable.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that notwithstanding the power to sell and other powers, covenants and provisions herein contained, the mortgagee shall have and be entitled to his right of foreclosure of the equity of redemption in the said lands as fully and effectually as he might have exercised and enjoyed the same in case the power of sale and other powers, provisions and trusts incident thereto had not been herein contained. And that neither the execution nor registration of this mortgage nor the advance in part of the moneys secured hereby shall bind the mortgagee to advance the said principal sum, or any unadvanced portion thereof, but nevertheless the estate hereby pledged shall take effect forthwith on the execution of these presents, and that the expenses of the examination of the title, and of this mortgage and valuation are to be secured hereby in the event of the balance of the principal sum not being advanced.

PROVIDED also that upon and after default in payment of any of the moneys hereby secured or payable under these presents from time to time the mortgagee shall be entitled to send his inspector or agent to inspect and report upon the value, state and condition of the mortgaged land at the mortgagor's expense and all expenses incurred and paid in so doing, together with all costs and charges between solicitor and client, which the mortgagee may incur or pay in enforcing or attempting to enforce all or any of the remedies and powers given hereby or subsisting for the recovery of the moneys hereby secured or any part thereof, whether the proceedings taken prove abortive or not, and of, in and about taking, recovering and keeping or attempting to procure possession of the said lands or any part thereof shall form and be a charge upon the said lands and payable forthwith to the mortgagee and shall bear interest at the rate aforesaid from the time of payment of the same as upon principal money advanced upon the security of these presents.

AND I the mortgagor for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenant and agree with the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns that: (1) I have a good title to the said land; (2) I have a right to mortgage the land; (3) and that on default the mortgagee shall have quiet possession of the land; (4) free from all incumbrances: (5) I will execute such further assurances of the land as may be requisite; (6) I have done no act to incumber the land.

PROVIDED also that the terms, mortgage money and interest shall embrace and include all moneys, payments, costs, charges and expenses whatsoever which are by these presents charged or to be charged or chargeable upon the said lands, and default in payment of the same or any part thereof from time to time shall be a breach of the covenant for payment of the mortgage moneys and interest herein contained, and shall also entitle the mortgagee to exercise the power of sale and all other powers and remedies contained in these presents or subsisting for recovery of the mortgage moneys and interest or any part thereof from time to time.

IT IS FURTHER PROVIDED that any agreement for renewal or extension of the term of payment of the moneys hereby secured, or any part thereof, prior to the execution of the discharge of this mortgage by the mortgagee, need not be registered in any registry or land titles office, but shall be effectual and binding on the mortgagor, his heirs, representatives or assigns, including any subsequent mortgagee of said lands, or any part thereof to all intents and purposes, and take priority as against said assigns or subsequent mortgagee when deposited in or held at the office of the mortgagee.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that I and my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns are bound by the covenants and stipulations herein contained, and that all covenants herein contained are to be construed as both joint and several.

AND for the better securing to the mortgagee the repayment in manner aforesaid of the principal sum and interest and other charges and moneys hereby secured I hereby mortgage to the mortgagee all my estate and interest in the land above described.

MORTGAGE

(Old System, Manitoba)

THIS INDENTURE, made in duplicate the — day of —, A.D. 191—, in pursuance of the Act respecting Short Forms of Indentures, between — (hereinafter called the mortgagor), of the first part, and — (hereinafter called the mortgagee), of the second part;

WHEREAS the mortgagor is seized of and entitled to the legal and equitable estate in fee simple in possession in his own right in and to the lands hereinafter mentioned and has so represented to the mortgagee and the mortgagee relying thereon has agreed to lend to the mortgagor the amount hereinafter mentioned upon the security of the said estate.

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that in consideration of the sum of — dollars, now paid by the mortgagee to the mortgagor (the receipt whereof is hereby by him acknowledged) the mortgagor doth grant and mortgage unto the mortgagee, his heirs, administrators and assigns forever.

ALL AND SINGULAR the lands following, that is to say: —, PROVIDED this mortgage to be void on payment to the mortgagee at his office—, in the City of —, of — dollars of lawful money of Canada, with interest at — per centum per annum, and compound interest as hereinafter provided; the whole thereof in gold coin if demanded, as follows: The said principal sum — with interest at the rate aforesaid, to be paid — yearly, on each — day of — and —, from and after the date hereof on so much principal money hereby secured as shall from time to time remain unpaid, till the whole of the principal money and interest is paid, whether before or after the same becomes due; but after default, interest at the rate aforesaid shall accrue and be payable from day to day; and taxes and performance of statute labor; the first payment of interest to be made on the — day of —, A.D. 191—. The foregoing proviso as to payment of taxes and performance of statute labor shall apply and be in force until payment in full of the mortgage money and interest, whether paid at or after the maturity thereof.

AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED that on default in payment of any instalment of interest, such interest shall at once become principal and bear interest at the rate aforesaid, which interest shall be payable from day to day, and shall itself bear interest at the rate aforesaid if not paid prior to the next gale day, it being agreed that all interest, as well that upon interest as upon principal, is to be compounded at each day mentioned for payment of interest.

AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED that the taking of a judgment or judgments on any of the covenants herein contained shall not operate as a merger of said covenants or affect the mortgagee's right to interest at the rate and times aforesaid.

PROVIDED that in the event of non-payment of the said principal or any part thereof, at the time the same falls due under the terms of this mortgage, it is agreed that the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall not be required to accept payment of said principal moneys without being paid a bonus equal to six months' interest in advance on the principal money so in default. Any overdue instalment or instalments of principal not to be payable, at the option of the mortgagee, till the time of the next or any succeeding instalments.

The mortgagor covenants with the mortgagee:

That the mortgagor will pay the mortgage money and interest, and observe the above proviso;

That the mortgagor has a good title in fee simple to the said lands;

And that on default the mortgagee shall have quiet possession of the said lands free from all incumbrances.

And that he has the right to convey the said lands to the mortgagee;

And that the mortgagor will execute such further assurances of the said land as may be requisite;

And that the mortgagor has done no act to incumber the said lands;

And that the mortgagor will insure the buildings on the said lands to the amount of their full insurable value, and this covenant to insure is to apply to all buildings which now are or may hereafter be erected on the said lands.

PROVIDED that the mortgagee may effect such insurance without any further consent of the mortgagor.

AND the mortgagor doth release to the mortgagee all claims upon said lands subject to the said proviso.

PROVIDED that on default of payment of any portion of the moneys hereby secured the whole of the moneys hereby secured shall, at the option of the mortgagee, become payable, and that all subsequent interest shall fall due and be payable from day to day.

THE MORTGAGOR doth attorn and become tenant from year to year to the mortgagee from the day of the execution hereof until the principal money and interest aforesaid are fully paid, whether at or after the maturity thereof, at a — yearly rental equivalent to the — yearly interest above mentioned and payable — yearly on the interest day— above mentioned; the legal relation of landlord and tenant being hereby constituted between the mortgagee and the mortgagor; but it is agreed that neither the existence of this clause, nor anything done by virtue thereof, shall render the mortgagee, mortgagee in possession, so as to be accountable for any moneys except those actually received.

AND further, that if default shall be made in payment of any part of the said principal at any day or time hereinbefore limited for the payment thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the mortgagee, and the mortgagor doth hereby grant full power and license to the mortgagee to enter, seize and distrain upon any goods upon the said lands or any part thereof, and by distress warrant to recover by way of rent reserved as in the case of a demise of the said lands, as much of such principal as shall from time to time be or remain in arrear or unpaid together with all costs, charges and expenses attending such levy or distress as in like cases of distress for rent.

PROVIDED that the mortgagee on default in payment for one calendar month may, on one month's notice, enter on and lease or sell the said lands. The mortgagee may lease or sell as aforesaid without entering into possession of the said lands. Should default continue for two months, a sale or lease may be made under the foregoing power without notice. When notice is given, such notice may be effectually given either by leaving the same with a grown-up person on the said lands, if occupied, or by placing it thereon or on any part thereof, if unoccupied, or at the option of the mortgagee by publishing the same once in some newspaper published in the Province of Manitoba, and shall be sufficient though not addressed to any person or persons by name or designation and notwithstanding any person or persons to be affected thereby may be unknown, unascertained or under disability and such notice shall be sufficient though not otherwise addressed than "To whom it may concern." And that the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns may sell any of the said lands on such terms as to credit or part cash and part credit and otherwise as shall appear to them most advantageous, and for such prices as can reasonably be obtained therefor and in the event of a sale on credit or for part cash and part credit the mortgagee shall not be accountable for or charged with any moneys until actually received and that sales may be made from time to time of portions of the said lands to satisfy interest or parts of the principal overdue, leaving the principal or balance thereof to run at interest payable as aforesaid, and may make any stipulations as to title, or evidence or commencement of title, or otherwise as he shall deem proper. And may buy in or rescind, or vary any contract for sale of any of the said lands, and re-sell without being accountable for loss occasioned thereby. And for any of said purposes may make and execute all agreements and assurances he shall think fit. And that the purchaser at any sale hereunder shall not be bound to see to the propriety or regularity thereof. And that no want of notice or of publication when required hereby or other impropriety or irregularity shall invalidate any sale or lease hereunder, or purporting to be made hereunder, but the vendors alone shall be responsible and the above powers may be exercised by assigns of the mortgagee and against the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the mortgagor.

AND IT IS HEREBY AGREED that the mortgagee may pay any liens, taxes, rates, charges or incumbrances upon the said lands and any moneys for insurance against damage by fire, tempest, lightning or for hail insurance of crops on the said lands and may also pay costs and charges of and incidental to bringing the said lands under the Act entitled The Real Property Act and any amendments thereto, or any Act in substitution thereof, and the amount so paid, together with all costs, charges and expenses which may be incurred in the .

taking, recovering and keeping possession of the said lands, or inspecting the same and generally in any other proceedings taken to realize the moneys hereby secured, or to perfect the title to the said lands shall be a charge on the lands in favor of the mortgagee, and shall be payable forthwith by the mortgagor, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns to the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, with interest at the aforesaid rate of — per centum per annum until paid, and in default the power of sale hereby given shall be exercisable in addition to all other remedies. In the event of the money hereby advanced, or any part thereof being applied to the payment of any charge or incumbrance, the mortgagee shall stand in the position and be entitled to all the equities of the person or persons so paid off, whether any such charges or incumbrances have or have not been discharged.

AND that the mortgagee may at his discretion at any time release any part or parts of the said lands, or any other security for the moneys hereby secured, either with or without any consideration therefor, and without being accountable for the value thereof or for any moneys except those actually received, and without thereby releasing any other of the said lands or any of the covenants herein contained.

AND the mortgagor doth hereby agree to pay the mortgagee, his successors or assigns, any sum or sums of money which in addition to the said principal sum hereby secured, the mortgagee may pay for the purpose of satisfying and paying off any balance of purchase price, seed grain lien, or other claim against the said land or any part thereof and make or keep this mortgage a first charge and incumbrance thereon (the propriety of paying out any such further sum to be a matter upon which the decision of the mortgagee shall be absolute and final), any such sum or sums so paid to be repaid to the mortgagee by the mortgagor at the next payment maturing under this mortgage after the time of such payment, with interest, at the rate aforesaid, and in default, the power of sale hereby given shall be exercisable in addition to all other remedies.

AND that upon the mortgagor, or those claiming under him, committing any act of waste upon the said lands, or doing any other thing by which the value of the said lands shall or may be diminished or failing to remain in the actual personal possession of the lands, or making default as to any of the covenants or provisions herein contained, the principal and interest hereby secured, shall at the option of the mortgagee forthwith become due and payable.

IT IS AGREED that any erections, buildings or improvements hereafter put upon the said premises shall thereupon become fixtures and be a part of the realty and form part of this security.

THE mortgagor agrees that neither the execution nor registration of this mortgage, nor the advance in part of the moneys hereby secured shall bind the mortgagee to advance the said moneys or any unadvanced portion thereof. It is also agreed that if the sum hereby secured or any part thereof shall not be advanced to the mortgagor at the date hereof the mortgagee may advance the same in one or more sums to or on behalf of the mortgagor at any future date or dates and the amount of such advances when so made shall be secured hereby and repayable with interest as above provided, and shall be considered and treated as having been so secured and advanced at the date hereof.

AND that the mortgagor, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, are bound by the covenants and stipulations herein contained. And the mortgagor doth covenant with the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns may at such time or times as he or they may deem necessary and without the concurrence of any person make such arrangements for the repairing, finishing and putting in order of any building or improvements on the mortgaged premises, and for inspecting, taking care of, keeping down and destroying noxious weeds, leasing, collecting the rents of and managing generally the mortgaged property, and of working, breaking, summer fallowing, or otherwise farming or improving the said mortgaged premises as he or they may deem expedient, and all reasonable expenses, costs or charges, including allowance for the time and service of any officer of the mortgagee or other person appointed for any of the above purposes shall be forthwith payable to the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, and shall be a charge upon the mortgaged property and shall bear interest at the mortgage rate until paid.

AND it is hereby declared and agreed that all covenants and agreements hereinbefore contained are and shall be deemed to be several as well as joint; and that the same, as well as all provisos and stipulations and other matters and things herein contained, shall be deemed, whether so expressed or not, to be made with and enure to the benefit of, and to be enforceable by, not only the said mortgagee, but also his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

IT IS ALSO HEREBY AGREED that all moneys hereby received by virtue of any policy or policies may, at the option of the mortgagee, either be forthwith applied on suspense account or in or towards substantially rebuilding, reinstating and repairing the said premises or in or towards the payment of the last instalment of principal falling due under and by virtue of these presents, and in case of a surplus in or towards payment of the instalment next preceding in point of time of payment and so on until the whole of the principal hereunder shall be paid, and in case of a surplus then in or towards payment of the interest; or may be paid over in whole or in part to the mortgagor or his assigns and in such case shall not be credited on the mortgage account.

AGREEMENT EXTENDING THE TERMS OF REPAYMENT OF A MORTGAGE

THIS AGREEMENT, made the — day of —, A.D. 191—, between —, of the first part, and —, of the second part;

AND WHEREAS by the said mortgage certain lands and premises situate in the — of —, being composed of —, as more particularly therein described, were granted and mortgaged to the mortgagees therein named to secure the moneys therein mentioned, with interest as provided for, payable at the times and in the manner in the said mortgage set forth.

AND WHEREAS the said mortgage and the lands therein granted, and the benefit of the covenants therein contained, are still vested in the said party of the second part subject to said proviso.

AND WHEREAS it has been agreed that the time for payment of the principal moneys thereby secured and now remaining unpaid, and amounting to — dollars, should be extended and fixed as hereinafter set forth; with interest at the rate of — per centum per annum, from the — day of —, A.D. 191—, payable as hereinafter provided; and that the terms of the said mortgage in so far as they relate to the said times of payment and rate of interest after the above named date should be varied accordingly.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that in consideration of the premises and of one dollar now paid to said party of the first part by the said party of the second part (the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged), the said party of the first part doth hereby for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenant, promise and agree to and with the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that he, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns will well and truly pay in gold or its equivalent in lawful money of Canada, the said principal money, with interest at the rate of — per centum per annum, from the — day of —, A.D. 191—, until the said principal money shall have been fully paid and satisfied, at the days and times following, that is to say, the principal money of —, to become due and payable to the said party of the second part at — office in the City of —, and interest thereon at the rate of — per centum per annum to be paid — yearly on each — day of — and — in each and every year. PROVIDED that in the event of non-payment of the said principal or any part thereof, at the time the same falls due under the terms of this agreement, it is agreed that the party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall not be required to accept payment of said principal moneys without being paid a bonus equal to six months' interest in advance on the principal money so in default. AND further that the said party of the first part is solely possessed of and entitled to the equity of redemption in the said lands, and that these presents and their acceptance by the said party of the second part shall be without prejudice to any right which any other person interested in the said equity of redemption or any part thereof and not a party to these presents, would but for these presents have of redeeming or procuring a reconveyance of the said lands or

PROVIDED that nothing herein contained shall release or discharge any party to the said mortgage, or any collateral security or surety, and all rights and remedies against any such party or surety or security are reserved. The said party of the first part covenants and agrees with the said party of the second part to pay the said party of the second part forthwith on demand his solicitor's fees and disbursements for preparation and registration of this agreement by way of caveat or otherwise and for all searches in connection with the title, also for the preparation and registration of all caveats and withdrawals of caveats against said lands or said mortgage, such payment to be a condition precedent to the right to receive a discharge of said mortgage upon payment of same in the manner aforesaid, such fees and disbursements to be a charge on said land and to bear interest at the rate aforesaid payable from day to day.

AND that the party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, are bound by the covenants and stipulations herein contained.

ASSIGNMENT OF PARTY WALL AGREEMENT AS COLLATERAL, WITH CONSENT OF MORT-GAGEE OF ADJOINING PROPERTY

Note—Solicitors passing upon loans upon the security of inside city property have always to take special precautions as to the existence of party wall agreements and to see that the rights and interest of the mortgagor in that portion of the adjoining property occupied by a party wall are assigned to the mortgagee as collateral security. Further, in cases where party wall agreements have been disclosed it is essential to make a careful examination of the title to the adjoining properties affected with a view to ascertaining what incumbrances (if any) thereon take precedence or priority to the party wall agreement in question. Where the search of the adjoining titles discloses such an incumbrance, such an assignment of the party wall agreement is drawn to include and join the incumbrances of the said adjoining property as a third and consenting party.

THIS INDENTURE, made in triplicate this — day of —, A.D. 191—, between —, "merchant," and —, "agent," both of the City of —, in the Province of — (hereinafter called the assignors), of the first part, — Investment Company (hereinafter called the assignees), of the second part, and — Hotel Company, Limited, of the third part.

AND WHEREAS the assignors did assign to the assignees all their right, title and interest in the said party wall agreement and in the land affected thereby and in the moneys due thereunder as collateral or additional security for the payment of principal money and interest and all other moneys secured by a certain mortgage from the assignors to the assignees dated the — day of —, A.D. 191—, for $—.

[AND WHEREAS the assignors have agreed with the assignees to further assign to the assignees all their right, title and interest in the said party wall agreement and in the land affected thereby and in the moneys due thereunder or which may hereafter become due thereunder to them as collateral or additional security for the payment of principal money and interest and all other moneys secured by said mortgage for $—, given by the assignors to the assignees dated the — day of —, A.D. 191—. This clause is required only where party wall agreement is assigned as collateral security to a mortgage for additional advance.]

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that in consideration of the premises and of the sum of one dollar (the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged by the assignors), the assignors do hereby further assign, transfer and set over unto the assignees, their successors and assigns, the said party wall agreement, and all their right, title and interest therein and all benefits and advantages to be derived therefrom and the full benefit of all powers, covenants and conditions contained therein.

AND the said assignors for the consideration aforesaid do hereby grant, convey and transfer unto the assignees, their successors and assigns, all their right, title and interest in the lands described in the said party wall agreement and all

DECLARATION TO BE MADE BY SECRETARY OF COMPANY IN CONNECTION WITH A COMPANY MORTGAGE TO SECURE A

(Manitoba)

Note—The borrowing powers of a company are controlled by its shareholders. The directors of a company may decide that it is in the interests of the company to borrow money by way of first mortgage on its real estate. Accordingly a by-law of the directors is passed authorizing the raising of such a loan and giving the proper officers of the company authority to sign and affix the corporate seal to the necessary mortgage. The directors' by-law is not operative, however, until it has been approved and sanctioned by a resolution of the shareholders passed by a vote amounting to two-thirds in value of the subscribed stock of the company present at a special general meeting of the shareholders called for that purpose. Therefore in passing upon a company loan to be secured by a first mortgage upon real property of the company, it is usual to call for the production of (1) the charter of the company; (2) all the general by-laws of the company; (3) a list of all the shareholders of the company; (4) a list of the officers of the company. Having been satisfied that the charter or general by-laws of the company do not in any way preclude the directors from raising the loan and that certain notice is required for calling the special general meeting of the company, it is advisable for the solicitor to draft and approve of the following:

- (1) Company mortgage;
- (2) By-law of directors authorizing loan;
- (3) Resolution of shareholders—sanctioning;
- (4) Notice to shareholders calling special general meeting;
- (5) Waiver of notice (if required);
- (6) Minutes of directors' meeting;
- (7) Minutes of shareholders' meeting;
- (8) Declaration of secretary of company proving directors' meeting, service of notice, shareholders' meeting, passing of by-laws and execution of mortgage, attaching to the declaration a copy of charter, general by-laws, minutes of meetings of directors and shareholders, and the mortgage itself.

It is good practice to file the secretary's declaration with the above exhibits along with the mortgage when handing the latter into the Land Titles Office for registration. In Manitoba the District Registrar makes the same a condition precedent to acceptance of a mortgage for registration. In Saskatchewan and Alberta the submission of declaration, etc., with mortgage is left to the discretion of the solicitor.

THE POWERS OF AN EXECUTOR TO MORTGAGE REAL ESTATE IN THE PROVINCE OF MANITOBA

Note—Attention is called to the statutes which cover the law with regard to the power of an executor to mortgage real estate. 53 Vict., ch. 16, sec. 27, reads as follows: "Laud in the province shall go to the personal representative of deceased owners thereof, in the same manner as personal estate goes."

54 Vict., ch. 6, sec. 3, amends the section above quoted, as follows: "And the personal representative shall have power to dispose of and otherwise deal with all the land so vested in him with all the like incidents, but subject to all the like rights, equities and obligations as if the same were personal property vested in him."

Coote on Mortgages, 7th edition, p. 414, states that the executor could mortgage the personal assets for the general purposes of the will. This power is now extended by the Land Transfer Act of 1897, of England, to the freeholds of the testator.

Williams on Executors, 10th edition, pages 492 and 493, referring to the said Land Transfer Act, shows that real estate vests in the personal representative, and that the powers, rights, duties and liabilities of personal representatives in respect of personal estate shall apply to real estate so far as the same are applicable.

This is no wider or stronger than the Manitoba Statutes which are quoted above, namely, 54 Vict., ch. 6, sec. 3.

Section 1 and sub-sections of ch. 21, 5 and 6 Ed. 7, take the place of the Statutes above quoted.

Section 2 is in reality a restriction on the powers of the personal representative, calling in certain cases for the approval of the Registrar General.

In the same way section 20 of the Trustee Act re-states what was already the law with regard to mortgaging to pay debts, etc., and makes clear the power with regard to improvements, subject to the approval of the District Registrar.

The position, therefore, is this: Under the law of England, the right of executors to mortgage personalty is established beyond question. (See Coote, p. 414.) This power, in Manitoba, is extended by the Statute of 1891, under which the personal representative can deal with the land, subject to the rights, equities, etc., as if the same were personal property. That is to say, the executor now has as full power to mortgage real estate as he previously had to mortgage personalty. None of the amendments passed since 1891 curtail this power of the executor to mortgage. This renders it unnecessary to consider Lord St. Leonard's Act, 22 and 23 Vict., ch. 35 (1859), which was in force in Manitoba when the Statute of 1891 was passed.

APPLICATION FOR PARTIAL RELEASE OR DISCHARGE

Note—The solicitor passing upon a partial release of the security contained in any mortgage should make careful search of the title before authorizing the release to ascertain whether any parties interested in the title will be prejudiced by reason of a partial discharge of the first mortgage.

In cases where the mortgagor has made a sale of a portion of the mortgaged land and wishes a partial release, the disposition of the consideration for said sale is always an important factor. If a partial discharge is to be given for a nominal consideration and the claim of the first mortgage is not reduced, then the consent of all subsequent incumbrancers (including execution and judgment creditors) should be obtained, as the release of a portion of the first mortgagee's security throws the full amount of his claim against the balance of the land which he may retain under his mortgage, and there is always the possibility of a subsequent incumbrancer being prejudiced.

Form of application for release and form of consent for the signature of subsequent incumbrancers are given hereafter.

I, —, of the — of — in the Province of —, do hereby apply to — to release from my mortgage to him, dated the — day of — A.D. 191—, and from all claims held by him, the following portion of the property covered by my said mortgage, and being of the value of — dollars: —.

AND I hereby solemnly declare that I have not in any way incumbered any of the property comprised in the hereinbefore mentioned mortgage since the registration thereof, save and except —.

AND I hereby further solemnly declare that I have not sold any of the property comprised in the hereinbefore mentioned mortgage since the registration thereof, save and except —.

AND I hereby further solmenly declare that no person other than myself has any right, title or interest in any of the property comprised in the hereinbefore mentioned mortgage since the registration thereof, save and except —.

AND I further solemnly declare that all the said parties interested in the property comprised in the hereinbefore mentioned mortgage, since the registration thereof, in the manner aforesaid, will sign all necessary consents required by — in connection with the granting to me of the release herein applied for, and I undertake to have all necessary consents executed by said parties, to the satisfaction of your solicitors.

AND I hereby further solemnly declare that the buildings situate on the property covered by my said mortgage are not situate on the portion of the same for which I am applying for a release.

Letters Patent and their Powers.

INCORPORATION BY LETTERS PATENT

4. The Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council may, by letters patent under the great seal of the Province, grant a charter to any number of persons, not less than five, who shall petition therefor, constituting such persons and others who may become shareholders in the company thereby created a body corporate and politic, for any purposes or objects to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of Manitoba extends, except the construction and working of railways and the business of insurance, and the business of a trust company or guarantee company.

5. The applicants for such letters patent shall petition the Lieutenant-Governor, through the Provincial Secretary, for the issue thereof, stating in their petition:

(a) The proposed corporate name of the company, which shall not be that of any other known company, incorporated or unincorporated, or any name liable to be unfairly confounded therewith, or otherwise on public grounds, objectionable, or any name under which any known business is being carried on, or so nearly resembling the same as to deceive; provided, however, that a subsisting company or partnership, or individual, or the person or persons carrying on such business under any name, may consent that such name, in whole or in part, be granted to the new company. Sec. 1, c. 13, 5-6 Ed. 7.

(b) The object or objects for which the incorporation is sought;

(c) The place within the Province of Manitoba which is to be its chief place of business;

- (d) The amount of its capital stock;
- (e) The number of shares and the amount of each share;
- (f) The names in full, and the address and calling of each of the applicants, with special mention of the names of not less than three, nor more than nine, of their number, who are to be the first directors of the company;

(g) The amount of stock taken by each of such applicants, and also the amount, if any, paid in upon the stock of each applicant;

(h) Whether such amount is paid in cash or by transfer of property, or how otherwise.

6. The petition may ask for the embodying in the letters patent of any provision which otherwise, under the provisions hereof, might be embodied in any by-law of the company when incorporated.

21. In case a resolution, authorizing an application to the Lieutenant-Governor therefor, is passed by a vote of not less than two-thirds in value of the shareholders, present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the company, duly called for considering the subject of such resolution, the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council may, upon proof that notice of the application has been published by one insertion in The Manitoba Gazette one month before the application is made, from time to time direct the issue of supplementary letters patent to the company, embracing any or all of the following matters:

(a) Extending the powers of the company to any objects within the scope of this Act, which the company may desire;

(b) Limiting or increasing the amount which the company may borrow upon debentures or otherwise;

(c) Providing for the formation of a reserve fund;

Notwithstanding anything herein contained the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council may, upon petition, but without requiring such resolution and advertisement in The Gazette, direct the issue of supplementary letters patent to the company, varying or striking out any provision contained in the letters patent when, in the opinion of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, such variation or striking out is merely for the purpose of remedying some clerical error defect or provision of a formal or unimportant nature in such letters patent.

NOTE ON BRITISH COLUMBIA COMPANY LAW

This note does not attempt to deal with the law relating to companies as a whole, but only to call attention to the chief points to be kept in view in incorporating a company or applying to license or register an extra-provincial company. For fuller information the reader is referred to Douglas and Rorie's Manual of B.C. Company Law.

The existing acts relating to company law in British Columbia are the Companies Act, R.S.B.C., ch. 39; the Companies Amendment Act, 1912; and the Companies Amendment Act, 1913.

The Companies Act contemplates the formation of four classes of companies:

- (1) Companies limited by shares;
- (2) Companies limited by guarantee;
- (3) Unlimited companies; and
- (4) Mining companies with non-personal liability.

It is with the first class of companies alone that this note deals, as by far the largest proportion of companies formed are limited by shares.

Under the Companies Act any five or more persons, or in the case of a private company any two or more persons, may, upon complying with the requirements of the Act, form an incorporated company with limited liability.

A private company is defined by section 130 of the Act as one which by its memorandum or articles:

- (a) Restricts the right to transfer its shares;
- (b) Limits the number of its members (exclusive of those who are in the employment of the company) to fifty; and
- (c) Prohibits any invitation to the public to subscribe for its shares or debentures.

Where two or more persons hold shares jointly in a private company they are, however, treated as a single member.

No company, association or partnership consisting of more than twenty persons can be formed for the purpose of carrying on any business which has for its object the acquisition of gain unless it is registered as a company under the Act.

Companies formed for the construction and working of railways or for carrying on the business of banking or insurance, must be incorporated under a private act of the Legislature.

The leading document in the constitution of a company is its memorandum of association. This memorandum, which must be signed by each subscriber in the presence of one witness, requires to set out:

- (a) The name of the company with "limited" as the last word in the name;

- (b) The city, town or county in the Province in which the registered office of the company will be situate;
- (c) The objects of the company;
- (d) That the liability of the members is limited; and
- (e) The amount of share capital, and the division thereof into shares of a fixed amount.

No subscriber may take less than one share and each subscriber must write opposite his name the number of shares for which he subscribes.

The memorandum sets out the objects for which the company is formed and care should be taken to see that the powers contained in the memorandum are sufficiently wide to include all the classes of business which the company proposes to carry on, as no business can be engaged in outside the scope of the powers contained in the memorandum, even with the concurrence of all the shareholders.

A company cannot alter the conditions contained in its memorandum except in the cases and to the extent provided for in the Companies Act. These provisions are set out in section 19 and no alteration in the memorandum can take effect unless and until it is confirmed by the court.

The articles of association have a subordinate position. They regulate the management of the company, the transfer and forfeiture of shares, the making of calls, the holding of meetings, the appointment and powers of directors, etc.

The articles may be altered by special resolution in the manner provided by the Act.

Table A to the Companies Act contains a model set of articles, and if articles are not lodged along with the memorandum, the provisions of table A apply. Even should separate articles be filed, table A will (unless expressly excluded) apply in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of the other articles.

No company can be incorporated, nor can an extra-provincial company be licensed or registered, by a name identical with that under which an existing company, society or firm is carrying on business; or so nearly resembling that name as to be calculated to deceive. The name of an existing company can, however, be used where that company is in course of being dissolved and files a consent with the registrar. The registrar will, on request, reserve any approved name which may be taken by an intended company for a period of fourteen days, or any extended period he may allow, not exceeding in all thirty days. Before lodging an application for registration it is advisable to apply to the registrar to ascertain if the name of the proposed company is available for use.

Attention is drawn to the fact that no person can be appointed a director of a company by the articles or be named as a director or proposed director in any prospectus issued by or on behalf of the company unless he has by himself or his agent, signed in writing:

(1) Signed and filed with the registrar a contract in writing to act as a director;

(2) Either signed the memorandum for a number of shares not less than his qualification (if any) or signed and filed with the registrar a contract in writing to take and pay for his qualification shares (if any).

The above provisions, however, do not apply to a private company.

A list of directors must be filed along with the application for registration and should this list contain the name of any person who has not consented to act, the applicant is liable to a fine not exceeding $200.

The application for registration is made by letter, and in the case of a public company should be accompanied by:

- (1) A duly signed copy of the memorandum of association;
- (2) A signed copy of the articles of association (if any);
- (3) A written consent to act by all the directors or proposed directors;
- (4) A list of the directors;
- (5) A contract by the directors undertaking to take and pay for their qualification shares if they have not signed the memorandum for the shares;
- (6) Notice of the situation of the registered office; and
- (7) A declaration by the solicitor incorporating the company that the provisions of the act have been complied with.

In the case of a private company Nos. 3, 4 and 5 need not be sent.

The fees payable on registration are set out in table B to the Companies Act. In addition to the registration fees there will be the fees payable on the filing of the various documents and also the fees to cover the advertisement in the British Columbia Gazette.

The articles must be either printed or typewritten, but the other papers may be in writing.

The registrar issues a certificate showing that the company has been incorporated, and this certificate, along with a statement showing the objects of the company, is published by him for four weeks in the British Columbia Gazette.

The provisions relating to prospectuses will be found in sections 89 to 93, of the Companies Act.

In the case of a public company the memorandum and articles should fix a minimum subscription upon which the directors may proceed to allotment. If no amount is fixed no allotment can be made of any share capital till the whole of the capital has been subscribed. This provision does not, however, apply to a private company. The amount of the minimum subscription can be fixed at any figure, large or small.

An allotment made by a company to an applicant in contravention of the above provision is voidable at the instance of the applicant within one month after the holding of the statutory meeting of the company, and such right to avoid the allotment exists even though the company is in process of being wound up.

Returns of all allotments of shares must be made to the registrar within thirty days of the date of allotment.

Where shares are allotted for a consideration other than cash an agreement in writing constituting the title of the allottee should be filed with the return.

A company cannot commence business or exercise any borrowing powers unless:

(a) Shares held subject to the payment of the whole amount thereof in cash have been allotted to an amount not less than the minimum subscription;

(b) Every director of the company has paid on each of the shares taken by him a proportion equal to the proportion payable on application and allotment, on the shares offered for public subscription;

(c) There has been filed with the registrar a declaration by the secretary or one of the directors (in form 583, page 917 hereof) that the above conditions have been complied with.

On the filing of this declaration the registrar issues a certificate that the company is entitled to commence business. Any contract made by the company before the date on which it is entitled to commence business is provisional only, and is not binding on the company until that date. In the case of a company which does not issue a prospectus a statement in lieu of prospectus must be filed with the registrar before the certificate to commence business can be issued.

Every company must within a period of not less than one month or more than three months from the date on which it is entitled to commence business hold a general meeting of the shareholders, called the statutory meeting. The directors must, at least seven days prior to the date on which the meeting is to be held, forward a report to every member of the company. This report, which is known as the statutory report, requires to be certified by not less than two directors, or, where there are less than two directors, by the sole director and manager, and must set out:

- (a) The total number of shares allotted;
- (b) The total amount of cash received by the company in respect of shares allotted;
- (c) An abstract of the receipts of the company on account of capital, of any payments made thereout, and the particulars of the balance remaining in the company's hands, and an account or estimate of the preliminary expenses of the company;
- (d) The names, addresses and descriptions of the directors, auditors, managers and secretary of the company; and
- (e) Particulars of any contract, the modification of which is to be submitted to the meeting for its approval, along with the particulars of any such modification.

The report must, so far as it relates to the shares allotted and to the receipts and payments, be certified as correct by the auditors. A copy of the report, except in the case of a private company, requires to be filed with the registrar.

Where a company sells or disposes of any interest in land it is usually required to file in the land registry office for the district in which the land is situated, a copy of its memorandum and articles or the number of its certificate of incorporation and the date on which the certificate of incorporation was advertised in the Gazette.

Note—Extra-provincial companies carrying on business in British Columbia are required to be licensed or registered. Should an extra-provincial company carry on in the Province any part of its business without being so licensed or registered it is liable to a penalty of $50 for every day on which it so carries on business. So long as it remains unregistered it is incapable of maintaining any action, suit or other proceeding in any of the courts of the Province in respect of any contract made in whole or in part within the Province in the course of or in connection with its business or of holding or acquiring any land in the Province.

The provisions regarding licensing apply to companies incorporated under the laws of the United Kingdom, the Dominion of Canada, the former Province of Canada, or any of the Provinces of the Dominion.

The application for a licence may be made by letter and must be accompanied by:

(1) A certified copy of the charter and regulations of the company.

(2) A power of attorney under the common seal of the company empowering some person residing in the city or place where the head office of the company in the Province is to be situated, to sue and be sued, plead or be impleaded in any court and generally on behalf of the company within the Province to accept service of process and receive all lawful notices.

(3) A statutory declaration or affidavit setting out:

(a) That the company is still in existence and legally authorized to transact business under its charter;

(b) The situation of the head office without the Province;

(c) The city, town or district where the head office of the company in the Province is proposed to be situated; and

(d) A statement of the amount of capital of the company and of the number of shares into which it is divided.

A licence is issued by the registrar and is advertised, along with a statement of the objects for which the company was established, for four weeks in the British Columbia Gazette.

The provisions regarding registration apply to foreign companies. The application for registration is made by petition and must be accompanied by practically the same documents as are necessary in the case of an application for a licence. If the memorandum and articles of association are not in English it is necessary to produce a certified translation.

The necessary forms in connection with the application for a licence or for registration will be found on pages 958-960.

It may be useful to give a list of some of the most important obligations and liabilities imposed on limited liability companies by the Act.

(a) The company is bound, under penalty, to supply its members on demand with copies of its memorandum of association and regulations (sec. 28).

(b) If under the articles the ordinary shareholders have a right to receive and inspect the balance sheets and auditor's reports, and the company is not a private company, the holders of preference shares and debentures and debenture stock of the company have the same right, and the company must conform thereto (sec. 121).

(c) The company is bound, under penalty, to keep a register of its members (sec. 33). This register is to be open for inspection by the members.

(d) The company is bound, under penalty, to make certain annual returns as to its members, capital, assets and liabilities, etc., to the registrar of companies (sec. 34); and, in addition, every company limited by shares must within a month after allotment make certain returns as to the allottees and capital, and in case of shares issued otherwise than for cash file certain contracts (sec. 97).

(e) Prospectuses issued by or on behalf of any company or in relation to any intended company, must, as a general rule, be dated and signed and then filed before publication, and the fact of filing must be stated thereon before they are issued (sec. 89). And prospectuses must, according to circumstances, comply with all or some of the requisites of sec. 90. If the company (not being a private company) does not issue a prospectus, it must file a statement in lieu of prospectus (sec. 94 as amended).

(f) The company is bound to give notice to the registrar of increase of capital or members (sec. 51); and of consolidation of shares and conversion of shares into stock (sec. 49). As to special resolutions see sec. 78.

(g) The company is bound to have a registered office and notice of the situation thereof for the time being has to be given to the registrar (sec. 70).

(h) The company, if limited, is bound to have its name up outside every place where it carries on business, and on its seal and on all bills, etc. (sec. 71).

(i) Notices and other documents may be served on the company by leaving the same, or sending them by post, addressed to the company at its registered office (sec. 123).

(j) The company, if limited, is bound under penalty, to keep a register of mortgages (sec. 108). And every mortgage or charge coming within sec. 102 must be filed for registration within twenty-one days.

(o) If the company carries on business for six months after the number of its members is reduced below five, its members may incur unlimited liability (sec. 122).

(p) The company must hold its "statutory" meeting not less than one month nor more than three months from the date at which it is entitled to commence business (sec. 73). The report then discussed must be filed with the registrar.

(q) The company must hold an annual meeting (sec. 72).

(r) The company, if limited by shares, must not prior to the statutory meeting vary the terms of a contract referred to in the prospectus except subject to the approval of the statutory meeting (sec. 92).

AGREEMENT TO SELL BUSINESS TO NEW COM-PANY IN CONSIDERATION OF CASH AND STOCK ALLOTMENT

AN AGREEMENT, made the — day of —, A.D. 191—, between —, of — (hereinafter called the vendors), of the one part, and — (hereinafter called the company), of the other part.

WHEREAS the vendors have for some time past carried on business as — at — and elsewhere, under the style or firm of —.

AND WHEREAS the company has been formed under the “ — Companies Act” with a nominal capital of — dollars, divided into — shares of — dollars each with a view, amongst other things, to the acquisition of the said business.

AND WHEREAS by clause 3 of the articles of association of the company it is provided that the company shall enter into the agreement therein referred to, being this agreement.

NOW IT IS HEREBY AGREED as follows:

1. The vendor shall sell and the company shall purchase:

First. The goodwill of the said business (with the exclusive right to use the name — as part of the name of the company, and represent the company as carrying on such business in continuation of the vendors' firm, and in succession thereto, and the right to use the words "late —," or any other words indicating that the business is carried on in continuation of or succession to the said firm), and all trade marks in connection therewith.

Secondly. All the freehold and leasehold hereditaments respectively specified in the first and second schedules hereto.

Thirdly. All the plant, machinery, office furniture, patents, licences, horses, wagons, carts, stock-in-trade, implements and utensils to which the vendors are entitled in connection with the said business.

Fourthly. All the book and other debts due to the vendors in connection with the said business, and the full benefit of all securities for such debts.

Fifthly. The full benefit of all pending contracts and engagements to which the vendors are or may be entitled in connection with the said business.

Sixthly. All cash in hand and at the bank, and all bills and notes of the vendors in connection with the said business.

Seventhly. All other property to which the vendors are entitled in connection with the said business.

2. [Part of] the consideration for the said sale shall be the sum of — dollars, which shall be paid and satisfied as follows: As to the sum of — dollars in cash, and as to the sum of — dollars by the allotment to the vendors or their nominees of — fully paid up [ordinary or preference] shares in the capital of the company of — dollars each, to be numbered — to — inclusive [and as to the sum of — dollars by the allotment to the vendors or their nominees of — dollars debentures [or debenture stock] of the company carrying interest at the rate of — per centum per annum as from the — day of —, A.D. 191—].

[2A. The consideration for the said stock-in-trade shall be such a sum as shall be certified by Messrs. —, of —, to be the fair value thereof, or if any difficulty shall arise in obtaining their certificate, then a sum equal to the fair value of such property; and so that any difference in regard thereto shall be referred to the decision of two competent valuers, one to be appointed by the vendors and the other by the company [or by Messrs. —, of —]. The consideration moneys mentioned in this clause are hereinafter referred to as the valuation moneys.]

3. As the residue of the consideration for the said sale, the company shall undertake to pay, satisfy, discharge and fulfill all the debts, liabilities, contracts and engagements of the vendors in relation to the said business, and shall indemnify them against all proceedings, claims and demands in respect thereof.

4. The said premises are sold free from all incumbrances (except the mortgages specified or referred to in the schedule hereto), but as regards the leaseholds, subject to the rents and covenants contained in the leases or agreements for leases under which the same are held, and as regards all such hereditaments, to all rights-of-way and other easements, if any, affecting the same respectively, and to all existing leases and tenancies and agreements therefor.

5. The description of the said several hereditaments is believed to be and should be correct; but if any error should be found therein, the same, if capable of compensation, shall not annul the sale, but a fair compensation shall be allowed by the vendors in respect thereof.

6. The company shall make its objections and requisitions, if any, in respect of the vendors' title to any of the said hereditaments, and send the same to Messrs. —, the vendors' solicitors, at —, within — days from the date hereof, and in default of such objections and requisitions, if none, and subject to such, if any, shall be deemed to have accepted the title.

7. If the company shall make [or shall insist] on any requisition or objection as to title, conveyance or otherwise, which the vendors shall be unable, or, on the ground of expense, delay or otherwise, shall be unwilling to comply with, the vendors may, notwithstanding any previous negotiations or litigation, by notice in writing determine this agreement (except as to clause 13A hereof) without giving rise to any claim for expense or otherwise.

[7A. The company shall, without [further] investigation, objection or requisition, accept such title as the vendors have to the said premises hereby agreed to be sold.]

8. The purchase shall be completed on the — day of —, A.D. 191—, at the office of Messrs. —, the vendors' solicitors, No. —, when possession of the premises shall, as far as practicable, be given to the company, and the consideration aforesaid, so far as the same consists of cash and shares [and debentures] shall be paid and satisfied subject to the provisions of this agreement, and thereupon the vendors and all other necessary parties, if any, shall at the expense of the company execute and do all assurances and things for vesting the said premises in the company, and giving to it the full benefit of this agreement as shall be reasonably required.

9. If from any cause whatever other than the wilful default of the vendors the purchase shall not be completed on the said — day of —, A.D. 191—, the company shall pay interest on the said sum of — — dollars cash at the rate of — — per centum per annum until the purchase shall be completed.

10. Divers of the leaseholds specified in the — — schedule hereto are only assignable with the consent of the landlords from whom the same respectively are held. The vendors shall use their best endeavors to obtain the requisite consents for the assignment thereof to the company, and in any case where such consents cannot conveniently be obtained the vendors shall at the option of the company execute a declaration of trust of the premises in favor of the company, or otherwise deal with the same as the company shall direct. [The leases under which the leasehold portions of the premises are held have already been submitted for the inspection of the company, and accordingly the company is to be deemed to have notice of the contents thereof].

[10a. As regards any of the premises subject to mortgages which cannot be paid off until after the time for completion, the vendors shall, if so required by the company convey the same to the company subject to the mortgages affecting the same respectively, and the company shall be at liberty to retain out of the cash portion of the said consideration a sum sufficient to pay off and satisfy in full all claims under such mortgages.]

[10b. Save as hereinbefore provided, the vendors shall pay, satisfy and discharge all their debts and liabilities in connection with the said business as on the — — day of — —, A.D. 191—, and shall indemnify the company against all proceedings, claims and demands in respect thereof.]

11. The possession of the said premises shall be retained by the vendors up to the said — — day of — —, A.D. 191—, and in the meantime they shall carry on the said business in the same manner as heretofore, so as to maintain the same as a going concern, and they shall from the date hereof [or as from the — day of —, A.D. 191—], be deemed to [have been and to] be carrying on such business on behalf of the company, and shall account and be entitled to be indemnified accordingly.

12. The vendors shall covenant with the company that they will not at any time hereafter, either solely or jointly with, or as manager or agent for, any other person or persons, or company, directly or indirectly, carry on, or be engaged, or concerned, or interested in the business of a —, or permit or suffer their names to be used or employed in carrying on or in connection with the said business, within — miles of —, save so far as the vendors shall as members of the company be interested, or as officers or servants or agents of the company be employed, in the business of the company. [And in case the vendors shall commit any breach of the foregoing stipulation, they shall pay to the company (immediately on every such breach) the sum of — dollars as liquidated damages in respect thereof.]

[12A. All books of account of the said firm, and all books of reference to customers, and all other books and documents of the said firm (except such as relate exclusively to the private affairs of the said firm or the individual members thereof) shall be delivered by the vendors to the company on possession being given of the premises, pursuant to the provision in that behalf hereinbefore contained, and the company shall thenceforth, subject to the following proviso, be entitled to the custody thereof, and to the use thereof for the purposes of carrying on its business; but the vendors shall have free access, at all reasonable times, to such of the said books and documents as show or relate to the outstanding book debts and credits of the vendors, or may otherwise be requisite for enabling the vendors to collect and get in the assets of the said firm not hereby agreed to be sold, and to liquidate the affairs thereof; nevertheless, when and so soon as any of the said books of reference and other books shall cease to be necessary for the carrying on of the said business, the same shall be delivered over to the vendors, who shall thereupon become absolutely entitled thereto.]

[12b. The vendors shall be entitled to such accommodation as they may reasonably require in the office of the company in the said leasehold premises, for the purpose of collecting the book and other debts due to the said firm in respect of the said business and liquidating the affairs thereof; and the vendors shall make all such book and other debts payable at the said premises, and at no other place, the object being to secure the continued resort of the customers of the said firm to the said premises, and so to give to the company the full benefit of the goodwill of the said business.]

[12c. The vendors guarantee that the book debts included in the sale aforesaid shall in the aggregate produce the sum of —— dollars, being the amount at which they are included in the sale, and unless they shall within the period of twelve calendar months from the date hereof produce that sum, the vendors shall, if so required by the company, pay to the company a sum sufficient to make good the deficiency, and the vendors shall thereupon be entitled to the uncollected book debts aforesaid.]

[12d. The company shall collect, on behalf of the vendors all the book debts of the vendors excepted from the sale hereby agreed to be made, and in doing so the company shall act under the direction of the vendors and shall, once a month, account to the vendors for all moneys so collected less all expenses of collection; and for the purposes of facilitating such collection, the vendors shall do whatever the company may reasonably require, and the company shall not be responsible for any losses in the course of the collection aforesaid.]

[12E. Each of the vendors shall, if he shall so long live, retain and hold in his own name the whole of the shares to be allotted to him pursuant to clause 2 hereof for a period of six calendar months from the allotment thereof, and shall retain and hold in his own name at least seventy-five per cent. of the said shares for a period of five years from the time of such allotment.]

13. The company shall, subject to the consent of the insurance company and to the completion of the purchase, be entitled to the benefit of the current insurance of the premises.

[13A. The vendors shall pay all the costs of, and incidental to, the preparation and execution of this agreement, and of the memorandum and articles of association of the company, and of the registration thereof, and of all fees and legal expenses, incident to the formation of the company, and generally all preliminary expenses whatever incurred in relation to the company down to the first general allotment of shares, or to the time when the directors determine not to proceed to allotment.]

[13B. The validity of this agreement shall not be impeached on the ground that the vendors, as promoters or otherwise, stand in a fiduciary relation to the company, and that the directors, having accepted office at their request, do not constitute an independent board.]

14. Unless before the — day of —, A.D. 191—, the company shall have become entitled to commence business, either of the parties hereto may by notice in writing to the other determine this agreement except as to clause 13A hereof, but such determination shall not give rise to any claim for compensation, expenses or otherwise.

15. Any notice hereunder may be served on the vendors by sending the same through the post, addressed to them at —, and shall be deemed to have been served within twenty-four hours after the same is posted.

16. The company shall cause this agreement to be duly filed with the registrar of companies pursuant to the "Companies Act," and also, in the case of shares allotted to the vendors' nominees, shall cause a sufficient contract to be so filed constituting the title of such nominees.

[17. This agreement is provisional only, and is not to become absolute unless and until the company has become entitled to commence business.]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

The judge shall upon application made to him for that purpose have power to extend the said period of two years.

25. Guardians may voluntarily exhibit an inventory of the property of the infants and render an account of their guardianship or may be called upon to do so on the application of any person interested by order of the judge. The provisions of rule 24 shall apply to guardians of infants' estates and such guardians shall pass their accounts within the same time and in the same manner as executors and administrators are required to do by that rule.

26. The inventory and accounts shall be filed with the clerk of the court, verified by the oath of the executor, administrator or guardian, and thereupon the judge shall, upon application to him, fix a time and place for an audit and give directions as to the persons to be served with notice thereof.

27. No grant of probate or administration shall issue, nor shall any grant be resealed, until after the receipt by the clerk of a certificate from the Provincial Treasurer fixing the amount of duty to be paid in respect of the estate, if any, nor until such duty is paid or security furnished as required by law.

37. Every order made by the judge upon or in reference to any application shall be noted by the clerk in the procedure book and a copy thereof filed.

APPEALS

42. Any person considering himself aggrieved by an order or judgment of a District Court or being dissatisfied with the determination of a judge thereof in point of law on any matter or cause relating to probate, administration or guardianship may, subject to the Rules of Court in respect of appeals, appeal to the court en banc.

43. When an appeal is so lodged, the judge of the District Court shall, upon the application of the appellant, order all proceedings in the matter to be stayed upon such terms as he may see fit.

44. Upon a certificate from the registrar or acting registrar of the court en banc that an appeal has been lodged in his office, the clerk of the court shall forthwith transmit (at the expense of the appellant) to the registrar or acting registrar of the court en banc the documents, instruments, affidavits and papers in the matter or cause appealed, deposited or filed in such District Court office, together with the judgment or decision of the judge. The registrar or acting registrar of the court en banc shall, upon the disposal of the appeal and the issue of the judgment on such appeal, return the said documents, instruments, affidavits and papers, together with a certified copy of the judgment of the court en banc to the clerk of the court from whom he received same.

45. Any person may demand and on payment of the proper fees receive from the clerk, in whose custody the papers are, a copy of any paper, proceeding or document in administration, probate or guardianship matters, which copies may be certified by the clerk under seal, if so required. The clerk shall also furnish exemplifications of probates, letters of administration, or guardianship.

CONTENTIOUS BUSINESS

46. All contentious business shall be begun by way of notice of motion before the judge in chambers. On the return of the notice the judge may hear the matter in a summary way on the affidavits filed or on viva voce testimony, or he may direct an issue to be tried for the purpose of ascertaining any facts in dispute, and may fix a time for the trial of such issue. Upon the order directing the issue being filed, the issue shall proceed to trial as if it were an ordinary case in the District Court.

47. Upon such summary hearing or upon the trial of the issue, as the case may be, the judge may make an order disposing of the matter involved, and may make such order as to costs as he may deem proper, and such order shall be final, subject only to appeal under rule 42.

48. When a will is voluntarily propounded for proof in solemn form the judge shall, after examining the petition and proofs, fix a time and place for taking evidence in support of the will, and grant a summons to see proceedings at such time and place. This summons is to be served upon all persons having or claiming to have an interest in the question of the validity of the will.

49. At the time and place fixed the person propounding the will shall produce for examination one or more of the witnesses to the will, if he or they are alive, and shall give such further evidence generally of the validity as the judge may desire.

50. When any of the persons summoned attends and takes part, the proceedings if they go beyond the cross-examination of the witnesses to the will, shall be continued and disposed of as provided for in rules 46 and 47.

51. The same method of notifying parties and proving the will shall, as nearly as may be, be followed in a case where an executor is put upon proof of a will in solemn form by compulsion.

52. A person who files a caveat merely to insure a will being proved in solemn form shall state in the caveat that he only desires to cross-examine the witnesses produced in support of the will, and he shall thereupon be at liberty to do so, but shall be subject to liability in respect to costs in the discretion of the judge.

REMOVAL OF CASES FROM THE DISTRICT TO THE SUPREME COURT

53. In every case in which an application for grant of probate, administration or guardianship has been made and there is contention as to the grant, and the parties in the case agree, the contention shall be referred to and determined by a judge of the Supreme Court on a case to be prepared, and no grant shall issue on the application until the contention is terminated and disposed of by judgment or otherwise.

54. Any cause or proceeding in the District Court in which any contention arises as to the grant of probate or administration or in which any disputed question of law or facts may be raised relating to matters and causes testamentary shall be removable by any party to the cause or proceeding into the Supreme Court by order of a judge thereof to be obtained on a summary application supported by affidavit of which reasonable notice shall be given to the other parties concerned.

(2) The judge making the order may impose such terms as to payment of or security for costs or otherwise as to him seems just, but no cause or proceeding shall be removed unless it is of such nature and of such importance as to render it proper that the same should be withdrawn from the jurisdiction of the District Court and disposed of by the Supreme Court, nor unless the property of the deceased exceeds $2,000 in value.

55. Upon any cause or proceeding being so removed a judge of the Supreme Court shall have full power to determine and otherwise deal with the same as with any cause or claim originally begun in the said court; and the final order or judgment thereon shall be transmitted, together with all papers, to the clerk of the District Court from which the cause or proceeding was removed.

56. The fees payable for the performance of duties and service under these rules to clerks shall be the fees set out in the rules or contained in Schedule 2 hereof.

57. The forms in Schedule 1 hereto are to be adopted and followed as nearly as the circumstances of each case will allow in all applications and proceedings under these rules.

58. The clerk shall tax costs subject to an appeal to the judge.

Note—Rule 55 of the rules relating to costs (being a rule governing the size of rolls and records) applies also in matters dealt with under these rules.

*It is the practice by some judges to require the names, residence and age of the surviving next-of-kin; this even in the case where the widow of a deceased intestate is applying and who is, of course, in such case, the person solely entitled to apply. It will, therefore, be well to follow this practice, and after enumerating such survivors, giving their proper description according to the table of kinship, to add the words, "and no others." Do not describe the husband or widow of an intestate as "next-of-kin," but as the "lawful husband" or "lawful widow and relict," as the case may be.

ADMINISTRATION, PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP MATTERS

(Alberta)

GENERAL HINTS FOR PRACTITIONERS

(Prepared by one of the District Court judges and issued under instructions of the Inspector of Legal Offices)

If a will exist in duplicate the executors will prove one part only, but they will be called upon to produce and file the other, or to satisfactorily account for its absence.

If the testator has signed by the first two or more Christian names and has omitted one or more of the others, on a certificate by the solicitor that the signature as it appears was his usual form of signature, probate is granted in the testator's full name. Failing this certificate, an affidavit showing a necessity for an alias is required and probate granted accordingly.

If, however, the testator has omitted his first Christian name, the grant issues in the name by which he has signed, and, on proof by affidavit that property stands in his full name, the alias will appear on the grant; but the practice is to avoid, if possible, unnecessary aliases, unless it can be shown to the satisfaction of the judge that the testator held property in more than one name.

If the testator is described in the will as the "elder," but has not so subscribed, such description is not to be inserted.

If the testator is described in the will as the "younger," but does not so subscribe, he should, notwithstanding, be described as the "younger," or "heretofore the younger," as the case may be.

The testator's place of residence, stated in the will or codicil, must form part of his description, and any previous or subsequent residence may be added, provided that not more than three places of residence be inserted, except where it can be shown that the deceased held property under more than three addresses when the additional addresses may be inserted in the probate or grant.

All the executors proving a will must be sworn to the oath and affidavit of property leading to the grant. It is not sufficient for one of several executors to be so sworn, but one executor can prove the will alone, power being reserved by the Court to the other executors to grant probate to the latter on their application.

When there is one executor or executrix only named in the will, he or she should be described as the "sole executor" or the "sole executrix."

When there are more executors than one, if they are all females, they are to be described as "the executrices." If they are all males, or partly males and partly females, they are to be described as "the executors."

If the name of an executor or an executrix is misspelt in the will, the words "in the will written" should be added to his or her correct name. Unless the two names are identical in sound, proof of identity is required.

If an executor be wrongly described in the will as "the elder" or "the younger," an affidavit is required in proof of the identity of the person intended.

If the executor (or rather, the person claiming to be the persona designata) be described by a wrong Christian name in the will, an affidavit will be required, deposing to facts which warrant the recognition of the person claiming to be executor.

Whenever it appears by the will that an executor or executrix is related to the testator as father, mother, etc., etc., he or she is to be so described in the oath.

If a testator describe an executor as "his nephew A., son of his brother B.," that executor must designate himself such in the oath, if it be so.

The true place of residence (even if only temporary) of every deponent to the "oath" or affidavits must be inserted. A club will not suffice, unless it be the actual residence.

The executors proving the will or any testamentary writings must mark them with their names on some parts of the documents themselves and not on the sheet forming the cover. So also must the witness or witnesses proving the due execution of the will. The will must also be signed by the official who administers the oath.

It is desirable that all facts to be deposed to shall be included in the oath and in the affidavit of property rather than in several documents. The affidavit of plight is preferably to be made by one of the attesting witnesses who can also depose to the due execution of the will, rather than by one of the executors who may never have seen the will until after the death of the testator, and who generally cannot prove the due execution of the will or its condition at that time.

In administration matters the term "next-of-kin" applies only to the nearest blood relation, but is often wrongly applied to the husband or wife of an intestate, who should be described as "the lawful husband" or "the lawful widow."

Applicants for grants of administration, in cases where there are other persons entitled thereto in priority, must show how such prior interests have been cleared off, whether by death, renunciation or otherwise.

In every case of administration (except those where the will is annexed) it must be stated that the deceased died intestate, a bachelor, or a widower, a spinster or a widow, as the case may be.

Persons entitled to a grant, who reside out of Alberta, may take the grant themselves, the necessary papers being sent to them to depose to, or they may authorize some one by power of attorney to take a grant for their use and benefit until they shall apply for and obtain a grant.

Bonds must be accompanied (except in the case of guarantee companies approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council) by an affidavit of the witnesses attesting the execution of the bond and proving the parties thereto to be of the full age of 21 years.

All oaths and affidavits leading to any grant of probate, letters of administration or guardianship or in matters of the estates of lunatics shall be sworn before such officials as are herein specified:

(a) If made in any province of Canada, before a judge of any court of record, any commissioner authorized to take affidavits in such province for use in any court of record in the province, or before any notary public under his official seal; or

(b) If made in Great Britain or Ireland, before a judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England or Ireland, or of the Court of Sessions or of the Judiciary Court in Scotland, or a judge of any of the county courts within his county, or the mayor of any city or incorporated town under the common seal of such city or town, or before any commissioner in Great Britain or Ireland, authorized to take affidavits therein, for use in any court of record in the province, or a notary public under his official seal; or

(c) If made in any British colony or possession out of Canada before a judge of any court of record, the mayor of any city or incorporated town under the common seal of such city or town, or notary public under his official seal; or

(d) If made in any foreign country, before the mayor of any city or incorporated town, under the common seal of any such city or town, or before the British consul, vice-consul or consular agent, residing therein, or before any judge of any court of record or a notary public under his official seal.

Neither the applicant's solicitor, nor his clerk, nor his agent is to act as commissioner for taking the oaths leading to the grant.

Practitioners are recommended in special cases to consult the judge or clerk of the court as to the form an application shall take.

The fees are to be brought in to the clerk when the papers on the application for the grant are lodged.

SPECIAL DIRECTIONS TO CLERKS

Where there are several executors named in the will and only one executor proves, it will be necessary to show either that the executors who do not prove have renounced or have pre-deceased the testator, or have died prior to the papers being sent in for probate, or that power is reserved to them to prove the will. Such facts are to be noted on the grant.

In all cases where it is necessary to clear off a person who would have been entitled to, but has died after the deceased without obtaining a grant, the fact should appear on the face of the grant (and consequently must be sworn to in the oath leading to the grant) that such person has died without having taken out letters of administration, or as the case may be.

If probate or administration has not been applied for within three years from the death of the deceased, a certificate by the solicitor or an affidavit by the applicant must accompany the papers to explain the cause of the delay.

Bonds in guardianship matters are to be made to the judge of the district court, naming him, or other the judge of the court for the time being as in the case of an administration bond.

Grants of probate or administration are not to be made in duplicate, but if practitioners require certified copies at the time when the grants are in the clerk's office they can be obtained then, but thereafter exemplifications only of such grants will be furnished by the clerks.

BRITISH COLUMBIA
PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION AND RESEAL-
ING OF PROBATES

(No separate rules of Surrogate Court practice have been authorized and promulgated in this province.)

Probate may be applied for either in the Supreme Court or County Court according to the value of the estate. The County Court within whose jurisdiction the deceased dies has jurisdiction concurrently with the Supreme Court where the personal estate does not exceed $2,500.

The procedure to obtain probate in the Supreme or County Court is practically identical, and is shortly as follows:

A petition is presented to the court supported by affidavit and accompanied by the will, two copies of the will, an affidavit of death, oath of administration, affidavit of value and relationship with inventories annexed, containing full particulars of the estate, debts and liabilities, and of the names and addresses of the parties to whom the property bequeathed by the will passes and their degree of relationship to the testator and the nature and value of the property passing to each.

Forms of these documents will be found post, pp. 1072 et seq.

After the papers are prepared and executed they are submitted to the district registrar for approval.

If approved an order is obtained on application in chambers for a grant of probate to the petitioners. If any duties are payable a statement of these is issued by the treasury department, and these duties must be paid before a grant is delivered.

The law relating to grants of administration, revocation, renunciation, receivers, official administrator, proving of wills affecting real estate in solemn form, the powers, duties and liabilities of executors and administrators, etc., is contained in the Administrators' Act, R.S.B.C., ch. 4.

The parties entitled to the grant of administration are specified in s. 11 of that Act.

The application is made by petition and must be supported by affidavit and accompanied by an affidavit of death, and search for will, oath of administration, affidavit of value and relationship and relative inventories. The procedure is the same as in the case of an application for probate.

Form will be found post, pp. 1081 et seq.

The law relating to resealing of probates and letters of administration is contained in the Probates Recognition Act, R.S.B.C., ch. 184. Probates and letters of administration issued by the courts of the United Kingdom or of any British possession which recognize grants of probate or administration issued by the British Columbia courts may be reheated and have the same effect as original grants made in the province.

The procedure is as follows: A petition is presented to the Supreme Court by the executors or administrators. The petition may be signed by the solicitor. The petition is accompanied by the original grant of probate or administration, an office or certified copy thereof, and an additional copy, an affidavit of administration, and affidavits of value and relationship and relative inventories. The inventory of the property need only contain the totals of the estate outside the province under each heading, but should give detailed particulars of the estate within the province.

The procedure thereafter is the same as in the application for a grant of probate.

SURROGATE COURT RULES AND FORMS

"THE SURROGATE COURTS ACT"

RULES AND ORDERS

(Order-in-Council No. 10449, dated January 6, 1906)

That the rules and orders hereto annexed, made by the judges of the Surrogate Courts of Manitoba as the general rules and orders of the Surrogate Courts of the Province of Manitoba, have been approved.

RULES

In pursuance of the provisions of sections 29 and 30 of chapter 41 of the Revised Statutes of Manitoba, 1902, the Surrogate Courts Act, as amended by chapter 7 of 4 Edward 7. we, the judges of the Surrogate Courts, do make, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, the following rules and orders, to take effect as the general rules and orders of the Surrogate Courts on and after the first day of February, 1906:

INTERPRETATION

1. In these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) Expressions shall have the same meaning as they would have if the rules were a part of the Surrogate Courts Act;

(b) The expressions "application" and "grant" shall mean respectively an application for and a grant of letters probate, letters of administration or letters of administration with the will annexed, and shall include resealing;

(c) The expression "proofs to lead grant" or "proofs" shall mean the affidavits in support of an application, and shall include the usual oath of an executor or administrator;

(d) The expression "solicitor" shall mean a solicitor within the terms of the Law Society Act;

(e) The expression "Act" shall mean the Surrogate Courts Act.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

2. All practice inconsistent with these rules is hereby superseded.

3. As to matters not provided for in these rules, the practice shall be regulated by analogy thereto as near as may be. In any matters not provided for, where the practice cannot be regulated by such analogy, it shall be regulated by analogy to the rules of the Court of King's Bench. In any particular case not covered by the foregoing the judge may direct the course to be pursued.

4. Subject to section 27 of the Act a judge shall have power to sit and act at any time for the transaction of any part of the business of the court of which he is a judge.

NONCONTENTIOUS BUSINESS

5. Noncontentious business shall include all common form business as defined by section 2 (d) of the Act.

APPLICATIONS, PROOFS AND GRANTS

Every application shall be by petition, signed and presented by the applicant or his solicitor.

7. The petition shall set forth, and the proofs to lead grant shall verify, all the facts upon which the applicant relies for a grant.

8. When the applicant is not the person primarily entitled to the grant, the petition and proofs shall show that every person entitled in priority has consented or renounced, or shall set out fully the special grounds on which the applicant seeks the grant, notwithstanding his want of priority.

9. Where a grant is applied for by one or some only of the next-of-kin, there being another or others equally entitled thereto, the applicant may be required to give notice of the application to such other next-of-kin.

10. The proofs are to show that the applicant is twenty-one years of age, and, where there is a will, that the testator was twenty-one years of age when the will was made.

11. The usual oath of an executor or administrator shall be reduced to writing and subscribed and sworn to by the applicant as an affidavit.

12. The proofs may be embodied in one affidavit.

13. If there should appear to be any material variance between the application and the proofs, the judge may direct the application to be amended according to the fact and a new notice of the application to be sent to the Surrogate Registrar.

14. The affidavit of intestacy must show that search for a will has been made in all places where the deceased person usually kept his papers and in his depositories. This affidavit is to be made by the applicant if possible, but in any event there should be an affidavit from the person in the best position to know of a will, if there were one.

15. The due execution of the will shall be proved by one of the witnesses, or the absence of the witnesses accounted for, in which last case the will must be established by other proof to the satisfaction of the judge.

16. Every will, in respect of which a grant is sought, shall be marked to identify it by the applicant, and also by the person before whom the affidavit of execution is sworn. When the will consists of more than one page, and each page is not identified by the signature or initials of the testator or witnesses, the judge may call for proof that the will sought to be proved consists of the same pages as when executed by the testator.

17. An affidavit "in plight" need not usually be furnished, but the judge may call for such an affidavit where anything peculiar in the appearance or condition of the will, or in the circumstances under which it is proposed, makes it seem desirable that it should be clearly taken from the possession of the testator in his lifetime up to the time of the making of the application.

18. In the affidavit of value the property is to be valued at its fair market value on reasonable conditions. If the valuation is not satisfactory to the judge, and if the applicant, after notice to him, fails to make it satisfactory, the judge may procure some competent and disinterested person to make a valuation, and such person's valuation shall be payable by the applicant to the clerk of the court on the issue of the grant.

19. Every affidavit shall be drawn up in the first person, stating the full name of the deponent at the commencement and his description and true place of abode, and shall be signed by him.

20. In every affidavit made by two or more persons the names of several persons making it are to be written in the jurat.

21. When an affidavit is made by any person who is blind, or who, from his signature or otherwise, appears to be illiterate, the officer before whom the same is sworn is to state in the jurat that the affidavit was read in his presence to the deponent and that the deponent seemed perfectly to understand it, and made his mark or wrote his signature in the officer's presence. No such affidavit shall be used in evidence in the absence of this statement, unless the judge is otherwise satisfied that the affidavit was read over to and apparently perfectly understood by the deponent.

22. No affidavit, having in the jurat or body thereof any interlineation, alteration or erasure, is to be read as evidence unless the interlineation, alteration or erasure is authenticated by the initials of the officer before whom the affidavit was sworn.

23. Unless under special circumstances no affidavit, which has been sworn before the party on whose behalf it is offered, or before his solicitor, or the clerk or partner of such solicitor, is to be accepted.

24. Where interlineations, alterations or erasures appear in a will it must be clearly shown that they existed in the will at the time of its execution.

25. If a testator was blind or illiterate the proofs shall show that before its execution the will was read over to him or that he had knowledge of its contents.

26. Unless under very special circumstances no letters of administration shall issue until after the lapse of fourteen days, and no letters probate or letters of administration with the will annexed until after the lapse of seven days from the death of the deceased person.

27. No person entitled to a general grant is to be permitted to take a limited grant.

28. The grant is to show on its face how interests, prior to that of the applicant, have been cleared off.

29. A grant may be made to a guardian of a person under the age of twenty-one years for his use and benefit during his minority. Where there is no testamentary guardian or guardian appointed by a Surrogate Court, a guardian for this purpose may be assigned to the minor by the judge, but, where the minor is over fourteen years of age, only with his consent.

30. When, pursuant to the Act, a judge shall take effects of a deceased person into his hands for safe-keeping or administration, notice of such fact shall at once be sent to the Surrogate Registrar, who shall file the same as an ordinary notice of application, and thereafter no grant shall issue out of any Surrogate Court in respect of the estate without notice to such judge.

BONDS

31. The bond to be given upon any grant shall be according to the forms subjoined or in a form as near thereto as the circumstances of the case admit. It shall be written, or partly written and partly printed, but not typewritten, and shall be prepared with special care.

32. The sureties in a bond shall justify to amounts which in the aggregate shall equal the amount of the penalty of the bond, and the justification shall be over and above all debts, all statutory exemptions from seizure under execution and any other sums for which the parties are already surety.

33. Except when for special reasons the judge shall otherwise direct, there shall be at least two sureties, and the amount of the penalty shall be double the value of the property to be dealt with under the administration.

34. When resealing of a foreign grant is applied for, and a certificate from the foreign court is relied on to show that security was given there in a sum sufficient to cover the assets in Manitoba, such certificate must state the amount at which the Manitoba assets were valued in the foreign court.

CAVEATS

35. Any person intending to oppose the issue of a grant may personally, or by his solicitor, enter a caveat either in the office of a Surrogate clerk or in that of the Surrogate Registrar.

36. The caveat is to show the nature of the caveator's interest in the estate of the deceased and the grounds on which the caveat is entered, and where entered by the caveator personally it must give his post office address.

37. Accompanying the caveat there must be an affidavit or statutory declaration by the caveator, or someone on his behalf who is acquainted with the facts, verifying the grounds on which the caveat is entered and showing that it is not entered for the purpose of delaying or embarrassing any person interested in the estate.

38. A caveat shall remain in force for three months and then expire, unless the time is extended, as it may be by a judge's order.

39. Notwithstanding the filing of a caveat an application may be made by any person claiming to be entitled to a grant, and the usual notice thereof sent to the registrar, but no further proceedings shall be taken upon such application until the caveat has expired or been discharged or withdrawn.

40. The practice of warning caveats is superseded.

41. Any person, whose application for a grant is affected by a caveat, may apply to the judge to have the caveat discharged, and the procedure on such application shall be that prescribed in rules 52 and 53.

42. Where the caveat is entered by the caveator personally, service of any summons, notice or other proceedings may be made upon him by mailing it to him at the address given in the caveat.

43. No caveat shall affect any grant sealed before notice of the filing of the caveat is received at the office of the Surrogate Court from which the grant issues.

44. Where a caveat has lapsed, or has been withdrawn or discharged, no further caveat in respect of the same subject matter shall be permitted to be filed without leave of the judge.

CITATIONS

45. In all cases in which it has been heretofore necessary or customary to issue a citation to accept or refuse a grant, or to issue a subpoena to bring in a testamentary paper, and in all similar cases, a judge's summons or order shall have the same effect as such citation or subpoena formerly had.

SUBSTITUTED SERVICE

46. If it be made to appear to the judge that personal service of any notice, summons or other proceeding, whether in a contentious or noncontentious matter, cannot be effected, or that such service would be attended with great expense or inconvenience, the judge may make such order for substituted or other service as may seem just, and the service so effected shall be good service.

ADMINISTRATION ACCOUNTS

47. Executors and administrators may voluntarily exhibit an inventory of the property of the deceased and render an account of their executorship or administration, or they may be called upon to do so on the application of any person interested in the estate by order of the judge, and the practice in contentious cases shall apply, as far as necessary, to such an application.

48. The inventory and accounts shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and thereupon the judge shall, on application to him in chambers, fix a time and place for an audit, and give directions as to the persons to be served with notice thereof.

49. The audit shall be before the judge in chambers, and in the conduct of the same the rules of practice and procedure which govern in the offices of the local masters of the Court of King's Bench, under an order of reference, so far as such rules can be made to apply, shall be adopted, and the scale of fees shall be the same.

DEPOSIT OF WILLS IN CLERK'S OFFICE

50. A will deposited for safe-keeping in the office of the clerk of a Surrogate Court, shall not during the lifetime of the testator be removed therefrom or copied or inspected, except by the testator in person, unless a written order from the judge is first obtained and filed.

CONTENTIOUS BUSINESS

51. All proceedings in the Surrogate Courts, in respect of business not included under the expression "common form business," as defined in section 2 (d) of the Act, shall be deemed to be contentious business. The expression shall be taken to apply to every case where there are conflicting claims as to the right to obtain or retain a grant, and where proceedings in respect of such claims are taken by one party against another.

52. All contentious matters shall be begun by way of summons or notice of motion before the judge in chambers. On the return of the summons or notice the judge may hear the matter in a summary way on the affidavits filed, or on circa voce testimony, or he may direct an issue to be tried before a judge of any county court in Manitoba, either with or without a jury, for the purpose of ascertaining any facts in dispute. Upon the order directing the issue being filed in the county court the issue shall proceed to trial as if it were an ordinary cause in the said court.

53. Upon such summary hearing, or upon the trial of the issue, as the case may be, the judge may make an order disposing of the matter involved, and may make such order as to costs as he may deem proper, and such order shall be a final disposition of the matter, subject only to appeal under section 98 of the Act.

54. Any order providing for the payment of costs may be filed by the party to whom the costs are payable in any county court in Manitoba, and thereupon the same proceedings may be taken upon it for the recovery of such costs as may be taken upon a judgment in the said county court.

55. Any party to contentious proceedings may be ordered to give security in such an amount as the judge may order for the other party's costs, where he is a person who would be compellable to give security for costs if he were a party to an action in the Court of King's Bench. In every such case the King's Bench procedure for obtaining and enforcing the security shall be followed as nearly as may be.

PROOFS OF WILL IN SOLEMN FORM

56. When a will is voluntarily propounded for proof in solemn form the judge shall, after examining the petition and proofs, fix a time and place for taking evidence in support of the will and grant a summons to see proceedings at such time and place. This summons is to be served upon all persons having or claiming to have an interest in the question of the validity of the will.

57. At the time and place fixed, the person propounding the will shall produce for examination one or more of the witnesses to the will, and may give such further evidence of the validity as he may desire.

58. When any of the persons summoned attends and takes part, the proceedings, if they go beyond the cross-examination of the witnesses to the will, shall be continued and disposed of as provided for in rules 52 and 53.

59. The same method of notifying parties and proving the will shall, as nearly as may be, be followed in a case where an executor is put upon proof of a will in solemn form, by compulsion.

60. A person who files a caveat, merely to insure a will being proved in solemn form, shall state in the caveat that he only desires to cross-examine the witnesses produced in support of the will, and he shall thereupon be at liberty to do so, but shall be subject to liability in respect of costs in the discretion of the judge.

APPEALS

61. A person intending to appeal under section 98 of the Act shall within the time limited in the said section:

(1) Give security to the respondent, by paying $160 into the Surrogate Court from which the appeal is being taken, or by filing with the clerk a bond in $200, with a surety or sureties to the satisfaction of the clerk, conditioned to effectually prosecute the appeal and to pay such costs, charges and expenses as shall be awarded against him;

(2) File with the clerk an affidavit showing that the values of the lands, goods, chattels, rights and credits, to be affected by the order, sentence, judgment, decree or determination being appealed from, exceeds $300;

(3) Enter the appeal in the office of the prothonotary of the Court of King's Bench, and give notice thereof to the respondent, showing clearly the grounds on which he is appealing.

62. When the preceding rule has been complied with, the appeal shall be held to be duly lodged, and the appellant shall be entitled to obtain an order staying proceedings in the Surrogate Court.

63. Subject to said section 98 and the foregoing rules, the procedure in relation to the entering of the appeal, and the hearing and disposing of the same, shall follow as closely as possible the procedure prescribed in the County Courts Act in respect of an appeal from the decision of a county court judge.

64. Upon it appearing that the appeal has been duly lodged the clerk of the Surrogate Court shall, upon the request of the appellant and at his expense, transmit to the prothonotary all documents and evidence (or a copy of the evidence) connected with the appeal on file or deposited in his office, and also the judgment or decision being appealed from, or a copy thereof.

FORMS

65. The subjoined forms are to be adopted and followed in the several Surrogate Courts as nearly as the circumstances of each case will allow.

66. Printed forms, intended for use in ordinary cases, are not to be used when, on account of special circumstances, excessive interlineations or erasures would require to be resorted to.

SASKATCHEWAN

RULES AS TO PROCEDURE AND PRACTICE IN THE SURROGATE COURTS, AND IN RELATION TO MATTERS TESTA-MENTARY, AND LETTERS OF ADMIN-ISTRATION TO THE EFFECTS OF DECEASED PERSONS

1. Noncontentious business shall include all common form business as defined by the Surrogate Courts Act, and the warning of caveats.

2. Application for probate or administration may be made by a solicitor or in person.

3. Every application to a Surrogate Court for grant of probate or administration shall be by petition prepared, signed and presented by the applicant or his solicitor.

Such petition shall in every case show the value of the whole property of the deceased, and also the separate value of the personal and real estate, with full particulars, and an appraisement of all said property shall be exhibited with such application and shall be verified upon oath.

4. Upon every application for grant of administration, it shall be shown that search for will or testamentary paper has been made in all places where the deceased usually kept his papers, and in his depositories. The affidavit should be made by the applicant, but the proof may, with the judge's consent, be made otherwise. It shall also be shown that search has been made in the office of the clerk of the proper Surrogate Court, and the certificate of such clerk shall be sufficient proof of such search having been made.

The proofs to lead grant may be embodied in one affidavit.

7. The petition, and some one of the affidavits leading to the grant, must establish that no person has a prior right to the petitioner to the grant.

8. The usual oath of administration is to be reduced to writing, and to be subscribed and sworn to by the executors, or administrators, as an affidavit.

9. Every will or copy of a will, to which an executor or administrator with the will annexed is sworn, should be marked by such executor or administrator, and by the person before whom he is sworn.

10. A living person may deposit his will, or any codicil thereto, for safe keeping in the office of the clerk for the judicial district in which he is domiciled. Such will or codicil shall be inclosed in an envelope and sealed, and shall be indorsed: "Last Will and Testament of (naming the testator)," or "Codicil to the last Will and Testament of (naming the testator)," and shall be signed by the testator.

11. The clerk shall number each such envelope consecutively, in the order in which it is presented, and he shall keep a book in which he shall enter, alphabetically, the names of such persons so depositing a will or codicil, the number of the envelope, and the date of the deposit.

12. A will or codicil, deposited for safe keeping in the office of the clerk of the Surrogate Court, shall not be removed therefrom, except by the testator in person, unless an order of the judge permitting such removal shall have been first obtained.

13. The party entering a caveat must declare therein the nature of his interest in the property of the deceased, and state generally the grounds upon which he enters such caveat; and the same shall be signed by the party, or by his solicitor on his behalf, and the proper place mentioned as the address of the party, or of his solicitor, entering the caveat; and no caveat shall have any force or effect, unless the requirements of this rule be in substance complied with.

14. A caveat shall remain in force for the space of three months only, and then expire and be of no effect; but caveats may, subject to the judge's orders, be renewed from time to time.

15. In order to clear off a caveat when no appearance has been entered to a warning duly served, an affidavit of the service of the warning, stating the manner of service, and an affidavit of search for appearance and of non-appearance must be filed.

16. No caveat shall affect any grant made on the day on which the caveat is entered, unless notice of such caveat has been received prior to the grant being sealed.

17. A caveator shall be warned at the place mentioned in it as the address of the person who entered it, or of his solicitor.

18. It shall be sufficient for the warning of a caveat that the clerk of the court, in which application for grant is made, send by post, prepaid and registered, a warning signed by himself bearing the seal of the court, and directed to the person who entered it, or to his solicitor at the address mentioned in it.

19. Any person intending to oppose a grant of probate or administration, for which application has been made to a Surrogate Court, must within ten days after service appear, either personally or by a solicitor, and enter an appearance in such court, in which appearance the address of the party, or of his solicitor, shall be given. This rule is to apply whether the person intending to oppose the grant has, or has not, been previously warned of a caveat, or served with a citation or summons.

20. When a party intending to oppose a grant has filed an appearance with a clerk, no further steps in respect to such grant shall be taken, except under the special direction of the judge.

21. Citations, summonses or notices issued in the exercise of probate jurisdiction may, in the discretion of the judge, instead of being directed to any person or persons by name be directed generally to the next-of-kin, creditors and other persons interested in the estate. C.O. 21, r. 593.

22. All citations, summonses or notices issued in the exercise of probate jurisdiction may, by order of the judge, be published in such newspaper or newspapers published in the province as he may direct, and for such times as he may direct; and in that case no other notice or service thereof shall be necessary, unless the judge shall otherwise direct. C.O. 21, r. 594.

23. Unless otherwise ordered, where an executor or administrator has caused to be published for six successive weeks, in the newspaper nearest the last domicile of the testator or intestate, a notice requiring creditors and others to send in to such executor or administrator claims against the estate together with a statement of the securities (if any) held by them within a time to be mentioned in the notice, which shall not be less than five days from the last publication of such notice, such executor or administrator may, at the expiration of the time so fixed, be at liberty to distribute the assets of the testator or intestate, or any part thereof, amongst the parties entitled thereto having regard to the claims of which such executor or administrator has then notice, and shall not be liable for the assets or any part thereof, as the case may be, so distributed, to any person of whose claim such executor, or administrator, shall not have had notice at the time of the distribution of the said assets or any part thereof, as the case may be; but nothing in this rule shall prejudice the right of any creditor or claimant to follow the assets, or any part thereof, into the hands of the person or persons who may have received the same respectively. C.O. 21, r. 595.

24. Every creditor, or other person, presenting or sending in a claim to any executor or administrator, shall verify the same by a statutory declaration, and shall therein state whether he holds any security for his claim, or any part thereof, and shall give full particulars of the same; and if such security is on the estate of the debtor, or on the estate of a third party, for whom such debtor is only secondarily liable, he shall put a specified value thereon, and the executor or administrator may either consent to the right of the creditor or person presenting the claim to rank for the claim, after deducting such valuation, or he may require from the person presenting the claim an assignment of the security at the specified value to be paid out of the estate when sufficient is realized therefrom, and in such case, the difference between the value at which the security is retained by the executor or administrator, and the just amount of the gross claim, shall be the amount for which the creditor or other person shall rank in respect of the estate.

If a creditor or other person holds a claim, based upon negotiable instruments upon which the debtor is only indirectly or secondarily liable, and which is not mature or exigible, such creditor or other person shall be considered to hold security within the meaning of this rule, and shall put a value on the liability of the party primarily liable thereon, as being his security for the payment thereof; but, after the maturity of such liability and its non-payment, he shall be entitled to amend and revalue his claim.

In case a person presenting a claim holds security for his claim, or any part thereof, and he fails to value such security as required by this rule the judge may, on application by the executor or administrator, of which application three days' notice shall be given to such claimant, order that unless a specified value shall be placed upon such security, and notified in writing to the executor or administrator within a time to be limited by the order, such claimant shall in respect of the claim, or the part thereof for which the security is held, be wholly barred of any right to share in the proceeds of such estate; and if a specified value is not placed on such security, and notified in writing to the executor or administrator according to the exigency of such order, the said claim or the said part, as the case may be, shall be wholly barred as against such estate. C.O. 21, r. 596.

25. Every executor or administrator shall, within two years after the grant of letters of administration or probate, or such further time as the judge may allow, file in the office of the clerk of the court for the district wherein the grant was made, a statement and an account verified by his oath showing his administration of the estate, and apply to the judge to have his accounts passed and allowed whereupon a summons may be issued calling upon the creditors, next-of-kin, and all persons interested in the estate to attend the passing of the accounts.

26. The bond to be given upon any grant of administration shall be in Form 17 with such variations as circumstances may require. The sureties in such bond are required in all cases to justify; and such justification shall be to an amount or amounts which, in the aggregate, shall equal the amount of the penalty of the bond. No clerk or surrogate registrar or solicitor shall become surety to any administration bond.

27. In ordinary cases, where property is bona fide under the value of two hundred dollars, one surety only may be taken to the administration bond.

28. Whenever any renunciation is filed subsequent to notice of application to the registrar, or any alteration is subsequently made in the grant, notice of such renunciation or alteration is to be immediately forwarded by the clerk of the court to the registrar.

29. The rules promulgated by the judges of the Supreme Court, with respect to affidavits to be used in that court, mutatis mutandis, apply to affidavits to be used in the Surrogate Court.

SURROGATE CLERKS

30. Every clerk of a Surrogate Court shall keep his office open, on such days and during such hours as the office of the clerk of the district court is required to be kept open.

31. Every clerk of the Surrogate Court shall keep books. He shall keep such books duly indexed from time to time, and shall also keep an index of the names of testators or intestates, and of executors and administrators, which shall be arranged alphabetically. The noncontentious business book shall contain columns for the entry of the sworn value of the personal property, and of the real property.

32. Every clerk shall duly indorse and file all papers received by him, and enter a note thereof, and of every proceeding in the court, in the books to be kept for that purpose.

33. The clerk shall properly number and indorse the date of receipt of all applications for the grant of probate or administration received by him in the order in which they are received, and an entry thereof shall be made in the book to be kept for that purpose, with a number prefixed to correspond with the number on the application.

34. Notices of applications to be transmitted to the Surrogate Registrar, under the 44th section of the Act, are to contain the Christian and surname, residence and addition of applicant, nature of application, and court in which made.

35. All papers and communications from clerks to the Surrogate Registrar shall be transmitted through the post office, the letter or packet to be registered and prepaid.

36. Every clerk upon receipt of a certificate from the Surrogate Registrar touching an application made to the court of which he is clerk, shall forthwith enter a note thereof in the book to be kept for that purpose; and shall, as soon as may be thereafter, lay such application, and all papers in relation to the same, before the judge, for his order and direction thereon.

37. Every order made by the judge upon, or in reference to, any application, shall be noted by the clerk in the books to be kept for that purpose.

38. When the judge makes an order for the grant of probate or administration, the clerk shall record such grant in the "register book," and in case of the grant of probate or letters of administration with the will annexed, an exact copy of the will, and codicil (if any) to which such probate or administration relates, shall be underwritten. If a grant be afterwards revoked, a note of such revocation shall be entered across the record of grant in the register book.

39. All probates and letters of administration shall be signed by the clerk, and sealed with the seal of the court from which they are issued, and a copy of the will and codicil (if any) annexed to a probate, or to letters of administration, shall be authenticated by the signature of the clerk.

40. The list of grants of probates and administration, and of revocation thereof, required under the 15th section of the Act to be sent by clerks to the Surrogate Registrar, are to contain, in each case, the Christian name and surname, residence and aition of the deceased, the time of his death, date of the grant, name, residence and addition of executor or administrator, nature of grant, and in what Surrogate Court.

41. Every clerk of a Surrogate Court shall number, indorse and enter all caveats lodged with him, in the same manner as provided in respect to applications for grants; and notice thereof shall be sent to the Surrogate Registrar by the next post after such caveat has been lodged.

APPEALS

42. Appeals under the 36th section of the Act shall be subject to the following regulations:

1. An affidavit shall be made by the appellant, his solicitor or agent, that the property, goods, chattels, rights and credits to be affected by the order (or decree, as the case may be) appealed against are over the value of two hundred dollars.

2. A notice of such appeal containing the grounds of appeal (which shall be specifically set out) shall be served by the appellant on the opposite party, his solicitor or agent, and filed with the clerk of the Surrogate Court, together with an affidavit of due service thereof, and also with the affidavit mentioned in the next preceding clause.

3. If such affidavits and notice be so filed within fifteen days next after the order, sentence, judgment, decree or determination appealed against, the appeal shall be held to be duly lodged.

43. When an appeal is so lodged, the judge of the Surrogate Court shall, upon the application of the appellant, order all proceedings in the matter to be stayed; and shall also, upon like application of the appellant, order the clerk of the court forthwith to transmit (at the expense of the appellant) to the local registrar of the Supreme Court at Regina the documents, instruments, affidavits and papers in the matter appealed, deposited or filed in such Surrogate Court, together with the judgment or decision of the judge.

44. The appellant shall, within ten days after the material mentioned in the next preceding rule has been filed or deposited with the local registrar, apply to the judge of the Supreme Court in chambers to fix a time and place for the hearing of such appeal, and a copy of the appointment shall be served upon the opposite party or his solicitor.

45. In the event of the application mentioned in the last preceding rule not being made to the judge as therein provided, the appeal shall stand dismissed, and the order, sentence, judgment, decree or determination appealed against shall stand affirmed.

REMOVAL OF CAUSES

46. When a cause or proceeding is removed into the Supreme Court, under the 33rd and 34th sections of the Act, the judge of the Surrogate Court shall, upon the application of the party who has obtained the order for removal, in like manner as mentioned in rule 43, direct the papers in the matter to be transmitted to the Surrogate Registrar.

47. The Surrogate Registrar, upon receiving such papers, shall forthwith apply for directions to the judge of the Supreme Court sitting in chambers, who shall give such directions respecting the office of the Supreme Court, to which the Surrogate Registrar shall transmit such papers as he may consider advisable under the circumstances of the case.

THE SURROGATE REGISTRAR

55. In the construction of these rules, the provisions contained in the second section of the Act shall apply.

CONTENTIOUS BUSINESS

56. A proceeding shall be adjudged contentious when an appearance has been entered by any person in opposition to the party proceeding, or when a citation or judge's order has been obtained against a party supposed to be interested in a proceeding, or when an application for grant is made on motion and the right to such grant is opposed, or when application is made to revoke a grant, or when there is a contention as to the right to obtain probate or administration, and before contest terminated.

57. The practice as to appearance shall, in so far as shall be practicable, be that prescribed by the consolidated rules of practice of the Supreme Court of Saskatchewan.

58. In contentious proceedings the practice and procedure shall, as nearly as may be, correspond with the practice and procedure in the Supreme Court after appearance entered.

62. If any defendant make default in filing and delivering a defence, the action may proceed notwithstanding such default; or the plaintiff may obtain a summons, calling upon the defendant to show cause why grant should not be made without further proceedings.

64. The forms subjoined to these rules, and numbered 35 to 39 respectively, are given as examples of statements of claim and of defence respectively.

(1 and 2 Edw. 7, Ch. 2, Sec. 42)

Note—The Assignment Acts of Alberta and Saskatchewan, Stats. Alberta, 1907, ch. 6, and R.S.S., 1909, ch. 142, contain similar provisions to those underwritten and taken from the Manitoba Act.

This Act covers the law as to assignments and preferences re insolvent persons in the Province of Manitoba.

Section 6.—Every assignment made under this Act, for the general benefit of creditors, shall be valid and sufficient if it is in the words following, that is to say: "All my personal property, and all my real estate, credits and effects which may be seized and sold under execution," or if it is in words to the like effect.

Section 7.—Every assignment hereafter executed, whether so expressed or not, shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act. Assignments take precedence of judgments and executions, and the Sheriff or Bailiff shall deliver to the assignee all the estate and effects of the debtor seized under execution.

Section 11.—A notice of the assignment shall, as soon as conveniently possible, be published at least once in the "Manitoba Gazette," and not less than twice in at least one newspaper having a general circulation in the Judicial District in which the property is situated.

Section 12.—A counterpart or copy of every such assignment shall also, within ten days from the execution thereof, be registered in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of the Judicial Division where the assignor (if a resident in Manitoba) resides at the time of the execution thereof, and if he is not a resident, then in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of the Judicial Division where the personal property is, or where the principal part thereof is at the time of the execution of such assignment. (Subject to penalties as provided for by act for neglecting publication or registration.)

(Note Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts provide for registration of counterpart in the proper Land Titles Office within 15 days from date of execution.)

Section 18.—Provides that the assignee shall, within five days from the date of the assignment, convene a meeting of the creditors for appointment of inspectors and the giving of directions with reference to the disposal of the estate, by mailing prepaid and registered, to every creditor known to him, a circular calling a meeting of creditors to be held in his office, and he shall also publish such notice by advertisement in the "Manitoba Gazette" in the first issue after the expiration of said period of five days.

Section 19.—The majority of the creditors may serve notice on assignee to call a meeting of the creditors and the assignee shall, within two days after receiving such notice, call a meeting of the creditors at a time not later than twelve days after the receipt of such notice.

The Manitoba Trustee Act (R.S.M. 1902, ch. 170, sec. 41), provides for distribution of trust estates after notice. At the expiration of the time named in said notice, unless creditors have filed claims, the assignee shall be at liberty to distribute the proceeds of the trust estate or any part thereof, amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims which said trustee or assignee has then received notice of, and shall not be liable for the proceeds of the trust estate or assets, as the case may be, or any part thereof so distributed, to any person of whose claims such trustee or assignee had no notice at the time of the distribution thereof.

NOTE RE ASSIGNMENTS FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

These are dealt with by the Creditors Trust Deeds Act, R.S.B.C., ch. 13.

An assignment under the Act means any assignment of property by a debtor for the benefit of his creditors generally, and not made under the authority of any Dominion Act respecting bankruptcy or insolvency.

Every assignment under the Act is valid if its construction and effect accord with its express purpose, and cannot be set aside on any ground except actual fraud. (Sec. 3.)

The property intended to be conveyed should be thus described: "All my real and personal property, credits and effects which may be seized or sold or attached under execution or the Execution Act or attachment" or similar words. An assignment so expressed vests in the assignee everything belonging to the assignor at the time of assignment, except such property and rights as are by law exempt from seizure or sale under execution or judgment, subject as regards lands, to the provisions of the Land Registry Act. (Sec. 4.)

Mistakes in assignments may be amended on application to a judge of the Supreme Court. (Sec. 6.)

Notice of the assignment must be published (under penalty) by the assignee in the Gazette and one local newspaper. (Sec. 7.)

And a counterpart of the assignment registered within twenty-one days in the County Court Registry in which a bill of sale of the assigned property would be registered. (Sec. 8.)

Omission to publish or register or any irregularity in publication or registration does not, however, invalidate the assignment. (Secs. 9-13.)

An assignment may be registered in any land registry office and thereupon takes precedence of all certificates of judgment and executions and attachments against land within the district of the office, subject to a lien for costs of judgment creditors.

Every assignment takes precedence of judgments and executions against goods and attachments of debts, subject to a lien for costs of the execution creditors. (Sec. 14.)

The assignee must immediately ascertain the names and residences of the creditors and within five days after delivery of the assignment to him convene a meeting of creditors for directions as to the disposal of the estate. The meeting must be held not later than fourteen days after mailing notice. Notice of this meeting is also made by advertisement in the Gazette, but all further meetings are called by circular only. Creditors may vote at meetings in person or by proxy, but no creditor whose vote is disputed can vote until he has filed proof of his claim with the assignee. (Secs. 15-16.)

Every claimant must furnish proof of his claim and vouchers if necessary. A simple form of affidavit will be found on page 1195 hereof. (Secs. 17-18.)

The law of set-off applies to all claims and suits instituted by the assignee, subject to the provisions of any Act respecting fraud or fraudulent preference. No set-off, however, is allowed of any claim against the estate acquired after the date of assignment. (Sec. 19.)

Where an assignor owes a debt individually and also as a partner, claims rank first upon that estate with respect to which the debt was contracted, and only rank upon the other estate after all the creditors of that estate have been paid in full. (Sec. 20.)

All subjects discussed at meetings of creditors are decided by a majority of votes. Voting power depends on the amount of the claim. (Secs. 21-22.)

At any meeting of creditors a majority in votes may require the assignee to transfer the estate to some other assignee, and the original assignee must forthwith deliver over the property and execute all necessary documents to vest the estate in such person, who thereupon becomes the assignee. The original assignee is entitled to remuneration as provided by the Act. A copy of the resolution signed by the chairman and verified by affidavit may be registered in the land registry office and thereupon all the real estate situate in that district belonging to the assignor is vested in the new assignee. The resolution so verified may also be registered in any office where the assignment was registered, and has the effect of vesting all personal property in the district in the new assignee. The resolution requires to be published in one issue of the Gazette as soon as convenient. (Secs. 23-26.)

An assignee may be removed on petition to a judge of the Supreme Court and another appointed. (Secs. 27-28.)

Every creditor in his proof of claim must state whether he holds any security, and must put a value thereon (if any). The assignee may contest any claim by giving notice to the claimant. (Sec. 31.)

A request in writing signed by a majority of the creditors having claims proved and admitted of $50.00 and upwards may be made to the assignee to call a meeting of creditors, which meeting must be called within twenty-one days after receiving such request for a day not later than fourteen days thereafter. (Sec. 32.)

The permanent assignee's remuneration may be voted by the creditors at their first meeting or at the meeting at which he is appointed, subject to an appeal to the district registrar of the Supreme Court. If the remuneration is not so voted, it is settled by the registrar on notice to the inspectors (if any). An appeal lies from the decision of the registrar by the assignee or inspectors or any creditor to a judge of the Supreme Court. The remuneration is in the nature of a commission or percentage of which one part is payable on the amount realized and the other part on the amount distributed in dividends. The assignee is barred under any circumstances whatever from arranging for or accepting any gift, remuneration, or benefit whatever beyond the remuneration payable out of the estate, nor can he make any arrangements for sharing his remuneration with anyone employed about an assignment. (Sec. 33.)

At any meeting the creditors may appoint one or more of their number, not exceeding three, as inspectors to superintend the management and winding up of the estate; such appointment may be revoked, or recalled and thereupon, or in the case of death, resignation or absence from the province of any inspector, the creditors may appoint another in his stead. Inspectors act by a majority if more than one, and are not entitled to any remuneration. (Sec. 34.)

The provisions of the Trustee Act relating to payment of debts and claims, accepting compositions or security for debts, time for payment, submission to arbitration, distribution of assets, a right to appeal to a Supreme Court judge for opinion and advice shall apply to an assignee under the Act, provided the assignee obtains the approval of creditors before acting. (Sec. 35.)

Wages and salaries of employees of the assignor at the time of making the assignment or within one month previous thereto are payable in full up to the limit of three months' wages or salary. The employees rank as ordinary creditors for the residue, if any, of their claims. (Secs. 36-37.)

Moneys received by the assignee must be paid forthwith into a chartered bank, named by the creditors to the credit of a special account for the estate. The bank book must be produced at every meeting of creditors, and shall always be open to the inspectors or to any of the creditors. The assignee must not in any case pay any money received by him on account of the estate into his private bank account. (Sec. 39.)

Payments made by the assignor on account of any pre-existing debt within ten days before execution of the assignment shall be void and the amount paid may be recovered back, but if any valuable security be given up in consideration of a payment, it or its value must be returned or credited to the creditors. This section does not apply to payments for wages up to three months, or rent, taxes or water rates, which are a lien on the property of the assignor. (Sec. 40.)

The assignee must be a permanent bona fide resident of British Columbia and any deputy or delegate of his must have the same qualifications. (Sec. 42.)

Upon the expiration of one month from the date of assignment and at intervals of not more than three months, the assignee shall prepare and keep constantly accessible to the creditors, accounts and statements of his doings as assignee and of the position of the estate. (Sec. 44.)

The assignee declares and pays dividends of ten per cent. from time to time whenever there is sufficient money in his hands to do so. A dividend sheet must be prepared showing claims allowed, objected to, abstracts and receipts of disbursements and is certified by the assignee and inspectors. (Sec. 45.)

An assignee cannot pay a dividend of less than ten per cent. except in the case of a first and final dividend. (Sec. 46.)

The assignor must give all information about his estate and aid the assignee and inspectors to the utmost of his power. He may with consent of his creditors be allowed compensation for his services in connection with the winding up. If he retains any portion of his estate or any documents he is liable to imprisonment. He may be examined upon oath and may be committed for neglect or refusal to appear or be sworn. Other parties may also be examined on oath when necessary in order that all property belonging to the assignor may be recovered. (Secs. 47-50.)

An assignor about to abscond or who is about to remove or conceal or destroy his goods or who fails to attend any examination may be arrested and his goods and papers seized. (Sec. 51.)

The assignee generally has the exclusive right to sue for rescission of agreements in fraud of creditors. (Sec. 52.)

Creditors may obtain authority to sue from the court. (Sec. 53.)

And may at any meeting direct the assignee how to dispose of the estate, in default of which and subject to the directions of the inspectors he may dispose of it as seems most advantageous in the interest of the estate. (Sec. 54.)

If the assignor is a tenant of property, the assignee may, notwithstanding any provision for determination of the tenancy on bankruptcy, hold the property on the same terms, for three months from the date of assignment or until the expiration of the tenancy, whichever shall first happen. If the lease is not determined by bankruptcy or insolvency the assignee may give notice to determine at the end of three months. The lessor may in such case claim against the estate for damages. He shall also have a preferred claim for six months' arrears of rent together with all costs of distraint properly made before the date of assignment and for all rent while the premises are held by the assignee. (Sec. 55.)

Important provisions are also contained in the Act regarding disclaimer by the assignee of liability for stocks, shares, unprofitable contracts, etc. (Sec. 56.)

Any balance remaining after payment of all claims, etc., is to be paid to the assignor. (Sec. 58.)

Provisions are also contained in the Act for the discharge of the assignee by the court, procedure at creditors' meetings, voting, reference to the court for directions, security by the assignee, etc., etc. (Secs. 59-71.)

Under this heading should also be mentioned the Fraudulent Conveyancing Act and the Fraudulent Preferences Act.

Under the former act all fraudulent conveyances of lands or chattels made to delay and hinder or defraud creditors and others are made void, provided that the act shall not extend to any bona fide conveyances of estates or interests made for good consideration.

Under the latter act, which was passed to prevent fraudulent assignments by debtors for the purpose of defeating or preferring creditors, all gifts, conveyances, etc., made by insolvent persons for prejudicing or defeating creditors are made utterly void, as also are all gifts, transfers, etc., to any one creditor with the intention to give such creditor a preference over the others. The act does not apply, however, to assignments for the benefit of creditors made under the provisions of the Creditors' Trust Deeds Act, nor to bona fide transfers and assignments for value.

Even though the debtor making a preferential transfer or gift has not the intention of preferring a creditor, yet if the effect of the transaction is to give such creditor a preference, such transfer or gift shall:

- (a) In respect of any action brought within sixty days to impeach the transaction be void as against any creditors injured.
- (b) If the debtor within sixty days makes an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, be void as against the assignee or any creditor authorized to take proceedings to avoid same.

The Act does not affect claims for wages under the Creditors' Trust Deeds Act, nor does it invalidate the security given to the creditor for a pre-existing debt, where (by reason of the giving of such security) an advance in money is made by the creditor in bona fide belief that such advance will enable the debtor to continue his trade or business and pay his debts in full.

In order to set aside any disposition of land declared to be void by the Act, it shall not be necessary to institute an action, but application may be made to the Supreme Court or a local judge thereof calling upon the judgment debtor and the person to whom the conveyance was made to show cause why the said lands should not be sold to realize the amount payable under the judgment or any such conveyance not be set aside. (Sec. 7.)

On any application as aforesaid the applicant may obtain the issue of a certificate of lis pendens for registration. (Sec. 9.)

Note.—Naturalized British subjects should bear in mind that their naturalization has no effect within the limits of the foreign state to which they originally belonged, unless they have ceased to be subjects of that state, in the manner prescribed by the laws thereof, or in pursuance of a treaty or convention to that effect.

DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS

1. Applications for passports should be made in writing and enclosed in a cover addressed to "The Honorable the Secretary of State for External Affairs, Ottawa."
2. The charge for a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is two dollars. The fee payable must accompany the application. Postage stamps will not be received as payment.
3. Passports are granted only to British born subjects or to persons naturalized in the Dominion of Canada. A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the state of which her husband is for the time being a subject.
4. Passports are not valid after five years from the date of issue. Fresh passports must then be obtained. When the party is a naturalized British subject he will be so designated in his passport.
5. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the production of a declaration by the applicant, a blank form of which may be obtained at this Department, verified by a declaration made by any banking firm or by any mayor, magistrate, justice of the peace, minister of religion, physician, surgeon, solicitor, or notary resident in the Dominion of Canada. In certain cases, the applicant's certificate of birth must be produced in addition to the declaration.

6. If the applicant for a passport be a naturalized British subject, his certificate of naturalization must be forwarded to the Department of External Affairs with the declaration; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the passport to the person who has communicated with this Department in the applicant's behalf for delivery to the latter. A statutory declaration to the effect that the proposed visit abroad is of a temporary character—giving the probable duration of same—and that the applicant intends to return to Canada and reside here permanently, must accompany the application for a passport.

7. A passport cannot be issued by the Department of External Affairs on behalf of a person already abroad; such person should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate.

8. Travelers who may have any intention of visiting the Russian Empire, the Turkish Dominions, the Kingdom of Roumania, Persia, Colombia, Venezuela, Hayti, or Eritrea, at any time in the course of their travels, must first have their passports visés at the nearest Russian, Turkish, Roumanian, Persian, Colombian, Venezuelan, Haytian, or Italian Consulate as the case may be. For the information of travelers proceeding to any of these countries via Great Britain, it may be stated that the addresses in London of these consulates are respectively as follows:—The Russian Consulate-General, Windsor Chambers, 20 Great St. Helen's, E.C.; the Consulate-General of the Sublime Porte, 7 Union Court, Old Broad Street, E.C.; the Roumanian Consulate-General, 49 Parliament Street, S.W.; the Persian Consulate-General, 82 Victoria Street, S.W.; the Colombian Consulate-General, Friars House, New Broad Street, E.C.; the Venezuelan Consulate, Finsbury Pavement House, Finsbury Pavement, E.C.; the Haytian Consulate, 32 Fenchurch Street, E.C.; the Italian Consulate-General (for Eritrea) 44 Finsbury Square, E.C. Passports may also be visés at any of the other Consulates of Russia, Turkey, Roumania, Persia, Columbia, Venezuela, Hayti, or Italy in the United Kingdom. Travelers about to proceed to any other country need not obtain the visa of the Diplomatic or Consular Agents of such country.

N.B.—Although travelers are now free to enter most foreign countries without passports, colonial British subjects travelling abroad are recommended not to omit to provide themselves with passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligatory, they are found to be useful as affording a ready means of identification in case of need. British subjects intending to reside in Germany or Switzerland should provide themselves with passports.

JOSEPH POPE,

Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs.

Ottawa, 15th April, 1911.

THE MECHANICS' AND WAGE EARNERS' LIEN ACT

(R.S.M. 1902, ch. 110)

Section 3.—No agreement shall be held to deprive anyone otherwise entitled to a lien under this Act and not a party to the agreement of the benefit of the lien, but the lien shall attach, notwithstanding such agreement.

Section 4.—Unless he signs an express agreement to the contrary, any person who performs any work or services upon or in respect of, or places or furnishes any materials to be used in connection with any building, etc., for any owner, contractor or sub-contractor, shall, by virtue thereof have a lien for the price of such work, services or materials upon the said buildings and appurtenances thereto, and the lands occupied thereby or enjoyed therewith, provided that no lien shall exist under this Act for any claim under the sum of twenty dollars. Where the estate charged is leasehold, to charge the fee simple the consent of the owner must be obtained. In case the land upon, or in respect of which the work is done or materials or machinery placed, be incumbered by a mortgage created before the commencement of the work or the placing of the materials upon the land, such mortgage or other charge shall have priority over a lien under this Act, to the extent of the actual value of such land at time the improvements were commenced. Section 12.—The owner is required by the Act to retain twenty per cent. of the contract price for the protection of lien-holders. Section 12 gives wage earners a preference claim on the twenty per cent. retained to the extent of thirty days' wages. Every lien must be registered in the Land Titles Office for the district in which the land is situate, within thirty days from the date the last work was done or materials supplied. Further, to preserve a lien the lien-holder must commence an action for recovery of his claim, against the owner, and file a lis pendens in connection therewith in the Land Titles Office within ninety days from the date of the last work, or sixty days from the date of registration of the lien.

Mechanics' Lien actions for sums up to and not exceeding five hundred dollars come within the jurisdiction of the County Courts of the Province of Manitoba. Claims of lien for over five hundred dollars must be prosecuted in the Court of King's Bench.

In cases where a registered lien has lapsed, by virtue of an action to enforce same not having been begun within ninety days from completion of work, the District Registrar will remove the lien from the title, upon a written request of the owner or his agent, and payment of a fee of one dollar.

MECHANICS' LIEN ACT

(R.S.S. 1909, ch. 150)

The provisions of the Saskatchewan Act are similar to those of the Manitoba Act. The Manitoba forms of lien and supporting affidavits are also the same, and may be used, substituting The Mechanics' Lien Act for The Mechanics' and Wage Earners' Lien Act.

Section 24.—Gives the Registrar power upon the application of an owner, at any time after thirty days have expired after the date of filing of lien, to issue a notice for service upon the lien claimant, notifying him that his lien shall absolutely cease to exist unless an action to realize such claim of lien be instituted and a certificate of lis pendens be filed in the Land Titles Office within thirty days from the date of notice. The lien therefore does not lapse in Saskatchewan by expiration of time, until the owner has served notice as above indicated.

MECHANICS' LIEN ACT

(Statutes Alberta, 1906, ch. 21)

(Selected sections for use of Registrar)

13. Every lien upon such building, erection, mine works or improvements, or land, shall absolutely cease to exist after the expiration of thirty-one days, except in the case of a claim for wages owing for work in, at or about a mine, in which case the lien shall cease after the expiration of sixty days after the claimant has ceased from any cause to work thereon, or place or furnish the materials therefor (provided, however, that any laborer shall not be held to have ceased work upon any erection, building, mine, works or improvements until the completion of the same, if he has in the meantime been employed upon any other work by the same contractor) unless in the meantime the person claiming the lien shall file in the Land Titles Office of the Land Registration [District] in which the land is situate or in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of the Province in the Judicial District in which the land lies, an affidavit sworn before any person authorized to take oaths, stating in substance:

(a) The name and residence of the claimant, and of the owner of the property or interest to be charged;

(b) The particulars of the kind of works or improvements done, made or furnished;

(c) The time when the works or improvements were finished or discontinued;

(d) The sum claimed to be owing and when due;

(e) The description of the property to be charged; which affidavit shall be received and filed as a lien against the property, interest or estate. Every Registrar under the Land Titles Act, and every such clerk shall be supplied with printed forms of such affidavits in blank, which may be in the form or to the effect of Schedule A to this Act, and which shall be supplied to every person requesting the same and desiring to file a lien. Every such Registrar and clerk shall keep an alphabetical index of all claimants of liens, and the persons against whom such liens are claimed, which index shall be open for inspection during office hours, and it shall be the duty of such Registrar and clerk to decide whether his is or is not the proper office for the filing of such affidavits, and to direct the applicant accordingly; and no affidavit shall be adjudged insufficient on the ground that it was not filed in the proper registry office or clerk's office. The said claim of lien may be described as a Mechanic's Lien:

Provided, however, that no lien shall be filed unless the claim or joined claims shall amount to or aggregate $20, or more.

(2) Upon the filing of such affidavit in any such Land Titles Office the Registrar shall enter and register the claim as an incumbrance against the land or the estate or interest in the land therein described as provided in the Land Titles Act.

(3) Upon the filing of such affidavit in the office of any such clerk, the clerk shall forthwith transmit to the Registrar of the Land Registration District in which the land lies a certificate of the filing of such lien in his office, and specifying the particulars in the affidavit contained, and upon the receipt by the said Registrar of such certificate he shall enter and register the claim as an incumbrance against the land or the estate or interest in the land therein described as provided in the Land Titles Act.

14. A substantial compliance only with section 13 of this Act shall be required and no lien shall be invalidated by reason of failure to comply with any of the requisites thereof, unless in the opinion of the court or judge adjudicating upon the lien under this Act the owner, contractor, sub-contractor, mortgagee or other person is prejudiced thereby, and then only to the extent to which he is prejudiced, and the court or judge may allow the affidavit and statement of claim to be amended accordingly.

15. In the event of the death of a lien-holder his lien shall pass to his personal representatives, and the right of a lien-holder may be assigned by any instrument in writing subject to the limitations contained in section 17 hereof.

16. During the continuance of any lien no portion of the property affected thereby shall be removed to the prejudice of such lien and any attempt at such removal may be restrained on application to the court or judge.

EXPIRATION, CANCELLATION AND DISCHARGE

35. Every lien shall absolutely cease to exist after the expiration of thirty days after the filing of the affidavit mentioned in section 13 of this Act unless the claimant in the meantime shall have instituted proceedings to realize his lien under the provisions of this Act and a certificate thereof (which may be granted by the court in which or judge before whom the proceedings are instituted or by the clerk of such court) is duly filed in the Land Titles Office of the Land Registration District wherein the property in respect of which the lien is claimed is situated.

36. The Registrar of the Land Registration District shall, on receiving a certificate under the seal of the clerk of the court wherein any action in respect of any lien registered in the Land Titles Office within the jurisdiction of such Registrar is pending, stating the names of the lien-holders, parties to such action, and that the amount due by the owner in respect of such liens has been ascertained and paid into court in pursuance of an order of such court or judge or that the property has been sold to realize such liens or that such lien has been improperly filed or that such lien has otherwise ceased to exist or, on receiving a statement in writing signed by the claimant or his agent that the lien has been satisfied, cancel all liens registered by such parties.

DISCHARGE OF MECHANICS' LIEN

IN THE MATTER of the [Mechanics' and Wage Earners' Lien Act].

I, —, of the — of — in the Province of —, do hereby acknowledge to have received from — the sum of — dollars in full discharge of my mechanics' lien as a contractor [or sub-contractor, as the case may be] upon the following land and premises [description of land], which mechanics' lien bears date the — day of —, A.D. 191—, and was registered in the — Office for the — of — on the — day of —, A.D. 191—, at — minutes past — o'clock — noon, as number —.

Dated this — day of —, A.D. 191—.

MECHANICS' LIENS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

The Mechanic's Lien Act was passed for the benefit of contractors, sub-contractors, laborers and others who on the determination of their contracts are not paid the amounts due to them.

The application of the Act cannot be prevented by contract, except in the case of a manager, officer or foreman or any other person whose wages are more than $5 a day.

When work is done or material furnished to the property of a married woman with the consent of her husband the husband shall be deemed to act for himself and as her agent (sec. 4).

The lien attaches to the land, the buildings, and also the material provided for the work done (sec. 5).

It is important to keep in mind, however, that no lien for materials only shall attach unless a notice, as in Schedule A to the Act (page 1422 hereof) shall have been served on the owner or agent within ten days after delivery of such materials.

Sec. 9 provides that liens attaching to works or improvements on mortgaged premises shall be prior to the mortgage as against the increased value of the premises, but not further. In an action to enforce such a lien the judge may order the premises to be sold at an upset price equal to the selling value of the same immediately prior to the improvements, and any sum realized in excess of such price shall be subject to the lien.

Any lien-holder may, under section 13, apply to the owner of land for particulars of the work done or the material furnished in respect of which his lien attaches, and such owner is liable for any loss occurring to the lien-holder by reason of his omission to give proper particulars. Conversely by section 14 the owner may apply to the lien-holder for particulars and may recover damages for loss occasioned by reason of the lien-holder's omission to give proper particulars.

Formalities for the protection of the owner where the contract price for any work exceeds $500 are contained in section 15. It is thereby provided that the owner shall not be required to make any payments to any contractor or sub-contractor until some person in charge of the work posts up a copy of the receipted pay-roll from the hour of 12 noon to the hour of 1 p.m. on the first legal day after pay day and shall have delivered to the owner or some person on his behalf the names of all laborers with particulars of their work and wages and also full receipts for such wages. No payments made by the owner without the delivery of such documents as aforesaid shall be valid for the purpose of defeating any lien. Form of pay-roll will be found in schedule B to the Act. (See page 1423 hereof.)

No assignment by a contractor of any moneys due in respect of his contract shall be valid as against any liens, and no liens other than the contractor's shall be diminished by any set-off or counter-claim in favor of the owner against the contractor (sec. 16).

The mode of registering any lien is contained in secs. 19 to 22. It is thereby provided that all liens shall expire thirty-one days after the completion of any contract or the furnishing of any material unless there is registered in the nearest County Court Registry an affidavit in form C to the schedule of the Act (see page 1420 hereof) and a duplicate or certified copy of such affidavit filed in the District Land Registry Office.

Within thirty-one days after the filing of such affidavit the claimant must in order to keep his lien existing, institute proceedings for the realization of same in the County Court. The owner, however, may give his consent in writing in form D to the schedule of the Act (see page 1423 hereof) for the extension of such lien and thereupon the lien-holder is relieved from the obligation of instituting proceedings.

On the expiration by payment or otherwise of any lien application can be made to the County Court Registry for the cancellation of same, and thereupon, on satisfactory evidence of such expiration, the registrar shall issue a certificate of cancellation to the owner and to the District Land Registry Office. (Forms of application for a release and the registrar's certificate will be found on pages 1421 and 1422 hereof.)

Any lien-holder may assign his interest to a lien by an instrument in writing, and on the death of a lien-holder the benefit of his lien passes to his personal representative.

Sections 25 to 27 give the owner the right to apply to the County Court judge on summons for the cancellation of any lien on proof of particular hardship and inconvenience being caused by the existence thereof, and sections 28 to 30 provide for the consolidation of actions brought by lien-holders in respect of the same contract.

Applications for the enforcement of liens are made in a summary way before the County Court judge on a summons, and if any property sold in any such proceeding be a leasehold interest the purchaser of such shall be deemed to be an assignee of such lease.

An appeal from the decision of the County Court judge is allowed where the amount of any lien is $250 or more (sec. 35).

All moneys realized by any proceedings for the enforcement of a lien shall be applied as follows:

- (1) The costs of all lien-holders;
- (2) Six weeks' wages of all laborers;
- (3) The amount owing for services rendered and work done in excess of six weeks' wages and materials placed or furnished in respect of the work or improvements;

(4) The amounts owing to sub-contractors or other persons employed by the owner and the contractor;

(5) Amount owing to the contractor;

(6) Balance to the owner or the person entitled thereto.

Sec. 37 of the act provides for the case of a person bestowing money or skill and materials upon any chattel. In such a case such person, if the amount to which he is entitled in respect of such skill and materials, is not paid for three months after becoming due, can sell the chattel on giving two weeks' notice by advertisement in any local newspaper, setting out the particulars.

Section 38 provides that the acceptance of any bill or note or the taking of any proceedings by a lien-holder shall not merge or waive his lien.

Various provisions as to costs are contained in secs. 40 to 45.

Mention might also be made of the "Woodman's Lien for Wages Act" which was passed for the protection of loggers and others.

In order to obtain the benefit of this lien a statement in form A to the schedule of the Act (see page 1424 hereof) must be filed in the County Court within thirty days after the last day of the work in respect of which the lien attaches, provided that a sale or transfer of timber upon which a lien is claimed made within the thirty days before such statement is filed shall not in any way affect the lien.

Proceedings to enforce a lien must be taken in the County Court within thirty days of the filing of such statement. The only particulars required in such action will be the statement already filed.

With a view to prevent timber being moved outside the province to avoid a lien attaching, section 13 provides for a writ of attachment being issued on the filing of the necessary affidavit.

Note—In Manitoba lien notes and hire receipts are not registerable.

On, from and after the 27th day of July, in the year 1886, receipt notes, hire receipts and orders for chattels given by bailees of chattels where the condition of the bailment is such that the possession of the chattels should pass without any ownership therein being acquired by the bailee, were and shall be only valid in the case of manufactured goods or chattels which, at the time the bailment is entered into, have the manufacturer's name or some other distinguishing name painted, printed or stamped thereon, or otherwise plainly attached thereto, and no such bailment shall be valid unless it be evidenced in writing signed by the person thus taking possession of the chattels.

Section 4 prohibits the registration of lien notes as affecting lands in any Land Titles Office or Registry Office, either by way of caveat or otherwise.

In Alberta and Saskatchewan lien notes and hire receipts are registered in a similar manner to chattel mortgages.

Note.—For summary procedure for possession in Manitoba see Landlord and Tenant Act (Manitoba), and for rights of distress see Distress Act, R.S.M., 1902, ch. 40.

The British Columbia Landlord and Tenant Act, R.S. B.C. 1911, ch. 26, deals entirely with the remedies of the landlord:

Firstly the landlord is afforded protection when execution is levied against the goods of his tenant, it being provided by section 2 that the landlord shall receive from the person issuing such execution all rent in arrear not exceeding in the whole one year's.

By sections 4 and 5 is extended the landlord's right of distress, whereby it is provided that if any rent is in arrear upon a duly determined lease for lives or years and the tenant is still in possession the landlord may distrain for such rent within six calendar months after the determination of the term.

A summary mode of regaining possession is given to the landlord when his tenant has deserted the premises owing at least one year's rent and no distress can be found. In such a case an application can be made to two justices to view the premises and to fix thereon a notice in writing as to what day they will return to take a second view. If on such second view the tenant does not appear and pay the rent the said justices may put the landlord in possession and thereupon the lease of the premises to such tenant (as to any demise therein contained only) shall be void (sec. 6).

Various provisions are also contained for the apportionment of the rent when a demise is suddenly determined by death or otherwise (secs. 11 to 15).

Effective methods are contained in sections 16 and 17 for dealing with tenants wilfully holding over after the determination of their terms, and tenants failing to give up possession after notifying the landlord of their intention to quit. By section 16 tenants so holding over are liable to pay rent to the landlord at a rate double the yearly value of the premises, and by section 17 tenants failing to give up possession as aforesaid are made liable to pay double rent for the period during which they so remain in possession.

Another remedy for a landlord when his tenant refuses to give up possession after the term has duly expired is contained in sections 19 to 28. These sections give the landlord the right to apply to the County Court Judge of the district for an inquiry to be held. On such inquiry the judge may either order a writ to be issued in Form 1 or 2 of the schedule to the Act (see Forms 1064 and 1065, ante) commanding the sheriff to give the landlord possession, or may dismiss the case. The Act gives a right of appeal to the Supreme Court on the findings of the County Court Judge within three months of the issue of such writ.

A further remedy is given the landlord in the case where a tenant:

(a) fails to pay his rent within seven days of the time agreed on or

(b) makes default in observing any covenant, and such default entitles the landlord to re-enter and refuses upon demand made in writing to pay the rent or deliver up the premises.

In such a case the landlord may apply upon affidavit to the Registrar of the County Court of the county in which the premises are situate, and obtain a summons calling upon the tenant, three days after service, to show cause why he should not deliver up possession. Upon the return of such summons the judge may make such order as he thinks fit (secs. 20 to 32).

4. Every person engaged in business for trading, manufacturing, contracting or mining purposes, and who is not associated in partnership with any other person or persons, but who uses as his business style some name or designation other than his own, or who in such business uses his own name with the addition of "and company" or

SPECIFICATIONS FOR A MACHINE

To all whom it may concern:

BE IT KNOWN that I, —, of the Town of —, in the Province of —, [occupation], having invented certain new and useful improvements in [meat chopping machines] (for which I have obtained a patent in [here name the country], No. —, bearing date the — day of —, A.D. 191—);* do hereby declare that the following is a full, clear, and exact description of the same.

My invention relates to improvements in [meat chopping machines] in which vertically-reciprocating knives operate in connection with a rotating chopping-block; and the objects of my improvement are, first, to provide a continuously-lubricated bearing for the block; second, to afford facilities for the proper adjustment of the knives independently of each other in respect to the face of the block; and, third, to reduce the friction of the reciprocating rod which carries the knives.

Similar letters refer to similar parts throughout the several views.

The table or plate A, its legs or standards B B, and the hanger a, secured to the under side of the table, constitute the frame-work of the machine. In the hanger a turns the shaft D, carrying a fly-wheel E, a crank-pin, on the hub of which is connected by a link b to a pin passing through a cross-head G, and to the latter is secured a rod H, having at its upper end a cross-head I, carrying the adjustable chopping-knives d d, referred to hereinafter.

*Note—If no foreign patent has been obtained, the words in parentheses should be omitted.

The cross-head G, reciprocated by the shaft D, is provided with anti-friction rollers e e, adapted to guides f f, secured to the under side of the table A, so that the reciprocation of this cross-head may be accompanied with as little friction as possible.

To the under side of a wooden chopping-block J is secured an annular rib h adapted to and bearing in an annular groove i in the table A. (See Figs. 1 and 2.) This annular groove or channel is not of the same depth throughout, but communicates at one or more points (two in the present instance) with the pockets or receptacles j j, deeper than the groove, and containing supplies of oil in contact with which the rib h rotates, so that the continuous lubrication of the groove and rib is assured. The rod H passes through and is guided by a central stand K, secured to the table A, and projecting through a central opening in the chopping-block without being in contact therewith, the upper portion of the said stand being contained within a cover k, which is secured to the block, and which prevents particles of meat from escaping through the central opening of the same.

The cross-head I, previously referred to, and shown in perspective in Fig. 4, is vertically adjustable on the rod H, and can be retained after adjustment by a set-screw x, the upper end of the rod being threaded for the reception of nuts, which resist the shocks imparted to the cross-head when the knives are brought into violent contact with the meat on the chopping-block.

The knives d d are adjustable independently of each other and of the said cross-head, so that the coincidence of the cutting-edge of each knife with the face of the chopping-block may always be assured.

I prefer to carry out this feature of my invention in the manner shown in Fig. 4, where it will be seen that two screw-rods m m rise vertically from the back of each knife and pass through lugs n n on the cross-head, each rod being furnished with two nuts, one above and the other below the lug through which it passes. The most accurate adjustment of the knives can be effected by the manipulation of these nuts.

A circular casing p is secured to the chopping-block, so as to form on the same a trough P for keeping the meat within proper bounds; and on the edge of the annular rib h, secured to the bottom of the block, are teeth for receiving those of a pinion q, which may be driven by the shaft D through the medium of any suitable system of gearing, that shown in the drawing forming no part of my present invention.

This shaft D may be driven by a belt passing round the pulleys s, or it may be driven by hand from a shaft W, furnished at one end with a handle t, and at the other with a cog-wheel R, gearing into a pinion on the said shaft D.

A platform T may be hinged, as at w, to one edge of the table A, to support a vessel in which the chopped meat can be deposited. The means by which it may be supported, and the most convenient method of disposing of it when not in use, are shown in Fig. 1.

I am aware that prior to my invention meat-chopping machines have been made with vertically-reciprocating knives operating in conjunction with rotating chopping-blocks. I, therefore, do not claim such a combination broadly; but

What I do claim as my invention, and desire to secure by letters patent, is:

1. The combination, in a meat-chopping machine, of a rotary chopping-block having an annular rib, with a table having an annular recess and a pocket communicating with the said recess, all substantially as set forth.

2. In a meat-chopping machine, the combination of a rotary chopping-block with a reciprocating cross-head carrying knives, each of which is vertically adjustable on the said cross-head independently of the other, substantially as described.

3. The knife d, having two screw-rods, m m, attached to its back, substantially as shown, for the purpose specified.

4. The combination, in a meat-chopping machine, of the reciprocating rod, carrying the knives, the cross-head secured to the said rod, and having anti-friction rollers, with guides, adapted to the said rollers, all substantially as set forth.

Form 1149

SPECIFICATIONS FOR AN ART OR PROCESS

To all whom it may concern:

BE IT KNOWN THAT WE, —, of the City of —, in the Province of —, [occupation], and —, of the City of —, in the Province of —, [occupation], have jointly invented a certain [new and useful process of treating sludge oil, in order to obtain from it a resinous substance] (for which we have obtained a patent in [here name the country], No. —, bearing date the — day of—, A.D. 191—),* of which the following is a specification:

In the purification of hydrocarbon oils produced by the distillation of crude petroleum, asphalts, or bitumens, or by the destructive distillation of coal, resins, or bituminous shales, the oils are agitated with 2 per cent. or more of concentrated sulphuric acid (60° Baumé, 1.86 specific gravity), in order to remove certain oils contained in the distillate which would, in course of time, absorb oxygen from the air, and cause the oil to become dark-colored and gummy, and also to remove tarry substances and the disagreeable odor. Sulphuric acid combines chemically with these bodies and dissolves them, forming a dark-red, heavy liquid, which settles on the bottom of the agitator, and can then be readily drawn off from the purified oil. This peculiar compound of sulphuric acid and hydrocarbon oils, dissolved in the excess of acid, is known as "sludge." At present it is purchased by superphosphate manufacturers, who mix it with a little water, which decomposes the compound of acid and oil, producing a weaker acid (about 50° Baumé) used in the manufacture of superphosphate of lime, and a dark-colored offensive oil, which rises to the surface of the acid, and usually is thrown away, no commercial use having been found for it. This waste product is called "sludge oil."

The mode of practising our invention is as follows: In our process, when the sludge has been decomposed by the addition of water, the sludge oil is drawn off, and is then purified by repeating washings with water, until the acid remaining in it is removed. For this purpose equal volumes of water and sludge oil may be used; but the washing can be effected by a less quantity of water. The acid remaining in the oil, if any, is then neutralized with quicklime or caustic soda. The purified oil has a strong and somewhat disagreeable odor, and contains about 10 per cent. of volatile oils, which are converted into a hard resin with difficulty. To remove these volatile substances, the sludge oil thus purified is introduced into a still with the addition of from 2 to 4 per cent. of caustic soda and about 2 per cent. of the oxides of lead or manganese, to oxidize any sulphurous body which may be in the oil and combine with it, and steam is then blown through the oil, the oil being kept hot either by a fire under the still or by the use of steam heated to the required temperature (between 212° and 450° Fahrenheit). The action of the steam is continued until no more volatile oils are removed, usually from five to ten hours. The steam is then shut off, and the contents of the still allowed to settle, when a sediment of tarry impurities and soda subsides, from which the pure oil may be drawn off. The oil is then introduced into a still or tank, and oxidized by blowing currents of air through it, the oil being kept at a moderate temperature (from 200° to 300° Fahrenheit), either by a slow fire under the still, or by a steam coil in the bottom of the tank, or by heating the air by a hot-blast oven to the proper temperature before it is blown through the oil, and the action of the air is continued until complete oxidation is effected, and a sample on cooling solidifies to a more or less hard resin.

The time required to effect the oxidation varies with the working temperature and with the extent of surface of oil brought in contact with the air. We may define it as between four and twelve days. The action of the air upon the oil is stopped when samples on cooling, taken from the contents of the still, are found to be of the proper degree of hardness and toughness for the particular purpose to which the product is to be applied, and after letting the contents of the still cool, the hot resin is drawn off from the sediment of soda and impurities.

The action of the air may be accelerated by adding other oxidizing agents—for example, about 2 per cent. of the oxides of lead or manganese, or about 2 per cent. of the manganates of soda and potassa to the oil. These substances act either by giving up oxygen to the oil or by their presence inducing a combination of the oxygen and the hydrocarbon.

An inferior quality of resin may be produced by treating the washed sludge oil in a still with caustic soda and litharge (5 per cent. soda to 1 to 2 per cent. litharge) and blowing a current of air through it at about the temperature of 200° Fahrenheit, which at the same time oxidize the oil and removes the more volatile portions, which are distilled off until it is converted into a resin which on cooling becomes hard and brittle. This process as mentioned requires from two to six days, but the product is lighter in color than that made by first treating with steam and then with air at a lower temperature, as the color of the oil is not affected by steam at 400°, while at a higher temperature rapidly darkens it by oxidation. Sunlight imitates the color of sludge oil, and, at the same time, greatly accelerates the absorption of oxygen from the air. To produce the lightest-colored resins, the sludge oil is treated with 5 per cent. of a solution of soda, 20° Fahrenheit at a lower temperature (about 200° to 250° Fahrenheit) for ten hours, to remove the more volatile portions and then oxidized and bleached by exposing the oil, in shallow tanks covered by glass, to the action of the sunlight, the oil being kept hot and fluid by a steam coil in the bottom of the tank, and currents of air blown through it to produce the oxidation.

Inferior quantities of sludge oil, as produced in the purification of lubricating oils, and which contain a large quantity of tarry substances, are treated as follows: The oil is charged into a still, and caustic soda and black oxide of manganese, in the proportion of about 5 per cent. of soda and 2 per cent. of manganese, are added, and the charge distilled by a current of steam blown through the oil, assisted by a fire under the still, until only tar and coke remain behind. The distillation commences at about 350° Fahrenheit, and the fire being increased, the temperature in the still gradually rises to about 800°, when only the thick pitch remains in the still.

By the use of steam under pressure, the oil can be distilled with scarcely any decomposition, and the distillate, which is of a yellow light-red color, can be converted into a superior resin by oxidizing it with a current of hot air. The resin produced by this oxidation of sludge oil is distinguished from all other known resins and resinous substances by its behavior with different chemicals and solvents. It varies in color from yellow to dark garnet red, according to the method of its production. It is hard, brittle, and odorless at ordinary temperatures, tasteless, insoluble, and not acted upon by water, soda, potassa, or ammonia, even when heated.

Alcohol of 95 per cent. dissolves but small quantities of this resin, even when boiled with it. Petroleum-naptha dissolves it very quickly without the aid of heat, producing a varnish. Spirits of turpentine readily dissolves the melted resin, forming a varnish. Benzole, chloroform, and bisulphide of carbon will dissolve the resin, the solution being aided by Ether. A mixture of ether and alcohol, in equal parts, will dissolve the resin, but not so readily as the other solvents. Oil of turpentine will dissolve the resin, but not so readily as the other solvents. The resin will not dissolve in water, and is not acted upon by acids.

oil and spirits of turpentine forms an "oil varnish." Concentrated sulphuric acid dissolves it completely; the resin separates again on adding water. Nitric acid attacks it violently and converts it into a brown tarry or gummy substance, having a pleasant, peculiar odor. Hydrochloric acid seems to have little or no action on it.

It is well known that it has been proposed to use sludge oil as a paint oil, but this has not been attended with practical success. We do not wish to be understood, however, as making claim, broadly, to a process for freeing sludge oil from the acid by the use of water and caustic alkalies, or by still further purifying it by subjecting it to distillation, or by blowing steam through it, for the purpose of removing impurities, all of which, it is well known, have been practised since the discovery of the present process of refining petroleum. Nor do we wish to be understood as laying claim in this application to the resinous substances produced by our process, as that forms the subject-matter of another application by us for letters patent.

We claim:

1. The process herein described for producing from sludge oil a resinous substance possessing the properties described, which consists in combining the oxygen of the air with the sludge oil with the aid of a moderate degree of heat.
2. The process of producing from sludge oil a substance of a resinous character, which consists in treating the sludge oil while heated to a moderate temperature, with the air and with other oxidizing agents, substantially as described.
3. The process of treating sludge oil in order to obtain from it a resinous substance, which consists in purifying such oil, distilling from it the volatile substances present therein, heating the residue to a temperature of from 200° to 300° Fahrenheit, and blowing air into it while it is so heated, substantially as described.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR A COMPOSITION OF MATTERS

To all whom it may concern:

BE IT KNOWN THAT I, —, of the City of —, in the Province of —, [occupation], [am the administrator of the estate of —, in his lifetime of the said city, [occupation], and that the said —] did invent a certain [new and useful composition of matter to be used for the removal of hair and grease from hides preparatory to tanning], (for which I have obtained a patent in [here name the country], No. —, dated — day of —, A.D. 191—,)* of which the following is a specification:

The composition of the said — consists of the following ingredients, combined in the proportions stated, viz.: [here state composition of ingredients].

These ingredients are to be thoroughly mingled by agitation.

*Note—If no foreign patent has been obtained, the words in parentheses may be omitted.

In using the above named composition the hides should first be freed from all salt and impurities, by soaking green hides one day and dry hides eight days. The hides so cleaned are then placed in the said solution and allowed to remain in it forty-eight hours. They should then be removed from the solution and unhaired in the usual way.

By the use of the above composition the hair is speedily and thoroughly loosened, and the hides, while retaining all that portion of the substance which can be converted into leather, are at the same time entirely cleaned from grease and other substances which would prevent them from being tanned quickly.

I am aware that a composition consisting of soda-ash-water, lime, and sulphur has been used for the same purpose, and that a patent therefor was granted to —, the — day of —, A.D. 191—, No. —. I am also aware that saltpeter has been used in depilatory processes; but I am not aware that all of the ingredients of my composition have been used together.

What I claim and desire to secure by letters patent of the Dominion of Canada, is:

1. The herein-described composition of matter, consisting of water, unslaked lime, soda-ash, saltpeter, and sulphur, substantially and for the purpose specified.

2. The herein-described composition of matter for depilating and preparing hides for tanning, consisting of pure water five hundred gallons, unslaked lime three hundred and fifty pounds, soda-ash one hundred pounds, saltpeter twenty pounds, and flowers of sulphur ten pounds, substantially as described.

BILL OF LADING OF GRAIN

SHIPPED in good order and condition by [shipper], in and upon the good [steamship] —, now lying in the port of — and bound for —, with liberty to carry a deckload, call at any intermediate port or ports for coaling and [or] loading and [or] discharging or other purposes whatsoever being marked and numbered as per margin and to be delivered in like good order and condition at the port of — unto —, or to his or their assigns, he or they paying freight on the said goods on delivery at the rate of —, say — per unit delivered, according to the — scale and charges, if any, as per margin.

IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED that the steamer shall have liberty to sail without pilots, to tow and be towed and assist vessels in distress, to deviate for the purpose of saving life or property, to convey goods in lighters to and from the steamer at the risk of the owners of the goods but at steamer's expense and in case the steamer shall put into a port of refuge for repairs, to tranship the goods to their destination by any other steamship.

The act of God, perils, dangers and accidents of the sea or other waters, of what nature and kind soever, fire from any cause on land or on water, barratry of the master and crew, enemies, pirates and robbers, arrests and restraints of princes, rulers and people, explosions, bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts or any latent defect in hull and [or] machinery, strandings, collisions and all other accidents of navigation and all losses and damages caused thereby are excepted, even when occasioned by negligence, default or error in judgment of the pilot, master, mariners or other servants of the shipowners but unless stranded, sunk or burnt nothing herein contained shall exempt the shipowner from liability to pay for damage to cargo occasioned by bad stowage, by improper or insufficient dunnage or absence of customary ventilation or by improper opening of valves, sluices and ports or by causes other than those above excepted and all the above exceptions are conditional on the vessel being seaworthy when she sails on the voyage but any latent defects in the hull and [or] machinery shall not be considered unseaworthiness, provided the same do not result from want of due diligence of the owners or any of them or by the ship's husband or manager.

The shipowner is not liable for loss or damage occasioned by decay, putrefaction, rust, sweat, change of character, drainage leakage, breakage or any loss or damage arising from the nature of the goods or the insufficiency of packages, nor for land damage, nor for the obliteration or absence of marks or numbers, nor for any loss or damage caused by the prolongation of the voyage.

The steamer, while detained at any port for the purpose of coaling, is at liberty to discharge and receive goods and passengers.

The goods are to be applied for within twenty-four hours of steamer's arrival and reporting at the custom house and to be discharged as fast as steamer can deliver during the ordinary working hours of the port in bulk and [or] bags at the receiver's option, otherwise the master or agent shall be at liberty forthwith and at any time should delay occur in the discharge, to put the goods or any part thereof into lighters or land same at the risk and expense of the owners thereof.

In the case of quarantine at any port, the goods destined for that port may be discharged into quarantine depot hulk or other vessel as required for the steamer's despatch. Quarantine expenses upon the said goods, of whatever nature or kind, shall be borne by the owners thereof.

In case of the blockade or interdict of the port of discharge or if the entering of or discharging in the port shall be considered by the master unsafe by reason of war disturbances or ice, the master may land the goods at the nearest safe and convenient port at the expense and risk of the owners of the goods and the steamer's responsibility shall cease when the goods are so discharged into proper and safe keeping, the master giving immediate notice of the same to the consignee of the goods so far as they can be ascertained.

The master or agent shall have a lien on the goods for freight and payments made, if any, or liabilities incurred in respect of any charges stipulated herein to be borne by the owners of the goods.

In case any part of the within goods cannot be found during the steamer's stay at the port of their destination, they are to be sent back by first steamer at the steamer's risk and expense and subject to any proved claim for loss of market, provided the goods are properly port marked.

The steamer shall not be liable for incorrect delivery of packages unless each of them shall have been distinctly marked by the shippers before shipment.

If the parcel herein signed for constitutes part of a larger bulk, shipped without separation into parcels as per bills of lading, each bill of lading shall bear its due proportion of shortage or damage and [or] sweepings, if any.

General average payable according to — rules.

If the cargo cannot be discharged by reason of a strike or lock-out of any class of workmen essential to the discharge of the cargo, the days for discharging shall not count during the continuance of such strike or lock-out. A strike of the receiver's men only shall not exonerate him from any demurrage for which he may be liable under this bill of lading, if by the use of reasonable diligence he could have obtained other suitable labor and in case of any delay by reason of the before-mentioned causes, no claim for damages shall be made by the receivers of the cargo, the owners of the steamer or by any other party under this contract.

The shippers to and consignees of cargo for Holland, by accepting this bill of lading, expressly waive and renounce article 700 of the Dutch Commercial Code and agree to contribute their proportion of general average, including damages and expenses and allowances to the steamer, even if these have been caused by the inherent vice of the steamer, by its unseaworthiness or by the fault or neglect of the commander or the crew.

The owner and consignee of the goods and shipowner mutually agree to be bound by all the above stipulations, exceptions and conditions, notwithstanding any custom of the ports of loading or discharging to the contrary.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the master [or duly authorized agent] of the said steamer hath affirmed to three bills of lading, all of this tenor and date, one of which bills being accomplished, the others to stand void.

13. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the proprietor of a trade mark may, on forwarding to the Minister a drawing and description in duplicate of such trade mark, and a declaration that the same was not in use to his knowledge by any other person than himself at the time of his adoption thereof, together with the fee required by this Act in that behalf, and on otherwise complying with the provisions of this Act in relation to trade marks and with the rules and regulations made thereunder, have such trade mark registered for his own exclusive use.

WILLS

PRELIMINARY NOTE RE BRITISH COLUMBIA LAW

The provisions regarding wills are contained in the Wills Act, R.S.B.C., ch. 241, the main points of which are as follows:

All persons over the age of twenty-one years and not subject to any legal incapacity may make a will. No will, however, made by a person under twenty-one is valid (secs. 3 and 5).

A will must be in writing and signed at the foot or end by the testator or by some other person in his presence and by his direction. The signature should be made or acknowledged in presence of two or more witnesses present at the same time and such witnesses should attest and subscribe in presence of the testator. No form of attestation is necessary (sec. 6).

The signature of the testator may be placed at, or after, or following, or under, or beside, or opposite the end of the will, so long as it is apparent on the face of the will that the testator intended by his signature to give effect to the document as his will.

No signature, however, is operative to give effect to any disposition or direction which is underneath or which follows it nor to any disposition or direction inserted after the signature is made (sec. 7).

If an attesting witness is incompetent to be admitted as a witness to prove the execution the will is not invalid on that account (sec. 11).

A beneficiary is a competent witness, but gifts to attesting witnesses or their husbands or wives are void (sec. 12).

Creditors and executors are competent witnesses (secs. 13 and 14).

Appointments made by will in exercise of any power must be executed with the same formalities as a will (sec. 8).

A will is revoked by the testator's marriage except a will made in exercise of a power of appointment where the real and personal estate would not in default of appointment pass to the heirs of the appointer (sec. 15).

A will may be revoked by another will or codicil executed with the formalities required in the case of a will, or by the will being burned or torn or otherwise destroyed by the testator or by any person in his presence and by his authority (sec. 17).

Alterations or obliterations in a will should be authenticated by the testator and witnesses signing their names in the margin (sec. 18).

No will that has been revoked can be revived unless by re-execution or by a codicil showing intention of revival (sec. 19).

A will is construed to take effect as from the death of the testator unless a contrary intention appears from the will (sec. 21).

A residuary devise carries lapsed and void devises (sec. 22), and general gifts include estates over which the testator has a general power of appointment (sec. 24).

A devise without any words of limitation passes the fee unless a contrary intention appears (sec. 25).

The words "die without issue" or similar words are construed as meaning "die without issue living at the death" (sec. 26).

Gifts to children or their issue who predecease the testator leaving issue living at his death do not lapse but take effect as though the death of such child had happened immediately after the death of the testator (sec. 30).

WILLS OF PERSONALTY

Wills of personalty by soldiers in actual military service, or of seamen at sea are not subject to the act.

In these cases a simple oral or written declaration of the mode in which the testator wishes his personal estate to be disposed of after his death is sufficient. If the declaration is oral sufficient evidence must be produced to satisfy the court of the substance of the declaration and of the fact that it was intended to be testamentary.

WILLS ACT

MANITOBA AND SASKATCHEWAN

(R.S.M. 1902, ch. 174)

Section 3. Every person may devise, bequeath or dispose of by will, executed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, all real estate and personal estate which he may be entitled to either at law or in equity, at the time of his death, and which, if not so devised, bequeathed or disposed of, would devolve upon his heir-at-law or upon his executor or administrator. (Vide sec. 3, R.S.S., 1909, ch. 44, for similar provision.)

Section 4. No will made by any person under the age of twenty-one years shall be valid. (Vide sec. 4, R.S.S., 1909, ch. 44, for similar provision.)

Section 5. No will shall be valid unless it be in writing and be executed in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: It shall be signed at the foot or end thereof by the testator or some other person in his presence and by his direction, and such signature shall be made or acknowledged by the testator in the presence of two or more witnesses present at the same time, and such witnesses shall attest and shall subscribe the will in the presence of the testator, but no form of attestation shall be necessary. (Vide sec. 7, R.S.S., 1909, ch. 44, for similar provision.)

Section 6. Every will, so far only as regards the position of the signature of the testator or of the person signing for him as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be valid within the meaning of this Act, if the signature be so placed at, or after, or following, or under, or beside or opposite the end of the will, that it is apparent on the face of the will that the testator intended to give effect by such signature to the writing signed as his will. (Vide sec. 8, R.S.S., 1909, ch. 44, for similar provision.)

Section 7. Appointments made by will in exercise of any power, shall not be valid unless the same be executed in the manner hereinbefore provided. (Vide sec. 9, R.S.S., 1909, ch. 44, for similar provision.)

Section 12. If any person attest the execution of any will, to whom or to whose wife or husband any beneficial devise or legacy, estate, interest, gift or appointment of or affecting any real or personal estate (other than and except charges and directions for the payment of any debt or debts) is thereby given or made, such devise, etc., shall be utterly null and void; such person, however, so attesting shall be admitted as witness to prove the execution of said will. (Vide sec. 12, R.S.S., 1909, ch. 44, for similar provision.)

Section 15. Every will shall be revoked by the marriage of the testator, except a will made in the exercise of a power of appointment, where the real or personal estate thereby appointed would not, in default of said appointment, pass to the testator's heirs, executors or administrators, or the person entitled as the testator's next of kin, or in case the will is made in contemplation of marriage. (Vide sec. 17, R.S.S., 1909, ch. 44.)

Section 22. Every will shall be construed, with reference to real estate and personal estate comprised in it, to take effect as if it had been executed immediately before the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention appear by the will. (Vide sec. 24, R.S.S., ch. 44.)

ALBERTA LAW RELATING TO WILLS

(S.S. 17-25, North-West Territories Act, R.S.C. ch. 62, apply by virtue of the Alberta Act, 4 and 5 Edw. 7, ch. 3, s. 16 (Dominion))

By the Married Women's Relief Act, Statutes of Alberta, 1910, Second Session, ch. 18, it is provided that the widow of a man who dies leaving a will, by the terms of which she receives less than she would have done had he died intestate, can apply to the Court for relief.
